2021 ROCKY TOP RECORDS

• With the win against USF on Sept. 2, UT's 26-year-old program logged its 300th victory. It becomes just the fourth SEC team to reach that milestone, right on the heels of Auburn who achieved its 300th program win on Aug. 26 against Troy. UT boasts the third-best all-time winning percentage in the league at .615.

• Tennessee held opponents scoreless from the start of the 2021 season through seven games, until the 3:53 mark of game eight at Arkansas. The streak set a new single-season program shutout record of 633:53. The previous record was 533:22 set in 2012, spanning from the 6:33 mark at Western Kentucky on Aug. 19 through 53:24 at No. 1 UCLA on Sept. 9.

• Tennessee didn't allow a goal for the duration of non-conference play, starting the season with seven straight shutouts for the first time in team history.

NEW FACES ON ROCKY TOP

• Tennessee welcomed the No. 17 signing class in the nation as rated by Top Drawer Soccer. The class is comprised of seven versatile field players and one goalkeeper and features four high school All-Americans and the United Soccer Coaches' 2020 National High School Player of the Year, Taylor Huff.

• UT added some experience to the squad via transfers, bringing on senior defender Hannah Zaluski (George Washington), senior goalkeeper Ashley Gabor (Penn), and junior forward Cariel Ellis (Holmes CC). Sophomore Lindsey Brick (Syracuse), who enrolled in January but wasn't eligible to compete at the time, is also seeing her first action as a Volunteer this fall.

GUESS WHO'S BACK, BACK AGAIN

• UT returns nine starters from the 2020-21 squad that claimed the SEC East Title, including the dynamic scoring duo of redshirt-sophomore Jaida Thomas and senior Mackenzie George.

• Thomas, a four-time SEC Freshman of the Week and SEC All-Freshman Team member, led the conference and ranked fourth in the NCAA with 12 goals scored during the 2020-21 season.

• Mackenzie George played a team-high 1,325 minutes for the Vols in 2020-21, notching four goals and four assists to earn Second Team All-SEC honors.

• Fifth-year senior Wrenne French returns to anchor the defense with her 60 caps, 54 starts, and 5,065 minutes worth of experience

FOUR-STRAIGHT OLYMPICS

• Former UT forward Hannah Wilkinson, a three-time Olympian and mainstay in the New Zealand senior national team lineup since 2010, represented the Football Ferns at the Tokyo 2020 Olympics. She started all three matches for New Zealand, logging 265 minutes and recording an assist on her team's lone goal of the tournament.

• Former Lady Vol Rhian Wilkinson was also present in Tokyo, serving as an assistant coach for Great Britain. Wilkinson has now appeared in four Olympics, one as a coach and three as a player for the Canadian National Team.

• Tennessee Soccer has been represented in four-straight Olympic Games dating back to 2008.

BOOK SMART

• Freshman Taylor Huff was named National Scholar Player of the Year by the United Soccer Coaches.

• Huff, a four-time United Soccer Coaches High School All-American and 2020 National Player of the Year, scored 34 goals and recorded 27 assists as a senior to finish her career with 133 goals and an OHSAA state record 93 career assists.

• Huff graduated at the top of her class at Madison Comprehensive High School in Mansfield, Ohio, sporting a perfect 4.00 GPA.

BIOGRAPHY

Brian Pensky completed his ninth season at the helm of the Tennessee soccer program in 2020.

This past fall, Pensky guided Tennessee to an SEC East Title, going 4-1-1 in divisional play and 4-3-1 overall in conference play. In the spring, the Big Orange recorded four more wins, three of which were shutouts, to finish the season with an 8-6-1 record and mark the sixth-straight winning season. Newcomer Jaida Thomas was named to the 2020 SEC All-Freshman Team and junior Mackenzie George earned Second Team All-SEC honors.

In 2019, Pensky led UT to a 9-6-3 record overall. The Vols posted an 8-2 record at Regal Soccer Stadium that included shutout wins over SEC East rivals Florida, Georgia and Kentucky. Following the 2019 season, seniors Maya Neal and Katie Cousins became the fourth and fifth players in program history to earn four All-SEC honors with first and second team accolades, respectively. MA Vignola was named also a first team all-conference selection after leading the team with nine goals and five assists. Goalkeeper Lindsey Romig was named to the SEC All-Freshman team, becoming the fifth Tennessee player to accomplish that feat in the past six years.

Pensky's Vols ascended to new heights in 2018, reaching the NCAA Quarterfinals for the first time in program history. Tennessee finished 16-3-3 overall, good for the program's highest winning percentage (.795) and fewest losses (3) in a single season. UT earned consensus top-10 status following the historic campaign, rounding out the year with a No. 6 ranking from TopDrawerSoccer.com, No. 7 from the United Soccer Coaches and No. 8 in the NCAA RPI.

Tennessee's stout defensive unit limited opponents to a program-best 15 goals on the season, while the Vols' 12 shutouts tied a Tennessee record that has stood since 2003. UT netted 44 goals on the offensive end, marking the first time Tennessee scored 40-plus goals in back-to-back seasons since 2002-03.

Several Vols claimed individual postseason accolades, highlighted by Bunny Shaw (second team) and Katie Cousins (third team) earning All-America distinction from the United Soccer Coaches. Shaw, Cousins and Maya Neal were selected First Team All-Southeast Region, while MA Vignola took home a Second Team all-region nod.

Shaw headlined SEC postseason awards, becoming the second Tennessee player ever to be named SEC Offensive Player of the Year (Kylee Rossi, 2006-07). The forward from Spanish Town, Jamaica led the league with 0.87 goals per game, 2.13 points per game and seven game-winners. Shaw, Cousins and Neal each repeated as First Team All-SEC honorees, while Vignola and Erin Gilroy were voted Second Team All-SEC.

Pensky coached UT to a 15-4-2 record in 2017, returning to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2012. The team scored 47 goals - the third-most in program history - and posted 10 shutouts. Following the campaign, Pensky was awarded a contract extension through the 2021 season.

Five players were named United Coaches All-Region and/or All-SEC following the 2017 season. Katie Cousins became the program's sixth All-American and second under Pensky's tenure with a third team selection from the United Soccer Coaches. Michele Christy was tabbed CoSIDA Academic All-America with a 4.0 GPA in chemical engineering.

In 2016, Pensky helped the Vols return to the SEC Tournament after narrowly missing out in 2015. The Big Orange finished 5-5-1 in SEC play, earning the No. 7 seed in the conference tournament. Tennessee defeated Ole Miss, 2-0, in the first round of the SEC Tourney before being eliminated by No. 2 seed Auburn, 3-1, in the quarterfinals.

The Vols were strong once again defensively, posting eight shutouts and a 1.45 goals against average for the season. Three players (Hannah Wilkinson, Rylie O'Keefe & Maya Neal) earned NSCAA All-South Region and All-SEC accolades. Wilkinson posted career highs with 11 goals, 10 assists and 32 points to move into second and third, respectively, on UT's career goals and points charts.

Pensky led the Vols to their fifth winning season in the past six years and 15th overall in 2015. Tennessee went 7-5-6 despite losing several key players to injury early in the season, including the team's active leader in goals and points, Hannah Wilkinson. UT went undefeated in non-conference play (4-0-3) and finished in a three-way tie for ninth in SEC play (3-5-3).

Redshirt-senior goalkeeper Julie Eckel capped off a great career by earning All-SEC first-team honors. She led the SEC with eight shutouts and became the Vols' career leader in saves (335) and save percentage (.817). The Cordova, Tenn., native also finished her career as the program's all-time leader among goalkeepers in games played (81), games started (79) and minutes played (7,411:14).

In 2014, Pensky led Tennessee on an impressive late-season surge with four-straight wins in a 10-day span (Oct. 26 - Nov. 5), advancing the Big Orange to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the eighth time in program history. Tennessee defeated No. 21 Missouri, 3-0, at home on Oct. 26 before Cheyenne Spade's 108th-minute goal in the regular-season finale at Ole Miss punched UT's ticket to the SEC Tournament. Tennessee rallied back from a 2-0 deficit in the first round of the SEC Tournament to defeat Alabama, 3-2. In the SEC Tournament quarterfinals, Tennessee played No. 8 Florida to a 1-1 tie and advanced on penalty kicks, 5-4. Hannah Wilkinson and Allie Sima earned NSCAA All-Region and All-SEC Tournament honors and Carlyn Baldwin was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Pensky led UT to its third-consecutive and 14th-overall winning season in 2013 with a record of 8-7-4. The team notched three wins over ranked opponents, including triumphs over eventual conference champions Texas A&M (SEC champion) and UCF (Conference USA champion). Strong leadership from the team's upperclassmen helped continue UT's tradition of excellence on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Senior forward Caroline Brown and junior back Allie Sima garnered All-SEC honors and NSCAA Scholar All-Region accolades. Brown also earned Capital One Academic All-America second-team honors, making her the only two-time Academic All-American in UT history.

In Pensky's first year at Tennessee, the squad went 14-5-3 and made its 10th appearance in the NCAA Tournament. UT also outperformed preseason league expectations, finishing third in the SEC after the team was picked 11th in the SEC Preseason Coaches' Poll in August. The team's 0.69 goals-against average set a new program record and the Lady Vols recorded 11 shutouts. UT also produced the longest shutout streak in school history with 533:22 of scoreless defense from Aug. 19 through Sept. 9. Tennessee finished at No. 18 in the final NCAA Women's Soccer RPI and the Lady Vols ranked 25th in the final Soccer America poll of 2012.

Sophomore forward and Pensky recruit Hannah Wilkinson was named a third-team NSCAA All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection in 2012. She became the fifth Lady Vol to be named an All-American (first, second or third team) and the fourth Lady Vol to garner NSCAA All-America honors.
