QUICK KICKS

Decision Day in the SEC

Georgia concludes the regular season Thursday with a crucial matchup at Mississippi State. Both Bulldogs are looking to earn a bye in the SEC Tournament with Georgia sitting sixth (16 points) and Mississippi State seventh (13 points). With a win or tie, Georgia will earn their first top-six bye since 2019 and potentially its highest seed since a five seed in 2011. A Georgia loss would force the team to play in the first round on Sunday.

Bulldog Battle

Georgia faces off against Mississippi State for the first time since a 2-2 tie last season in Athens. After taking a 2-0 lead 20 minutes into the match, Georgia allowed two quick State goals before playing 90 scoreless minutes. Georgia is 8-1 all-time in Starkville, including a 1-0 overtime victory in the last meeting in 2019.

Brown Coming Up Big

Freshman goalkeeper Jordan Brown has made an immediate impact on Georgia, posting three-consecutive shutout wins in her first three starts and earning back-to-back SEC Freshman of the Week honors. The Las Vegas native is the first keeper in program history to earn a clean sheet in each of her first three starts. With Brown in net, the Bulldogs have shutout three straight SEC opponents for the first time since 2010 - one more shutout would tie the record streak set in the same year.

Overall, the Georgia defense has been stout throughout the season with one of the most consistent lineups in the country. The Bulldogs have held opponents to an .083 shooting percentage and 57 corners. The 12 goals allowed this season is tied for the fewest in a season, while the team's 10 shutouts rank third all-time.

Keidane McAlpine, the 2021 Pac-12 Coach of the Year who led the USC women's soccer team to eight-straight NCAA tournament appearances, including a national championship in 2016, became the sixth head coach of the Georgia soccer program in December 2021.

The Huntsville, Alabama native guided USC to unprecedented success for eight seasons from 2014-21. His 2016 squad finished with a 19-4-2 record on its way to the program's second national championship. His final 2021 team boasted a 14-3-3 record and finished second in the Pac-12 standings.

Under his guidance, USC never missed the postseason, won at least one NCAA tournament match in six of the last seven years and never finished worse than fourth in the Pac-12. The Trojans averaged nearly 16 wins a season during his tenure and owned a 13-2-7 postseason record under his watch.

McAlpine's teams have produced 11 All-Americans, over 40 All-Conference selections, three Pac-12 Forwards of the Year, one Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, one Pac-12 Midfielder of the Year, one Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and two Pac-12 Goalkeepers of the Year. McAlpine and his staff also picked up United Soccer Coaches West Region Staff of the Year honors in 2018 and 2021.

McAlpine's 15-year head coaching career features stops at Birmingham-Southern, Washington State and USC, where he has compiled a 182-89-37 career record — a near 70-percent win percentage. His career began at his alma mater Birmingham-Southern in 2001 as he guided the program into Division I, eventually winning the Big South championship in 2004 and earning the program's first NCAA Tournament bid. For his efforts, he was named that season's Big South Coach of the Year. Following his tenure at BSC, he spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Auburn.

In addition to his success at USC, McAlpine was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year at Washington State. He led the Cougars to a program-record 14 wins and a school-best second-place finish in the conference standings. Washington State also made back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament during his tenure.

He has been active in Olympic Development Program for many years and holds a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation and a National Goalkeeping License. McAlpine was actively involved as a coach with the Alabama Youth Soccer Association Olympic Development Program and several club teams. In the summer of 2004, he was selected as a staff coach for the USYSA Region III squad.

McAlpine was a four-year starter at Birmingham-Southern and was named team captain in 1996. During that season, the Panthers finished as runners-up in the NAIA Tournament after advancing to the semifinals the previous season. After graduation, McAlpine spent the 1999 season playing for the Tennessee Rhythm of the A League.

McAlpine earned a bachelor's degree in music business with a minor in computer science from Birmingham-Southern in 1997.

QUICK KICKS

Road Warriors

Georgia's play away from home has been among the strongest in program history. The Bulldogs' five road wins are tied for second-most all-time, only trailing the seven won in 2011. The team is unbeaten in its last six road contests (5 W, 1 T), the second-longest streak in history. Additionally, a win in Starkville would mark four road SEC wins for the first time since 2011 and just their second unbeaten road SEC slate ever (2007). Finally, a shutout tonight would set a record for most road clean sheets in a season.

Boyan Breaking Record

With her start against Kentucky, graduate midfielder Abby Boyan set a new program record for career starts (88), breaking the record held by Bulldog legend Carrie Patterson. With an appearance against Mississippi State, Boyan will also break Natalie Farley's record for most career appearances (88). The Spring Lake, New Jersey native also ranks third in shots (191) and fifth in assists (19).

Fellow graduates Cecily Stoute and Dani Murguia are also nearing the top of the all-time appearances list. Murguia is tied for third (87) and Stoute ranks sixth (85), as well as third in starts (85).

Spreading the Wealth

Through 17 matches, 15 different Bulldogs have scored this season, the second-most goal scorers in a single season. In the 1998 season, 16 different players netted a goal. In another sign of the Bulldogs' depth, 13 of Georgia's 36 goals this season (36.1 percent) have been scored by players coming off the bench.

Starting Fast

Georgia quickly took control of last Sunday's match at Kentucky as Madison Haugen scored 84 seconds in, the 10th-fastest score in program history. It was the fifth time this season the Bulldogs have scored in the first 10 minutes of play. This season, Georgia is 11-0 when they score first and 7-0 when leading at halftime, with Kentucky marking their first halftime lead of SEC play.

Dawgs in the Polls

This week, Georgia moved up to a season-high 30th in the NCAA RPI rankings and climbed the United Soccer Coaches Southeast Regional poll to No. 7.

Tidbits and Trends

Entering tonight's match, Georgia is 7-3-1 at night, 11-1-1 against unranked opponents (5-0-1 in SEC play), and 4-3-1 on Thursday nights. The Bulldogs are also 9-0 when scoring 2+ goals and 10-0-1 when outshooting their opponent. Georgia has only won one SEC regular season finale in its last five chances.

Hearty Home Slate

Georgia has faced one of the toughest home schedules in the country with four ranked opponents playing at Turner this season, tied for the most in a single season (1997, 2009, 2015). The Bulldogs played three consecutive ranked opponents in Athens (No. 8 South Carolina, No. 6 Alabama, No. 19 Tennessee), matching a run of three straight ranked home opponents in 2008 (No. 7 Virginia,

No. 10 Stanford, No. 3 USC). Overall, Georgia ranks fifth in the SEC and 22nd nationally in strength of schedule.

Scoring in Unique Ways

Georgia returned to the win column on Oct. 14 against Missouri in a 2-0 result. Both of the Bulldogs' goals came in unconventional ways, with the first goal being an own goal by the Tigers, followed by a converted penalty by Dani Murguia. On two prior occasions (2000 vs. Utah, 2011 vs. Alabama), the Bulldogs scored two goals in a match outside the normal run of play.

Draw with the Dores

Georgia tallied its first tie of the season at Vanderbilt on Oct. 6, overcoming an early goal with an equalizer by Ellie Gilbert in the 16th minute. The draw marked the first result against Vanderbilt since a win in 2015, breaking a six-match losing streak. The Bulldogs' offense posted one of its top performances of the season, outshooting the Commodores, 12-5 (8-2 on frame), while the defense only allowed three Vandy corner kicks. Thursday's match saw seven starters play a full 90 minutes, with only a season-low 16 Bulldogs seeing the field.

Turned Away by Tide

In a valiant effort, Georgia fell to No. 5 Alabama, 2-1, on Sept. 29 in its third match this season against a top-10 side. After the Crimson Tide took a 2-0 lead off a corner kick in the 53rd minute, the Bulldogs picked up the intensity and mounted a comeback. In the 73rd minute, Jada Gibson's entry pass was deflected by an Alabama defender for an own goal, the first for Georgia since Kentucky on Oct. 24, 2019. Despite only mustering one shot on goal, the Bulldogs were positioned for one final shot, but the clock expired.

Sweet Victory in the Swamp

Georgia made history on Sept. 25 with a 3-0 win at Florida, the first-ever victory for the team in Gainesville. After squandering multiple scoring chances in the first half, the Bulldogs broke out with three goals in a 10-minute span, scored by Joyelle Washington, Taylor Rish, and Rebecca Womer (first career goal). With the win, the Bulldogs surpassed last season's road win total (4).

Touchdown in Kennesaw

Georgia posted one of its most dominant performances in program history on Sept. 4 with a 7-0 win at Kennesaw State. The Bulldogs scored five goals in the first half, the 10th time in program history with 5+ goals in a half and the third-most in a first half. In other record-breaking notes, it tied for the most road goals and road margin of victory in a single match, as well as tying for the most individual goal scorers in a single match (Jacksonville, Oct. 6, 1996). With the win, Georgia improved to 37-1-3 all-time against in-state opponents.

Up Next

Georgia heads to Pensacola, Florida for the 2022 SEC Soccer Tournament, held for the first time at the Ashton Brosnahan Soccer Complex. All matches will air live on SEC Network, with Georgia playing on either Sunday, Oct. 30 or Tuesday, Nov. 1.
