THE MISSISSIPPI STATE SERIES

Mississippi State leads, 3-0

In Lafayette: 0-0

In Starkville: Mississippi State leads, 3-0

Streak: Mississippi State +3

Date	Winner	Score	Site
10/5/40	Mississippi State	20-0	Starkville
9/29/45	Mississippi State	31-0	Starkville
9/5/87	Mississippi State	31-3	Starkville

THE SERIES

- Louisiana and Mississippi State meet for the fourth time in each program's history on Saturday, Sept. 15.
- It is the first time the two schools have met since 1987 making it 31 years since the two schools have faced off on the gridiron.
- Although it has been 31 years since the two schools have met, it is not the longest stretch that the two teams have gone without playing each other. The Cajuns and Bulldogs went 41 years between 1945 and 1987 without meeting up.
- This is the second time that either team will be ranked entering the game in the match-ups, with Mississippi State being ranked No. 20 in the AP Poll when the two teams met in 1940.

A RAGIN' CAJUNS VICTORY WOULD ...

- Get Louisiana off to a 2-0 start for first time since 2009 when the Cajuns beat Southern (42-19) to open the season and followed that up with a 17-15 win over Kansas State.
- Be the second game Louisiana has ever won against a ranked opponent and the first since Louisiana upset No. 25 Texas A&M, 29-22, on Sept. 14, 1996.
- Give Louisiana its first win ever against Mississippi State and its first win ever against a current member of the Southeastern Conference.

BRINGING BACK THE 80s

- In 1987, gas was under a dollar for one of the last times in history, sitting at 90 cents (in 1989, gas would hit the dollar mark). A gallon of milk cost just $2.28 and a dozen eggs would have only set someone back 78 cents.
- Eddie Murphy's Beverly Hills Cop II was the highest grossing film in 1987 ($153,665,036), while NBC's The Cosby Show (27.8 rating), A Different World (25.0 rating) and Cheers (21.8 rating) ruled the airwaves. The Bangles' "Walk Like an Egyptian" finished 1987 at the top of Billboard's Year-End Hot 100 Singles.

AND THEN THERE WERE THREE

- Of the seven head coaches in FBS who coached their first career games, four won their first games, with Louisiana head coach Billy Napier being among that group.
- Rice fell to Houston on Saturday (Sept. 1), giving Rice's first-year head coach Mike Bloomgren his first career loss (1-1).
- Napier joins Josh Heupel (UCF) and Herm Edwards (Arizona State) as the three coaches in the country who have yet to take a loss.

NAPIER GETS NUMBER ONE

- Head coach Billy Napier got his first career win against Grambling and the 27th head coach in school history becomes the 12th coach ever in school history to get his first win as head coach of the Ragin' Cajuns.
- Coach Napier became the first coach to complete the feat since Sam Robertson won his first game as the head coach of Louisiana (then USL) when the Ragin' Cajuns beat New Mexico State 14-12 on Sept. 6, 1980.
- Between Coach Robertson and Coach Napier four head coaches failed to win their first game as head coach of the Ragin' Cajuns.

HEAD COACHES WHO WON FIRST GAME AT LOUISIANA

- Ashby Woodson - 6-5 at Opelousas (Dec. 21, 1901)
- S. Ovey Herpin - 105-0 vs. Delcambre Academy (Nov. 2, 1903)
- Edwin F. Gayly - 11-5 at Franklin (Nov. 5, 1904)
- Herbert McNaspy - 28-0 vs. St. Martinville (Oct. 27, 1906)
- Jefferson Caffery - 11-5 at Crowley (Nov. 2, 1907)
- Clement J. McNaspy - 11-0 vs. St. Martinville (Oct. 24, 1908)
- H. Lee Prather - 33-0 vs. Morgan City (Sept. 28, 1912)
- H.O. Tudor - 34-0 vs. Abbeville (Sept. 25, 1920)
- George Mitchell - 24-6 at Stephen F. Austin (Sept. 27, 1947)
- A.L. Red Swanson - 25-0 vs. East Texas Baptist (Sept. 23, 1950)
- Sam Robertson - 14-12 vs. New Mexico State (Sept. 6, 1980)
- Billy Napier - 49-17 vs. Grambling (Sept. 1, 2018)

LOUISIANA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

TAKING ON THE SEC

- For the seventh-straight season, Louisiana will face off with at least one SEC opponent during the football season. And it's the second-straight year that the Ragin' Cajuns will take on two SEC teams (at Mississippi State, Sept. 15 and at Alabama, Sept. 29).
- Despite never beating a team that was a member of the SEC when Louisiana played them (0-42 all-time vs. SEC), Louisiana did score a historic upset against current SEC member Texas A&M (29-25 on Sept. 14, 1996) but at the time Texas A&M was a member of the Big 12.

FACING RANKED COMPETITION

- With Alabama being ranked No. 1 and Mississippi State coming in at No. 18 in the preseason AP Top 25 poll, Louisiana will be facing two ranked opponents in the same season since 2010 when the Cajuns faced off with Georgia (No. 23) and Oklahoma State (No. 22).
- This season will be only the fourth time that Louisiana has taken on two ranked opponents in the same season. The other three times were in 2010, 2009 (Louisiana State [No. 9] and Nebraska [No. 25]) and 1996 (Florida [No. 4] and Texas A&M [No. 25]).
- As long as Mississippi State and Alabama stay in the top 20, Louisiana will take on two top 20 teams for the first time since 1985. During the '85 season the Cajuns faced off with Auburn (No. 2) and Florida (No. 5).
- Louisiana has not faced a ranked opponent since taking on Ole Miss (No. 14) in 2014.

NEW FACES

- Louisiana had 18 new additions to the squad from 2017 make their first appearance as a member of the Ragin' Cajuns.
- When breaking down the numbers, nine were transfers from another school and nine were true freshmen.
- Two newcomers got the start with Chauncey Manac (LB) and Kendall Johnson (CB) getting the nod on defense.

A 21-YEAR OLD RECORD FALLS

- Senior quarterback Andre Nunez's completion percentage of 86.4 (Grambling, Sept. 1), which is a new single-game record for completion percentage with at least 20 attempts, broke a record that stuck for 21 years. Lance Domec went 17 for 20 against Arkansas State on Oct. 4, 1997, to finish with a completion percentage of 85.0 percent.
- Nunez finished with 184 yards passing and two touchdown passes against Grambling (Sept. 1). He was 19 for 22 to finish with his school record 86.4 completion percentage.
- Nunez had 13 straight completions after missing his first pass of the game and that is the best stretch for a Louisiana quarterback since Terrance Broadway began the 2014 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl with 14 straight completions.

DEFENSE SLOWS DOWN GRAMBLING

- Louisiana's defense put in a complete team effort in the Cajuns 49-17 win against Grambling. A huge red zone stand in the Tigers' first possession of the game set the tone for the entire game.
- Junior linebacker Jacques Boudreaux led the team with four tackles and one sack with the Cajuns having a strong showing up front, controlling the line of scrimmage on the defensive side of the ball.
- Redshirt freshman Bennie Higgins had a big game, finishing with three tackles and one sack while junior Chaiziere Malbrue and freshman Andre Riley each got a sack to give Louisiana four sacks on the night en route to holding Grambling to 159 yards passing.

A BIRD APPROACHES A MILESTONE

- Jay Walker, who many know as the voice of the Ragin' Cajuns, will broadcast his 296th game when Louisiana takes on Mississippi State. It is Jay's 27th season calling the Ragin' Cajuns on the radio, having served duties as both the color commentator and his current role as play-by-play announcer.
- During the 27 seasons Walker has called some memorable games, but the most was the color commentary he provided for Louisiana's biggest win in school history, a 29-22 win over No. 25 Texas A&M on Sept. 14, 1996.

Besides beating Sun Belt Conference foe ULM three times, the Ragin' Cajuns have knocked off Southern (45-6, Aug. 30, 2014); Northwestern State (44-14, Sept. 12, 2015); McNeese State (30-22, Sept. 10, 2016); Southeastern Louisiana (51-48, Sept. 2, 2017) and Grambling (49-17, Sept. 1, 2018) with all the non-ULM wins coming at Cajun Field.

LOUISIANA VERSUS THE FCS

- Louisiana's win against Grambling improves their all-time record 39-19-1 against schools currently in the Division I Football Championship Subdivision (formerly known as Division I-AA) dating back to 1982. Louisiana is 11-1 against FCS schools since 2000.

- Coach Napier leads the charge with bowl experience, coaching in 10 bowl games during his career. While right behind him is Mark Hocke, who has had his hands in nine bowl games. Rob Sale is not far behind with seven bowl game appearances as a coach.
- Leading the experience on the sidelines is Ron Roberts, who has 27 years on the sidelines, including six years as the head coach at Southeastern Louisiana (2012-17). Right behind him is Segrest, who has 22 years of coaching experience.

SATURDAYS AT CAJUN FIELD

- For the first time since 2016, Louisiana will be playing six games at home this season.
- All six home games will be played on Saturday, and that's the first time that's happened for Louisiana since 2015.

COACHES SHOW ON CST STARTS

SBC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME IS HERE

- The Sun Belt Conference will hold its first ever football championship game as the league's presidents and chancellors, as well as athletic directors, voted unanimously and the first game will be played this season. The announcement was made on June 8, 2016.
- The two teams will be decided by who wins their respective divisions, with the conference being split into a east and west division for the first time.
- The game will be played at the school with the better record or wins the tiebreaker if both division winners share the same conference record at the end of the season.

LOUISIANA FOOTBALL GAME NOTES - LAST GAME RECAP
LOUISIANA 49, GRAMBLING 17

Sept. 1, 2018 | Lafayette, La. | Attendance: 28,866

LAFAYETTE – The Billy Napier era of Louisiana Football began on Saturday with the homestanding Ragin' Cajuns capturing a 49-17 win over Grambling in front of 28,866 at Cajun Field. Louisiana (1-0) used a 21-point spurt in the first quarter – over a seven-minute span – to gain separation in the first-ever meeting against Grambling (0-1) and stretched its lead to 35-10 at the break. Of the seven scoring drives the offense produced, five were accomplished in eight plays or less. Louisiana produced 556 yards of offense and netted 27 first downs. Napier, who was the offensive coordinator at Arizona State and worked at Alabama and Clemson, became the first Ragin' Cajuns coach to win in his opening game since Sam Robertson (a 14-12 win over New Mexico State) in 1980.

Quarterback Andre Nunez completed 19-of-his final 20 pass attempts for 184 yards and a pair of touchdowns while adding an acrobatic 4-yard TD run near the end of the first half. Ja'Marcus Bradley caught a game-high six passes for the Ragin' Cajuns, scoring on TD receptions of 3 and 8 yards while senior tight end Matt Barnes recorded his first career TD reception on a 19-yard pass from Levi Lewis in the third quarter. Trey Ragas rushed for 142 yards on 13 carries for Louisiana and gave the Ragin' Cajuns the lead for good on the team's second possession with a 4-yard TD run. Jamal Bell caught an 18-yard scoring pass from Lewis with 1:40 remaining in the first quarter while Raymond Calais would give Louisiana a 49-10 lead after scoring on a 2-yard TD run with 3:55 remaining in the third quarter. Jacques Boudreaux recorded a team-high four tackles with a sack to lead the Ragin' Cajuns, which held Grambling to 306 yards of total offense.

GAME NOTES VS. GRAMBLING (Sept. 1, 2018)

- Ragas' 142 yards on the ground was a career high.
- Ragas' 142 yards was the first time a Louisiana running back had at least 100 yards in the season opener since Elijah McGuire ran for 162 yards (5 TDs) against Northwestern State on Sept. 12, 2015.
- Bradley's two touchdown receptions was a career high.
- Jamal Bell's touchdown catch in the second quarter was his first career touchdown reception.
- Nunez threw for two touchdowns and ran for one and that's the second time in his career that he has done that, with the first coming against ULM on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Levi Lewis tossed two touchdowns for the second time in his career (Nov. 4, 2017).
- Nunez had 13 straight completions after missing his first pass of the game and that is the best stretch for a Louisiana quarterback since Terrance Broadway began the 2014 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl with 14 straight completions.
- Louisiana had a 98-yard scoring drive (10 plays) that ended with Matt Barnes catching his first career touchdown reception. That is the scoring longest drive Louisiana has had since going 99 yards in 11 plays against Arkansas State on Nov. 26, 2016. That drive ended with Elijah McGuire catching a 14-yard touchdown pass from Anthony Jennings.
- The four consecutive touchdown scoring drives that the Ragin' Cajuns had during the first half were the most since piecing together four straight touchdown scoring drives against ULM on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Nine receivers caught at least one pass and that is the first time that's happened in a game since Sept. 16, 2017 at Texas A&M.
- But in that game in College Station, Texas quarterback Jordan Davis caught one of the nine. The last time nine receivers caught at least one pass in a game that didn't include the quarterback was against Boise State on Sept. 3, 2016.

QUARTERBACK NOTEBOOK

- Nunez's completion percentage of 86.4 (Grambling, Sept. 1), which is a new single game record for completion percentage with at least 20 attempts, breaks a record that stuck for 21 years. Lance Domec went 17 for 20 against Arkansas State on Oct. 4, 1997 to finish with a completion percentage of 85.0 percent.
- 21 years is a long time, and in 1997 the cost of gas was only $1.19 and cell phones were brand new. The Internet was just becoming a thing across the country, and by the time 1998 came around there were a grand total of 750,000 commercial websites, of course that has changed a bit since then.
- A few other things that were happening when Domec set his record, Elton John had the number one song in the country with "Something About the Way You Look At Me" and just about two months after Domec's record setting performance a little movie titled "Titanic" came out. A few people might have heard of it and it would gain a gross total of $1.84 billion in the box office worldwide, which was the most money earned by a film until "Avatar", another James Cameron film, finally broke that record.
- Nunez finished with 184 yards passing and two touchdown passes against Grambling (Sept. 1). He was 19 for 22 to finish with his school record 86.4 completion percentage.
- Nunez had 13 straight completions (Grambling, Sept. 1) after missing his first pass of the game and that is the best stretch for a Louisiana quarterback since Terrance Broadway began the 2014 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl with 14 straight completions.
- Nunez threw for two touchdowns and ran for one (Grambling, Sept. 1) and that's the second time in his career that he has done that, with the first coming against ULM on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Levi Lewis got involved against Grambling, see solid action through the game, finishing with two touchdown passes and 57 yards in the air (4 for 8).
- Lewis engineered a 98-yard scoring drive (10 plays) that ended with Matt Barnes catching his first career touchdown reception. On the drive Lewis was 2 for 4 accounting for 32 yards of the 98 Louisiana gained on the scoring drive.

RUNNING BACK NOTEBOOK

- Louisiana's running backs accounted for two of the Cajuns' seven touchdowns scored against Grambling (Sept. 1).
- Trey Ragas' 142 yards on the ground (Grambling, Sept. 1) was a career high and it is the third time in his career that he has ran for at least 300 yards.
- Ragas' 142 yards (Grambling, Sept. 1) was the first time a Louisiana running back had at least 100 yards in the season opener since Elijah McGuire ran for 162 yards (5 TDs) against Northwestern State on Sept. 12, 2015.
- Five different running backs got touches against Grambling (Sept. 1), with Ragas finishing with a team high 13 touches and 142 yards. Raymond Calais had 70 yards on the ground and one rushing touchdown with seven touches. And Elijah Mitchell had seven touches of his own finishing with 35 yards on the ground.
- Ashton Johnson (five carries, 29 yards) and Jordan Wright (three carries, 13 yards) rounded out the heavy load that Louisiana's backfield carried against Grambling (Sept. 1).

WIDE RECEIVER NOTEBOOK

- Louisiana's three top receivers from 2017, who combined for a total 1,690 receiving yards during last season, return for the 2018 season.
- Ryheem Malone (senior) is the returning leader in receiving yards (676 yards in 2017) while Keenan Barnes (senior) comes in as the number two returner leader (539 yards in 2017). Junior Ja'Marcus Bradley is the third-leading returner in receiving yards with 475 yards in 2017.
- The 1,690 receiving yards produced during the 2017 season by Louisiana's top three returning receivers accounted for 66 percent of Louisiana's 2,578 total receiving yards gained in 2017.
- Bradley caught two touchdown passes in the first half (Grambling, Sept. 1), one at 4:22 in the first quarter and the second coming at 13:05 in the second quarter. Bradley becomes the first receiver to catch two touchdowns in the same half since Jamal Robinson caught two in the first half against Texas State on Oct. 5, 2013.
- In fact Robinson was the last to grab two touchdown passes in a single game period, catching two against Texas State, on Oct. 10, 2015. In that game Robinson got one in the second and third quarters.
- Bradley finished with 70 yards on six receptions (2 TDs) to led Louisiana against Grambling (Sept. 1).
- Jamal Bell snagged two passes for 19 yards including one touchdown (Grambling, Sept. 1) that was the first of his career.
- Malone had 46 receiving yards on four receptions (Grambling, Sept. 1), and he had eight yards on one rush to finish with 54 all-purpose yards.

TIGHT END NOTEBOOK

- During the game against Grambling, Louisiana's tight ends caught four passes, with senior Matt Barnes leading the way with three receptions.
- Normally that wouldn't be anything special, except for the fact that during 2017 Louisiana tight ends only caught eight pass for the entire season. Meaning that after one game in the 2018 season Louisiana's tight ends have already caught half the amount of passes that the unit caught during the entire 2017 season.
- Barnes caught his first career touchdown on a 19-yard touchdown reception. He finished (Grambling, Sept. 1) with three recpetions for 38 yards to led Louisiana's tight ends.
- Johnny Lumpkin caught his first career pass (Grambling, Sept. 1), resulting in a five-yard gain for Louisiana.

MEDIA INFORMATION

WE ARE "LOUISIANA"

The Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns® is the nickname of the University's athletic teams. As listed by the Sun Belt Conference, the NCAA and ESPN.com, we politely ask that you refer to our athletic programs as simply "Louisiana" on first reference, or use any of the following: Ragin' Cajuns or Cajuns.

- For all electronic sports tickers and TV crawls only, please use "LA" as the official abbreviation for all athletic programs.
- The Sun Belt Conference made public its University Reference Guide in 2016 that is used to reference each member institution's athletic title and nicknames. The publication of the guide comes after all of the conference's presidents and chancellors submitted their preferred reference.
- The Sun Belt Conference will begin to use these references immediately. Sun Belt member institutions and media partners are encouraged to use these references so that there is consistency across all communication platforms.

PRESS BOX MEDIA SERVICES

Pre-game notes, programs, guides and statistics along with other information will be provided to all media members prior to kickoff. Members of the Louisiana ACOMM staff will man the press box phone number, (337) 851-2255, which should be used for any questions or information needed during the game.

Louisiana and the Football Writer's Association of America (FWAA) remind you that the Cajun Field press box is a working press facility and that cheering for either team will not be tolerated. Violators will be asked to leave by security personnel.

WORKING PRESS AREA

The entrance to the Cajun Field press box is through the press elevator, located at Gate B adjacent to the elevator tower on the west side of Cajun Field.
