QUICK KICKS

- Colombia became the first team to score twice against Spain in the Olympic Games. They led the match for 85 minutes before ultimately falling in the penalty shootout.
- Had Colombia held on to its 2-0 lead, it would have been just Spain's second loss of 2024 (Czech Republic, July 12, 1-2) while ranked No. 1 and their first loss to a South American side since 2017 (Brazil, June 10, 1-2).
- Colombia is the first side to take Spain to extra time since the Netherlands did so in August 2023 (Spain, 2-1).

QUALIFIED FOR QUARTERS

- Colombia advanced to the Olympic quarterfinals for the first time in national history. They are No. 22 in the current FIFA world rankings, their highest ranking since the system was established in 2003.
- Colombia was the top third-place team in the group stage and one of two to advance to the Olympic quarterfinals along with Brazil.
- Colombia reached the quarterfinals at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup, their best finish at a major international tournament. They've also been the runners-up at the Copa America three times.

SCOUTING THE SQUADS

- Ilana Izquierdo (COL) has started seven of Colombia's last eight matches and played 254 of 390 minutes in the Olympic tournament.
- The only match in that span that she did not play in was the Olympic opener against France.
- Izquierdo totaled three shots in the tournament, most notably she narrowly missed over the bar in the 53rd minute of the then-scoreless match against Canada.
- Catalina Perez (COL) missed the tournament with a injury sustained in training.

COLOMBIA'S OLYMPIC RECORD

- Colombia's all-time Olympic record is now 1-7-2. They did not advance out of the group stage in their prior two appearances.
- Colombia and Spain's quarterfinals meeting was the first time the two nations have played each other.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT THE GAMES

- Ilana Izquierdo (COL) is the 11th student-athlete in school history to compete in an Olympic Games will still an active student-athlete or immediately following their final year of eligibility.
- She is the first active student-athlete in a team sport since B.J. Wallace (USA) played baseball at the 1992 Barcelona Games.
- Izquierdo is the fourth-youngest player on Colombia's women's soccer roster and the 21st-youngest in the tournament.
