BY HOME STATE

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI STATE

James Armstrong is taking the Mississippi State soccer program to new heights in his fourth season coaching the program. Armstrong turned the program around from his first year when he ended a 15-year SEC Tournament drought and posted the third-highest SEC winning percentage in program history with a 8-8-3 record. Armstrong is 26-22-12 and 11-15-8 in the SEC as the Bulldogs head coach.

Mississippi State is 9-2-3 overall and 3-2-1 in the conference. It took 13 games for the Bulldogs to lose their game, starting 9-0-3 before losing their last two matches to No. 8 South Carolina and Auburn. Mississippi State began conference play with a huge win over current No. 9 Arkansas. It's next two games are on the road against No. 20 Ole Miss and at home against No. 3 Alabama.

The youth on the Bulldog offense have been the leading producers of points. Freshman forward Maggie Wadsworth leads the team with seven goals and 16 points, including four game-winning goals which is ranked seventh in the nation. Wadsworth earned back-to-back SEC Freshman of the Week honors in weeks four and five. Sophomore Haley McWhirter has four goals and four assists for 12 points. Another freshman in Alivia Buxton earned SEC Freshman of the Week in week one, scoring a brace against FIU.

The Mississippi State defense is the strength of the team, compiling nine shutouts and giving up just 6 goals all season. Goalkeeper Maddy Anderson was off to a career season, tallying 23 saves and just four goals allowed for a 0.33 goals against average which is third best in the nation. Anderson has career season highs in goals against average, save percentage and shutouts. Sophomore keeper Mac Titus has played majority of the minutes the last two games.

SERIES HISTORY

Ole Miss leads the all-time series over Mississippi State with a 15-8-2 record. The Rebels last held the Magnolia Cup after a 2-1 win in November of 2019. Ole Miss is 8-3-2 when playing the Bulldogs in Oxford, outscoring them 27-8.

PREVIOUS GAME (10/28/21)

STARKVILLE, Miss. — On a wet and chilly night at the MSU Soccer Field, Ole Miss (11-4-3, 6-3-1 SEC) battled back from an early deficit to take the lead but couldn't hang on, falling to Mississippi State (5-8-3, 3-6-1 SEC) 3-2 Thursday night.

The Rebs got off to a slow start, surrendering the lead less than five minutes in after Hailey Farrington-Bentil lifted a shot over a charging Ashley Orkus and in.

From there, the Bulldogs attempted to pack it in and protect the lead. However, the Rebels had an answer. Collecting the ball at midfield, Channing Foster dribbled past a host of defenders and unleashed a wicked shot from 25 yards out, burying it upper 90.

Ole Miss looked to capitalize on the momentum and pushed for a second before the expiration of the half but was forced to settle for a 1-1 score at the break.

Just like the Bulldogs did in the first half, Ole Miss opened the second with an early goal, and an incredible one at that. Breaking quickly on the counter, Mo O'Connor alertly recognized the keeper off her line and took a shot from around 40 yards out, perfectly

The lead would not last too long, however, as Monigo Karnley scored in the 61st minute to tie the match at two goals apiece. Then, in the 78th minute, Orkus was called for a foul in the box and Bulldog keeper Maddy Anderson scored from the penalty spot to give Mississippi State a 3-2 lead and ultimately the win.

POWERFUL PAIR

Ole Miss forwards Mo O'Connor and Marykate McGuire have been tough for opposing defenses to stop this season. McGuire leads the team with seven goals and O'Connor's penalty kick goal against Texas A&M was her sixth.

It's the second consecutive year and 12th in the last 14 seasons, the Rebels have two players with six or more goals. Only other SEC team with multiple 6-plus goal scorers is Alabama.

SHOOT AROUND

The Rebels are 7-0-1 when taking more shot than their opponents and 4-0-1 with more shots on goal. Ole Miss is also undefeated when taking more than ten shots in a single game.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Ole Miss women's soccer is a win away from their fifth straight season with double-digit wins. It would mark the ninth season with 10-plus wins in the last 11 seasons, missing it by one win in 2016.

The program has won at least 10 games in 16 seasons.

STARTING OFF RIGHT

Out of the Rebels 26 goals this season, 10 goals have been scored in the first 20 minutes of the match. Ole Miss' quickest goal of the season came off the foot of keeper Ashley Orkus. She scored the first goal of a 2-1 win over Kentucky with 1:25 off the clock.

BREAKING RECORDS

Ole Miss continues to break program records. Ole Miss' 9-0-2 record was the best start for the first 11 games by win percentage in school history. Ashley Orkus already broke Ole Miss' career shutout record and recently became the all-time career saves leader. Orkus also moved ahead of Marnie Merritt for second most goalkeeper wins at 41

The Rebels went 3-0 in SEC games for the first time in program history.

TRANSFER SUCCESS

The Rebels signed six transfers during the offseason, which is the second most in the SEC. Four start for Ole Miss, which is second-most in the SEC and tied fourth in the nation. Marykate McGuire leads the way with sevens goals along with four assists.

SYD VICIOUS

Picking a ball off near midfield, 6th-year senior defender Sydney Michalak made a dazzling run before firing into the back of the net for Ole Miss' second goal against Memphis. It was Michalak's first goal since her collegiate debut in 2018, still playing as a forward at that time. The Rebel left back also helped Ole Miss lock up a pair of clean sheets during the week. For her efforts, Michalak was named to the TopDrawerSoccer.com Team of the Week.

GETTING DUSTY IN HERE

While the first goal of any season is a special one, the Rebels' opening tally of the 2022 season came with a little extra meaning. Fourteen minutes into the match, redshirt-freshman Lauren Montgomery cleaned up a Mo O'Connor rebound and slid the ball under the keeper for her first collegiate goal, coming just over a year after tearing her ACL during

IT JUST MEANS MO'

When the lights shine brightest, Rebel striker Mo O'Connor steps her game up to another level. Of O'Connor's 19 career goals, 10 have come against conference opposition, including five of seven goals in 2021. O'Connor's five goals in league play last season were tied for the most in the conference.

DANCING QUEENS

Ole Miss is one of five SEC teams to receive a bid at least five of the last seven seasons (Arkansas, Auburn, South Carolina, Texas A&M) and also one of five SEC teams to make four of the last five NCAA Tournaments.

BEEN AROUND THE BLOCK

In his 13th season at the helm of the Ole Miss program, Matt Mott is the fourth-longest tenured head coach in the SEC. Mott is also the third-longest tenured head coach active at Ole Miss.

SEC's Longest Tenured Head Coaches

1. G Guerreiri (Texas A&M) - 29 seasons
2. Karen Hoppa (Auburn) - 24 seasons
3. Shelley Smith (South Carolina) - 22 seasons
4. Matt Mott (Ole Miss) - 13 seasons
5. Colby Hale (Arkansas) - 11 seasons

BIG SHOES TO FILL

With the departure of star players like Channing Foster, Haleigh Stackpole and Molly Martin, Ole Miss will have plenty of firepower to replace in 2022. Foster finished her career with 44 goals, tied for the second most in program history, while Stackpole's 31 career assists rank third all-time at Ole Miss, including 16 assists in 2021 alone. Meanwhile, Martin and her aerial threat led the Rebels with 10 goals a season ago. Overall, Ole Miss will need to replace 25-of-36 goals (69.4%), 23-of-44 assists (52.3%) and 73-of-116 points (62.9%) from the 2021 season.

RESTOCKING THE CUPBOARD

With the loss of the bulk of the scoring production from the 2021 season, Matt Mott and his staff were tasked with hitting the transfer portal for experienced replacements and more than delivered, bringing in six veteran players to restock the war chest.

Transfer	School	App.	Goals	Assists	Points

MATT MOTT

RUN DOWN

In 12 seasons as the leader of Ole Miss soccer, head coach Matt Mott has built the Rebel program into a side consistently competing for a spot at the top of the table in the fiercely competitive SEC but also a force to be reckoned with on the national stage.

Of the 10 total NCAA appearances in the history of Ole Miss soccer, six have come since Mott took the reins as the second head coach in the program's history in 2010, including three second round appearances and two trips to the Sweet 16.

During his tenure at Ole Miss, Mott has seen his players receive six All-American nods, 17 all-region awards, 23 All-SEC laurels, six SEC All-Freshman picks, seven Academic All-American selections and had three players drafted into the professional ranks with the NWSL. The Rebels have produced some of the best talent ever seen in Oxford under Mott, including the three top scorers in program-history in CeCe Kizer, Channing Foster and Rafaelle Souza.

Following three standout years at Ole Miss, Souza has gone on to play in several professional leagues across the globe and has represented her native country as a starter for the Brazilian National Team at both the World Cup and Olympics. Meanwhile, Kizer became Ole Miss' first-ever two-time All-American in 2017 and 2018 and is one of the bright young stars in the NWSL with Racing Louisville FC. In 2021, Foster became the SEC's first-ever five-time All-SEC honoree and will start her pro career with the Chicago Red Stars. Mott also brought in Ashley Orkus, who collected SEC Goalkeeper of the Year, First Team All-SEC and United Soccer Coaches All-America laurels in both 2020 and 2021.

The 2021 campaign saw Ole Miss put together one of the finest regular seasons in program-history, reaching as high as

No. 13 in the United Soccer Coaches Poll and spending three weeks inside the top-5 of the NCAA RPI report. Ole Miss began SEC play 6-1-0, tied for the best start in program-history, and ultimately finished second in the SEC West and third in the league table overall, matching the highest-ever conference finish. The Rebs defeated No. 5 LSU for the highest ranked win ever for Ole Miss, also picking up a ranked victory over No. 19 South Carolina. In the postseason, Ole Miss knocked off Alabama in Orange Beach to advance to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the sixth time ever and first since 2013 and earned just the third host NCAA Tournament match in Oxford.

During the fall 2020 season with the college sports landscape flipped on its head, Mott's Rebels adapted and rolled with the punches. Playing an eight-match regular season featuring strictly SEC competition, the Rebels rebounded from a slow offensive input to begin the season to finish strong, ultimately garnering a 4-5-0 record to tie for sixth in the league table. The Rebs finished the regular season with a flourish, recording back-to-back ranked wins over No. 14 Georgia and No. 13 Vanderbilt. Building on the momentum, the Rebels returned in the spring and were off an running. Ole Miss swept its six non-conference matches, including a resounding 3-1 win in the derby matchup with Memphis, before making plenty of noise in the NCAA Tournament. Matching the deepest run in program-history, the Rebels advanced to the Sweet 16 with back-to-back penalty shootout wins over Bowling Green and No. 8 national seed USC before bowing out to No. 6 Duke with a 10-6-2 record for the season.

Ole Miss completed another successful season in 2019, finishing the year with a 10-7-3 record, including a 3-4-3 mark in league play and a 6-1-2 record at home. The Rebels qualified for the SEC Tournament for the fifth straight year. Ole Miss went on the road and retained the Magnolia Cup for a sixth-straight year, extending its record run. The Rebs also earned a 3-2 win over No. 19 Florida, the first win over the Gators since 2009. Ole Miss won the rematch with Mississippi State in the SEC Tournament First Round, the program's first win in the conference tournament since 2013.

The 2018 Rebels experienced one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, posting a 13-8-1 overall record and finishing tied for third in the SEC with a 6-3-1 mark in league play. Among the regular season highlights were a pair of top-10 wins over No. 9 Auburn and No. 7 Vanderbilt as well as a 2-0 victory over No. 25 Mississippi State to maintain the Magnolia Cup for a record fifth-straight year. The Rebels earned a bid to the NCAA tournament in consecutive seasons for the first time in program-history, earning a 2-1 win at No. 25 Clemson before bowing out to No. 1 Stanford in the Second Round. In all, Ole Miss earned four wins over ranked opponents.

The 2017 edition of Mott's Rebel squad was one of the highest scoring teams in the nation, ranking third in the country at 2.70 goals per game. Ole Miss scored 54 goals on the season, the fourth-highest scoring season in program-history. The Rebels finished the season 10-7-3, earning a bid to the NCAA Championships for the third time in five seasons.

In 2015, the Rebels reach heights never seen before in Oxford, advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in school history and achieving the program's highest-ever national ranking of No. 12 midway through the season. Following the campaign, the Rebels finished No. 16 in the postseason poll, their highest ever postseason ranking.

The 2015 campaign saw Ole Miss knock off back-to-back top-10 opponents, which helped surge the team up the polls. Following a 1-0 victory in just the second-ever home NCAA Championship match, the Rebels went on to advance past No. 7 Clemson on penalty kicks in the second round of the NCAA Championships. Under Mott's guidance, the Rebels tallied nine shutouts, including the two versus No. 10 Auburn and No. 10 South Carolina. The 14 wins tied for the third-most in school history, while the seven SEC victories tied for the second-most in school history.

After being picked 10th in the SEC Preseason Poll, Mott led the program to a third-place finish in the league. A record 11,087 fans showed up in attendance at the Ole Miss Soccer Stadium in 2015, also a record for the program, which ranked top-25 nationally.

Just two years prior, the Rebels posted a 16-win season, marking the most wins in a single season for Ole Miss. Ole Miss also hosted its first NCAA Tournament match in school history, defeating Jackson State 9-0 in the opening-round game. For his efforts Mott was named the NSCAA South Region Coach of the Year.

In his third season at the helm of the program, Mott continued to move the program forward with a return to the SEC Tournament as Ole Miss made its first tournament appearance since 2009 and advanced to the quarterfinals with a shutout victory over LSU in the opening round. The shutout victory was one of eight for the Rebels on the season. The squad posted an 8-0 start to the season, the best in program history, and included a stretch of four consecutive shutout wins and 483 minutes of shutout soccer to also set a school record for consecutive shutout minutes by the Rebels.

Before taking over the Rebel program, Mott was the top assistant coach at the University of Texas from 2006-10, helping the Longhorns to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including back-to-back Sweet Sixteen berths in 2006 and 2007. The 2007 squad rose as high as No. 1 in the national rankings. Working with the goalkeepers and defenders, Mott helped guide UT to a school record for lowest goals against average (0.64 in 2008) and several other defensive records during his tenure.

No stranger to the Southeastern Conference, Mott assisted Karen Hoppa at Auburn from 1999-2005. He was promoted from assistant to assistant head coach to associate head coach during his time on the Plains and helped the Tigers to four straight NCAA Tournaments and four straight SEC West titles from 2001-04. He was named the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 when Auburn claimed the SEC overall championship. As Auburn's recruiting coordinator, Mott brought in six nationally ranked signing classes and helped develop several players to All-SEC and All-America honors.

The Norwood, New York, native served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Central Florida, for four years under Hoppa prior to his stint at Auburn. While there, the Golden Knights won three Trans Atlantic Athletic Conference Championships and earned an NCAA Tournament berth in 1998.

Before UCF, Mott was the head women's coach at Division III Hilbert College in Hamburg, N.Y., where he became the winningest coach in school history during his tenure from 1991-94. He was also the goalkeepers coach for the men's team at Hilbert during that time.

Mott obtained a bachelor's degree in general studies and a minor in criminal justice from UCF in 2000 and also earned an Associate of Science degree in 1994 from Erie Community College in Buffalo, N.Y. Before college, Mott spent four years in the U.S. Coast Guard where he played and coached with the Coast Guard's select team in Portsmouth, Va.

Mott holds a National "B" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation. In addition to his college coaching positions, he has served as the goalkeepers coach for the USYSA Region III Olympic Development Program team since 2003.

He is married to the former Jennifer Swartz. They have two sons, Dean and Will, and a daughter, Tacie.
