GAME NOTES

Colin Carmichael
Head Coach,
21st Season

Colin Carmichael has been at OSU since the inception of the women's soccer program in the fall of 1996, and he continues to help lead Cowgirl soccer to new heights and a spot among the nation's elite.

OSU is in the midst of the most successful stretch of seasons in its history as the program is in its 30th year, 21 of those with Carmichael as head coach.

Carmichael, who served as OSU's co-head coach with Karen Hancock during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, entered the 2025 season with a 265-110-53 career record in 20 seasons as the Cowgirls' head coach, compiling a winning percentage of .681. He has led OSU to 12 appearances in the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship, including six straight from 2006-11, and after advancing to the second round of the NCAA tournament four-straight years, the Cowgirls made back-to-back trips to the Elite Eight in 2010 and 2011.

The Cowgirls have been a force in the Big 12 Conference under Carmichael, capturing six league titles. OSU claimed four consecutive conference championships from 2008-11 and added crowns in 2017 and 2019; the Cowgirls won regular season titles in 2008, '11, '17 and '19 and Big 12 Soccer Championship titles in 2009 and 2010.

Carmichael has guided OSU to a 15-12-4 record and four finals appearances at the Big 12 Championship and an 11-9-6 record in NCAA tournament play.

- Six Cowgirls have earned All-America honors, with Yolanda Odenyo, AD Franch, Melinda Mercado, Haley Woodard, Kim Rodriguez and Grace Yochum on that elite list.

LAST WEEK

OSU began the week by battling Nebraska to a 1-1 draw at Neal Patterson Stadium on Thursday night. The Huskers scored in the 81st minute before Xcaret Pineda converted a penalty kick in the 84th minute for the equalizer.

On Sunday, the Cowgirls took a 3-0 lead against Arkansas State after 60 minutes on a pair of goals by Pineda and one by Jazmin Brown. The Red Wolves made things interesting late, scoring in the 83rd minute and then converting a PK in the 84th minute, before OSU's defense shut them out over the final six minutes to seal the win.

- Ranked 17th nationally, Mississippi State is 2-0-0 entering a Thursday game at Baylor. The Bulldogs are coming off a 2-1 win at home against No. 10 Wake Forest.
- Nick Zimmerman is in his first season as MSU's head coach after spending six seasons as a Bulldogs' assistant.
- OSU won its only previous meeting with Mississippi State, that coming in 2010 in Stillwater with the Cowgirls earning a 6-0 victory.

IN THE RANKINGS

OSU fell out of the national rankings following the opening week of the season after being ranked No. 22 in the United Soccer Coaches Preseason Poll. That appearance in the preseason poll marked the first time the Cowgirls had been ranked to open a season since 2021 when they were No. 16 in the preseason rankings.

In 2024, the Cowgirls appeared in the national rankings for eight weeks. On Aug. 19, they entered the national rankings for the first time since Aug. 30, 2021, when they came in at No. 17 in the United Soccer Coaches and TopDrawerSoccer.com polls; the Cowgirls remained in the polls for four consecutive weeks before dropping out on Sept. 30/Oct. 1. During that time, they climbed as high as No. 11 in the Aug. 27th United Soccer Coaches poll, their highest ranking since they were No. 11 in both the United Soccer Coaches and TopDrawerSoccer.com polls on Nov. 17, 2020.

OSU also spent two weeks in the TopDrawerSoccer.com polls from Oct. 21-Nov. 4.

The Cowgirls finished the 2024 season No. 31 in the official NCAA RPI.

DUBS

OSU's 14 wins in 2024 was the program's most since the Cowgirls had 16 in 2019. The total ranked in the top 25 in the NCAA for wins last season.

NEXT UP

A year ago, the Cowgirls outscored their opponents, 42-15, while recording 15 shutouts in 22 games. However, in 2025, OSU will be replacing starting goalie Grace Gordon, who played all but 70 minutes in goal last season, and will also look to replace 55 percent of its scoring as the returning group combined for just 19 goals in 2024. The only returning Cowgirls who had more than two goals a year ago are Xcaret Pineda (6) and Laudan Wilson (5).

IT'S AN HONOR

OSU returns four players who were recognized with Big 12 honors in 2024 in All-Big 12 First Team midfielders Xcaret Pineda and Laudan Wilson, All-Big 12 Second Team forward Gracie Bindbeutel and defender Katelyn Hoppers, who was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

The Cowgirls also added transfer Jazmin Brown, who was an All-Big 12 Second Team defender at Kansas State a year ago.

PRESEASON LOVE

Three Cowgirls were named to the 27-member Preseason All-Big 12 Team, which is voted on by the league's head coaches. Midfielders Xcaret Pineda and Laudan Wilson and defender Jazmin Brown all collected the honor.

Additionally, Pineda was named to the TopDrawerSoccer.com Preseason Best XI Third Team and was ranked No. 30 on the outlet's National Top 100 list.

DYNAMIC DUO

Senior Xcaret Pineda and junior Laudan Wilson are both on the United Soccer Coaches 2025 Women's Midfielders to Watch list, which is compiled and released by the Division I All-America Committee.

ELITE

Xcaret Pineda is one of 43 players on the 2025 Hermann Trophy Watch List, which was compiled by members of the Division I Women's All-America Council.

The Hermann Trophy is presented annually by the Missouri Athletic Club and is the nation's highest individual honor recognizing the National Player of the Year determined by voting of Division I head coaches who are members of United Soccer Coaches.

OSU has had two Hermann Trophy semifinalists in its history, Yolanda Odenyo in 2008, and AD Franch, who made that list in 2010 and 2011.

X GON' GIVE IT TO YA

It's safe to say OSU's offense runs through Xcaret Pineda.

The Cowgirls' senior midfielder has played a role in six of OSU's seven goals this season, finding the back of the net five times and also recording an assist. She notched the first multi-goal game of her career with a brace against Arkansas State.

Pineda ranks second in the Big 12 and third nationally in goals and is third in the league and sixth in the NCAA with 11 points. She is third in the Big 12 with 14 shots, seven of those on frame.

With just one more goal, Pineda will tie her career high for goals in a season — she has tallied six goals each of the last two seasons.

In 65 career games, 61 of those starts, Pineda has recorded 19 goals and 12 assists while taking 149 shots.

SHE'S A GIVER

Laudan Wilson tallied nine assists last season as a sophomore, which ranked second in the Big 12 and was the most assists in a season by a Cowgirl since Jaci Jones had 12 in 2019.

Along with her passing prowess, Wilson added five goals, which ranked third on the squad, as she led the Cowgirls with 19 points.

Wilson has 15 assists in her two-plus seasons in Stillwater, five away from cracking the top 10 list in program history.

LEADING LOGAN

In her first season as a starter, sophomore goalie Logan Marks leads the Big 12 with 17 saves and a 4.25 saves per game average. She reached a career-best six saves against both Oklahoma and Nebraska.

HOME SWEET HOME

OSU has won 77 percent of its games in seven seasons at Neal Patterson Stadium, which opened in 2018. The Cowgirls are 52-13-7 (.771) on their current home turf, including a 2-0-1 mark last season.

OSU has gone undefeated at home in seven seasons in its history, the last time coming in 2019.

FOUR CORNERS

OSU leads the Big 12 and ranks ninth nationally with 32 corner kicks.

COACH COLIN

Colin Carmichael has been a member of the OSU coaching staff for each of the program's 30 seasons, including 21 as a head coach. He has been named Big 12 Coach of the Year a conference-record six times.

Carmichael entered the 2025 season with 265 career wins in 20 seasons, ranking third among active Big 12 coaches in wins at their current school behind only BYU's Jennifer Rockwood (464 wins in 31 seasons) and West Virginia's Nikki Izzo-Brown (402 wins in 29 seasons).

COWGIRL COUNTRY

Oklahoma State's 2025 roster includes players from 11 states as well as Canada and Australia. Seven Texans dot the roster, while the Cowgirls have three players each from Oklahoma, Kansas and Canada.

PROS

OSU's program has produced 16 players who have played professionally or been professional draft picks. That list includes Anna Beffer, Gabriella Coleman, Grace Gordon, AD Franch, Anna Hurley, Jaci Jones, Kasey Langdon, Melinda Mercado, Charmé Morgan, Grace Neville, Kim Rodriguez, Coumba Sow, Allie Stephenson, Laurene Tresfield, Grace Yochum and Barbara Zágonyi.

In March 2023, former OSU All-American Yolanda Odenyo joined the staff of the NWSL's Orlando Pride as an assistant coach, helping lead them to the league title in 2024.

REPRESENT

Current Cowgirls Chloé Joseph and Murphy Sheaff are also members of national teams, Joseph with Haiti and Sheaff with New Zealand.

A number of other OSU standouts have gone on to represent their respective countries as members of national teams, including three Cowgirls — AD Franch, Courtney Dike and Coumba Sow — who have been on FIFA Women's World Cup rosters.

Franch joined the United States Women's National Team in 2012 and earned her first-career cap in 2019 at the SheBelieves Cup. The former Cowgirl All-American was on the roster of the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup champion U.S. squad and won a bronze medal at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, where she started in goal in the U.S.'s medal game against Australia.

Dike was the first-ever Oklahoma State player to appear in the World Cup when she earned two caps for Nigeria in 2015, including starting against the eventual champion United States team. Dike was a four-time All-Big 12 Conference forward for the Cowgirls from 2013-16.

Sow was a starting midfielder for the Switzerland National Team at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup. Sow was part of the OSU program in 2016 and 2017, scoring three goals in 23 games for the Cowgirls' 2017 Big 12 Conference championship squad.

Other Cowgirls who have earned national team status include:

Former Cowgirl All-American Kim Rodriguez received her first call up to the Mexico National Team in Feb. 2019 and continues to be a part of that team.

Other former Cowgirls who have competed for their respective national teams include Kathrin Lehmann (Switzerland), Peyton Vincze (Wales) and Grace Neville (New Zealand).

NEAL PATTERSON STADIUM

Neal Patterson Stadium was officially dedicated on Aug. 19, 2018, prior to the Oklahoma State-Oklahoma match. The Cowgirls were 2-1 victors in that contest as an OSU women’s soccer record crowd of 4,122 fans were in attendance. Kim Rodriguez scored the first-ever goal in the stadium when she converted a penalty kick in the 15th minute.

A $20 million project, Neal Patterson Stadium is a showcase for Cow-girl Soccer and one of the top soccer facilities in the collegiate ranks. It is named for its major benefactor and Oklahoma State alumnus, the late Neal Patterson.

Patterson, who passed away during the summer of 2017, grew up near his family’s farm in Manchester, Okla. He earned a bachelor’s degree in finance and a master’s degree in business from Oklahoma State. He was one of five entrepreneurs who founded Sporting Club, which in 2006 purchased the Sporting KC Major League Soccer franchise. He was also chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Cerner Corporation, a company he co-founded with two colleagues in 1979. Today, Cerner is the world’s largest publicly traded health information technology company with $4.8 billion in revenues in 2016 and approximately 24,000 associates worldwide. FORTUNE recently named Cerner one of the world’s most admired companies.

The new facility includes club seats, plaza and upper bowl gathering areas and a north end zone terrace area and seating designed specifically for OSU students. Team facilities include locker rooms, meeting areas, kitchen facilities, sports medicine areas and equipment rooms. The stadium can accommodate 2,500 fans in permanent seats.

The west side of the stadium includes 346 reserved chairback seats and 810 reserved bleacher-back seats. There are 552 general admission seats.

The north end zone includes bleacher seating for more than 500 and includes a patio and concourse area and a building housing a weight room for the Cowgirls.

Atop the west side of the stadium are two club levels with a capacity of 80 and two suites with a capacity of 20 guests each. A new press box sits atop the stadium. The west side is anchored by a club area at field level that can host more than 100 and serve as a player lounge and nutrition area on non-game days.

Other unique aspects of Patterson Stadium include:

- A large roof that covers much of the seating areas, providing shade and a soccer-specific feel like that in many international venues;
- Home and visitor bench areas with chairback seating built into the stadium;
- A 26 feet by 40 feet high-definition video scoreboard in the south-east corner of the facility.

“A facility of this magnitude is a game changer for our program,” said OSU head soccer coach Colin Carmichael. “It helps the current student-athletes to be in one of the nicest facilities in the country. Our fans are going to have a much better game day experience. We want it to be a real family atmosphere...”

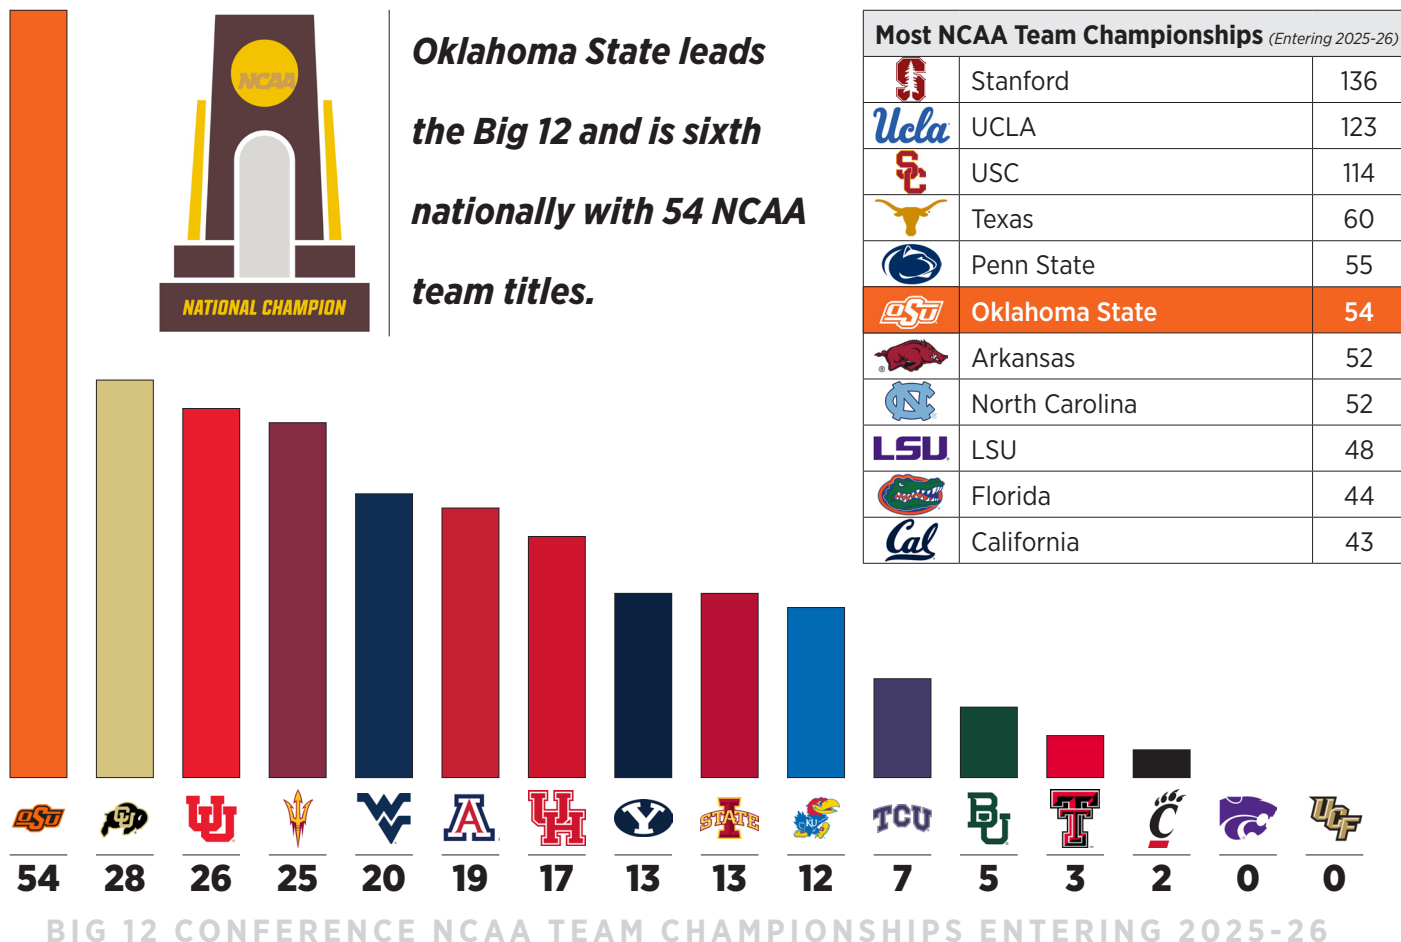

“Every recruit wants to know that how serious a school is about their sport. This is a huge statement from our administration.”
