NO STOPPING REYES

- Reyna Reyes has continued to lead the Alabama defense, helping UA to its seventh shut out this season with the help of a 3-0 win over Texas A&M last Sunday.
- She was named to the MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List, the nation's top individual honor for college soccer players, becoming one of just 60 female student-athletes to be named to the list.
- Additionally, she was selected to the United Soccer Coaches Players to Watch Defensive List and the SEC Preseason Watch List.
- Despite playing the majority of her time on the back line, she scored her first collegiate brace to lead the Crimson Tide to victory over Tennessee (9/22).
- Reyes is tied for fourth in the conference for total goals, while ranking second on the team in the category with five goals
- With the help of Reyes on the back line, the Tide shut out its seventh-consecutive team at home, with the last opposing team goal in the Alabama Soccer Stadium coming from a 2-1 overtime win against Kentucky last season (Oct. 21)
- Alabama has allowed just three goals in the last 540 minutes (six games, with a second half goal from Utah Valley and two from Tennessee in that span)

ABOUT MISSISSIPPI STATE

- The Bulldogs are coming off a 1-0 win against Ole Miss on 10/13.
- Mississippi is 10-2-3 overall and 4-2-1 in conference play.
- Maggie Wadsworth paces the team in both points with 17 and goals with seven.
- Haley McWhirter leads the team in assists with four, is second in goals on the team with five, and is second in points with 14.
- Maddy Anderson leads the team in net, playing in 13 games this season and recording 23 saves (.852).

ABOUT COACH HART

- Wes Hart coached the program to one of its best seasons in 20 years in 2021.
- Alabama won its first NCAA Tournament game and advanced to the second round for the first time in program history.
- The program set a school record for most home wins in 2021, defeating 10 opponents.
- In 2019, the team tallied the longest SEC unbeaten streak in program history (six games) and ranked No. 1 in the nation among D1 teams in corner kicks earned (159 in 20 matches played).
- That same year, a program-high four athletes earned All-SEC honors.
- Hart guided the team its first victory over a top-five opponent in program history in 2018 when Alabama upset over then-No. 5 Texas A&M.

INTERNATIONAL TIES

- Reyna Reyes competed in four matches with the Mexican National Team last season, being called up to the team in January of 2021.
- Reyes made her first appearance with the senior team against Costa Rica before earning her first start against Slovakia.
- Reyes was selected for the team's pair of friendly matches against the United States in July, entering the game's second half of the first meeting and starting the second.
- In addition to Reyes, three current members of the Tide have international experience.
- Tanna Sanchez-Carreto was a member of the U17 and U20 Mexican National Team, helping Mexico earn silver at the FIFA U17 Women's World Cup in Uruguay.
- Emelie Kobler was called up to the U19 Austrian training camp.
- Sydney Japic competed in the UEFA U-19 and U-17 Euro qualifier with the Bosnian National Team (2019 & 2021) and scored a goal at the U17 UEFA Euro Qualifiers against Belgium in 2019.

IN THE PROS

- Alabama's Merel van Dongen competed in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics with the Netherlands, finishing her run in the quarterfinals after a penalty kick shootout against the United States. Van Dongen returned to Spain to play with her club, Atletico Madrid.
- Former UA team captain Nealy Martin entered her second season with Racing Louisville FC, after trying out for the NWSL team last season.
- Celia Jimenez Delgado continues her post-collegiate career with the Orlando Pride.
- Alabama soccer alum Pia Rijdsdijk furthers her soccer career with Netherland-based soccer club, Feyenoord Vrouwen.
- Maruschka Waldus continued her soccer career in Australia, where she is currently playing for Adelaide United.
