HEAD COACH DUSTY SMITH

Formerly one of the nation's top assistant coaches, Dusty Smith delivered the program's first NCAA Regional appearance since 2014 after Director of Athletics John Cohen tabbed the Vanderbilt assistant as the eighth head coach of Mississippi State men's golf in May 2017.

In his debut head coaching season with MSU in 2017-18, Smith led the Bulldogs to six Top 5 finishes and the program's 10th NCAA Regional appearance. In March and April, the team took four consecutive Top 5 finishes, which included a fourth-place finish at State's home event, the Old Waverly Collegiate Championship.

In April, Smith's squad set the third-lowest 54-hole score in team history. The Bulldogs shot an 834 at the Bighorn Invitational in Palm Desert, California, as the team carded a season-best second place finish.

The team's performance at the Bighorn Invite bested its season-opening total by one stroke. To start the Dusty Smith era, the Golf Dawgs shot an 835 at the Bearcat Invitational, which sits as the fourth-best score in MSU history. State also finished third in the September tournament.

Smith also coached his players to six Top 5 finishes and 11 Top 10 finished on individual leaderboards.

Smith's first year at the helm concluded with an eighth-place finish at the NCAA Bryan Regional hosted by Traditions Club in Bryan, Texas.

In his final season as assistant coach in 2016-17, Smith and head coach Scott Limbaugh took Vanderbilt to a program-record fourth consecutive NCAA Championship, where it won the stroke play portion of the championship by 12 shots and advanced to the semifinals of match play.

The Commodores advanced to the NCAA Championship in Sugar Grove, Illinois, after tying for second place in the NCAA College Grove (Tenn.) Regional and capturing the program's first SEC Championship.

Since joining Vanderbilt in 2011, Smith assisted the Commodores to 12 team tournament titles, with 10 players earning individual medalist honors. While at Vanderbilt, seven of his golfers earned All-America status, highlighted by three first-team selections. He also tutored 11 players to All-SEC accolades, with four earning First-Team All-SEC honors.

Smith and Limbaugh also had three Vandy players named to the Palmer Cup, while another was selected to play in the Walker Cup. The duo also coached the Commodores' first SEC Player of the Year (Hunter Stewart) in 2015 and the program's first SEC Freshman of the Year (John Augenstein) in 2017.

Stewart and another of Smith's players, Matthias Schwab, went on to earn exemptions into PGA Tour events.

The outstanding 2016-17 campaign came after the Commodores finished both 2015 and 2016 No. 4 in the final Golfstat rankings. Both of those squads finished four rounds of stroke play at the NCAA Championship in the Top 8 to advance to the match play portion of the event.

The 2007 Lamar graduate made the move to Nashville after spending three seasons as the assistant men's and women's coach at his alma mater.

With the Cardinals, he helped the men's team to the 2009 Southland Conference championship and a second-place finish in 2011. Lamar advanced to an NCAA Regional during each of his three seasons.

He helped mentor eight All-Southland Conference Team selections during his time at his alma mater, led by the SLC Player of the Year M.J. Daffue in 2011.

Under his watch, the Lady Cardinals earned six tournament victories, including a second-place showing at the 2011 Southland Conference Tournament. Five women's golfers earned All-SLC accolades in his three seasons, while Therese Nilsson and Stine Pedersen were named Southland Student-Athlete of the Year in 2009 and 2011, respectively.

The coaching success he has experienced as a coach carried over from a sensational playing career that saw him earn Ping All-America honors and three All-Southland Conference selections while guiding the Cardinals to four-consecutive NCAA Regionals from 2004-07 and a pair of NCAA Championship berths in 2006 and 2007.

HEAD COACH DUSTY SMITH

The Woodlands, Texas, native earned All-America accolades as a junior as he tied for 10th individually and helped Lamar to a tie for ninth at the 2006 NCAA Championship in Sunriver, Oregon.

As a senior, he notched All-SLC whonors for the third time as the Cardinals went on to post the program's best NCAA Championship finish with a tie for third in Williamsburg, Virginia in 2007.

Smith inked with Lamar after a stellar prep career at The Woodlands High School that included a 2002 Class 5A state title.

Smith and his wife, Janie, have a two-year old daughter, Adella Jane.

What They're Saying On Dusty Smith:

"We are excited to welcome Dusty, Janie and Ella to the Bulldog family. Integrity, work ethic, recruiting prowess and student-athlete development were of the utmost importance throughout our search for a new men's golf coach. We feel Dusty fits all of these criteria."

- Dusty Smith, Director of Athletics, Mississippi State University

"Coach Smith is a class act who stands for things that are right. He has an exceptional eye for seeing talent and player development. I know he will establish a vision for taking the program as far as it can go. He also understands our jobs are to help them become men that can have a positive influence in life. He, Janie, and Ella will fully embrace this new venture. I know they will have a ton of success, and we are so happy for them. They have forever left their mark on this program and will be missed by our entire Vanderbilt golf family."

- Scott Limbaugh, Head Coach, Vanderbilt University

"Dusty Smith has been successful at all levels as a player and coach. Playing on two teams at Lamar University that finished ninth and third in back-to-back NCAA Championships is quite an accomplishment. He then carried his momentum into his coaching career in helping Vanderbilt become a golf powerhouse. Mississippi State has hit a home run with Dusty Smith, another great hire in the SEC golf community."

- Brad McMakin, Head Coach, University of Arkansas

"Dusty is a fine young coach, and I'm sure he will do well at Mississippi State. He has learned from one of the best in Scott Limbaugh, and the two of them have put Vanderbilt on the map. Dusty has the ability to lead, motivate and inspire his players to reach their goals. He knows what it takes to win and will make a tremendous impact on the Mississippi State program."

- Chris Haack, Head Coach, University of Georgia
