TEAM NOTES

- Mississippi State has reached the NCAA Regionals in every season under head coach Dusty Smith, excluding the canceled 2020 season. The six-year run is the longest streak in school history.
- MSU set a school record for the lowest season-opening round at the Visit Knoxville Collegiate (274) last year. At the time, it was the sixth-lowest team round in school history.
- State totaled 827 at the 2023 Visit Knoxville Collegiate, which is the fifth-lowest 54-hole team total in program history.
- Hunter Logan won last year's Visit Knoxville Collegiate for State, firing a 54-hole total of 199 that ranked fifth in program history.
- Eight of the 12 lowest team rounds in program history have come during Smith's seven seasons as the head coach.
- A victory would give Smith six tournament titles. He currently ranks fourth among Bulldog head coaches. Greg Martin and Ronnie Moore are tied for second with eight career wins.
- State signed a four freshmen and two transfers this offseason. Both transfers won conference titles at their previous schools.
- The top three finishes by an individual at an NCAA Regional in program history have come in just the last two years. Garrett Endicott posted the best such finish last year when he tied for fourth.
- Endicott missed out on advancing to the NCAA Championships as an individual after a five-hole playoff.
