BIOGRAPHY

Joe Kirt, a mainstay on the Tennessee sideline since 2007, was named UT's soccer head coach by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White on April 29, 2022.

During his 19 seasons on Rocky Top, Kirt has helped guide the Lady Vols to two SEC Tournament championships, three SEC Eastern Division championships and 11 NCAA Tournament appearances. As an assistant at Tennessee, Kirt played vital roles in goalkeeper development, technical and functional development for field players as well as constructing and implementing the program's game model. Tennessee has produced 10 All-Americans and 44 All-SEC selections during his tenure on staff.

Under Kirt's leadership in 2025, the Lady Vols opened the season with their first ever victory over a No. 1 ranked opponent, toppling North Carolina 2-0. Tennessee continued a strong start to the season, beginning on a seven match unbeaten run and earning the first No. 1 ranking in program history in the process. The Lady Vols closed the regular season with just two defeats to earn a fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament bid, where UT would suffer a 3-1 first round defeat to North Carolina in a rematch of the season opener. Ally Brown and Mac Midgley became the 11th and 12th Lady Vols to ever be named to an All-American name, each earning a spot on the United Soccer Coaches Fourth Team.

In 2024, the Lady Vols advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth consecutive season and 16th time in program history. UT compiled a record of 9-7-4 and earned three All-SEC selections, along with six athletes being tabbed CSC Academic All-District honorees.

Kirt's squad in 2023 overcame adversity to advance to their third straight NCAA Tournament appearance. After suffering a multitude of injuries, the Lady Vols tallied a record of 9-7-4 and upset fourth-seeded Xavier on the road in two overtimes during the first round of the NCAA tournament to advance to the program's 10th trip to the second round. Tennessee earned three All-SEC selections during the campaign, along with 17 athletes being named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll.

In his first year at the helm, Kirt led the Lady Vols to their third straight SEC East Division Championship, tying South Carolina for the title with 15 points in divisional play while finishing second overall in the league with 22 points. The 2022 squad posted 10 shutouts on the season, including a streak of five in a row during conference play that began with a 1-0 victory at #13 Ole Miss. For the first time in program history, Tennessee went undefeated on the road in SEC matches, giving up just two goals over five contests. Sitting at #24 in the RPI following the SEC Tournament, UT made its second straight and 14th overall NCAA Tournament appearance, entering as a No. 6 Seed.

Kirt was instrumental in helping guide UT to its second straight SEC Eastern Division championship in 2021. The Vols went on to defeat top-seeded Arkansas 3-0 in the final of the SEC Tournament, bringing the trophy home for the first time since 2008 before advancing in the NCAA Tournament to the Round of 16. With a record of 20-3-0, it was the winningest team in program history.

The 2021 squad was stout defensively, posting a program-best 13 shutouts and setting a new UT shutout streak record of 633:53. Following the season, Tennessee's coaching staff was named Southeast Region Staff of the Year by United Soccer Coaches.

In 2020, Kirt helped lead Tennessee to an SEC East title, going 4-1-1 in divisional play and 4-3-1 overall in conference play. In the spring, the Big Orange recorded four more wins, three of which were shutouts, to finish the season with an 8-6-1 record and the program's the sixth-straight winning season.

Kirt mentored then-freshman goalkeeper Lindsey Romig to a record-breaking rookie campaign in 2019, as the Midlothian, Virginia, native finished the season with a 0.58 goals-against average—lowering the all-time program record set by Shae Yanez the previous season. Tennessee posted its fifth-straight winning season with a 9-6-3 record overall, and the Vols went 8-2 at Regal Soccer Stadium with shutout wins over SEC East rivals Florida, Georgia and Kentucky.

Tennessee's defensive unit saw one of the program's most successful seasons in 2018, as the Vols made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA quarterfinals. UT limited opponents to a program-best 15 goals on the season, while the Vols' 12 shutouts tied a then-Tennessee-record set in 2003.

Kirt guided Yanez to one of the program's greatest goalkeeping campaigns from a statistical standpoint in 2018, setting program records for the lowest goals-against average (0.66), highest save percentage (.856) and highest win percentage (.795) in a single season. The Downingtown, Pennsylvania, native broke UT's career record for save percentage (.820) and finished third on UT's all-time list with 21 solo shutouts, including 10 in her final year on Rocky Top.

In 2017, the Lady Vols returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in five years behind a defense that recorded 10 shutouts. UT conceded less than 20 goals for the third consecutive season, logging a 0.88 goals-against average as a team, with 19 goals allowed.

Kirt helped lead Tennessee to its eighth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance and its fourth SEC Tournament title in 2008. The Big Orange posted six shutouts and recorded a 1.23 goals against average during Kirt's second year on staff.

The 2007 season saw Kirt coach Johnson and the UT defense to 11 shutouts, a 0.88 goals-against average and a new program-record 457-minute shutout streak. The Lady Vol defense became a nearly immovable force at home, giving up just three goals in nine matches and shutting out the final six opponents it faced at Regal Stadium in 2007, including two NCAA Tournament matches.

In his first year in Knoxville, Kirt helped steer the Lady Vols to their seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament and fifth NCAA Round of 16 appearance. Tennessee that Fall also reached its highest NSCAA ranking in program history (No. 6).

Kirt joined the Tennessee soccer staff in July 2007 after spending three years as the Director of Goalkeeping for the Texas Soccer Club's Challenge, a youth soccer organization comprised of 29 girls' soccer teams in Houston, Texas. During his tenure, the Challenge won a total of 14 state championships and earned a No. 14 national ranking from Soccer America magazine in 2005.

Prior to his time with the Challenge, Kirt was an assistant coach with the University of Houston from 2000-05.

Prior to joining the professional ranks, Kirt earned his degree in International Studies in 1998 from Wisconsin-Oshkosh, where he played both soccer and hockey. As a member of the Titans' soccer team, Kirt earned three varsity letters playing in goal. As a senior captain in 1997, he led the team to a 13-5-1 record, capping the season with a Wisconsin Intercollegiate Coaches Association first-team selection.

A native of Brookfield, Wisconsin, Kirt holds a National Soccer Coaches Association of America national goalkeeping diploma. Joe and his wife, Susan, an eighth-grade teacher, reside in Knoxville with their sons, Landon and Luke.

Last Time Out

The No. 8 Tennessee soccer team secured a 2-2 draw in the second match of SEC play on Friday night at Texas, coming from behind to remain unbeaten in the 2026 season.

The Lady Vols (6-0-2, 1-0-1) opened the contest in familiar fashion, finding the back of the net in the 11th minute to take a 1-0 lead. A nifty finish by Shae O'Rourke, who notched her third goal of the season, gave Tennessee the advantage. Cora Fry, the lone freshman to start every match for the Lady Vols thus far in 2026, earned the first point of her collegiate career with an assist on the play.

With the opening goal, the Lady Vols have struck first in all eight matches this season. Additionally, Tennessee has scored within the opening 12 minutes in seven of eight matches and within the opening 30 minutes of all eight.

The advantage was short-lived for the Lady Vols. After a disallowed goal minutes after the opener, a quick attacking flurry for the Longhorns yielded two goals in less than 60 seconds around the 27-minute mark, giving Texas a 2-1 lead.

With Tennessee trailing for the first time in 2026, the scoreline held to the halftime break. The Lady Vols emerged from the intermission with attacking intent, quickly mustering multiple chances in front of the Longhorn goal, including an effort by Devin Davis that hit the crossbar.

The positive play paid off in the 68th minute, as Kylee Simmons nodded home the match's equalizing goal. O'Rourke provided the assist with an inch-perfect cross to the back post. Simmons' team-leading fourth goal of the campaign drew the match level at 2-2.

The attacking mentality continued for Tennessee over the final 20 minutes, which was played a woman up after a Texas red card for violent conduct in the 70th minute, but the Lady Vols were unable to break the deadlock before the final whistle.

Eyes of the Nation

Tennessee's next three matches will be featured on linear television, giving the Lady Vols a national audience. Thursday night's match against Mississippi State and Sunday afternoon's contest against No. 3 Vanderbilt will each feature on ESPNU. Tennessee's following match at Auburn will air on SEC Network.

Tennessee is one of just two teams in the Southeastern Conference slated to have three consecutive matches on linear television. The Lady Vols will be looking to improve upon their record in nationally televised contests in 2025, posting a 1-2-1 mark that includes a 2-0 victory over No. 1 North Carolina.

Home Sweet Home

Thursday's match comes on the heels of two consecutive road contests to open SEC play for Tennessee. In the team's first time playing consecutive road matches in 2026, the team fared well, claiming four of a possible six points to begin the conference campaign.

Regal Soccer Stadium has been a fortress for Tennessee in 2026 with the team boasting a perfect 5-0-0 home record. The Lady Vols' have outscored opponents 15-1 on home turf, earning four clean sheets in five matches. In the team's most recent home contest on Sept. 6, Tennessee earned a gritty 1-0 win over Northwestern.

The Lady Vols went unbeaten at Regal Soccer Stadium in the 2025 regular season, posting a 7-0-1 overall record and a 4-0-1 mark in conference play.

Continuing the Trend

Fast starts on the offensive end have been a constant for Tennessee in 2026. That trend continued in the team's last match against Texas as the Lady Vols found the opening goal in the 11th minute.

Tennessee has scored in the opening 30 minutes of all eight matches in 2026 and struck within the opening 12 minutes in seven of eight contests. Additionally, the Lady Vols have been the first team to score in every match this season.

While one trend continued, another trend was broken against Texas. Two first-half goals in quick succession saw the Longhorns take a 2-1 lead, marking the first time Tennessee trailed in 2026. The halftime lead for Texas also marked the first time Tennessee did not lead at the intermission this season. Still, a second-half goal saw the Lady Vols fight back for a draw to remain unbeaten.

Super Shae

The comeback season reached a new peak for fifth-year forward Shae O'Rourke at Texas. She played a pivotal role in Tennessee securing a result in the match, scoring the opening goal and assisting the game-tying goal.

After an ACL tear cost O'Rourke much of the 2025 season, she is returning to form right as the Lady Vols get in the thick of SEC play. O'Rourke has found the back of the net in each of the last two matches for Tennessee, scoring the opening goal of each match.

Her season total of three goals is tied for the second most on the team, while her three assists are the joint-highest on the squad. O'Rourke averages a goal contribution every 54 minutes this season, the best among players who have appeared in at least three matches.

Leading Scorer Simmons

A powerful second-half header by Kylee Simmons secured Tennessee's second goal of the match at Texas, helping the Lady Vols come from behind to earn a 2-2 draw.

The goal brought Simmons' season tally to four goals, the most on the team. Additionally, her updated tally of ten points this season also leads Tennessee.

One of two team captains, Simmons has been a source of quality and strength for the Lady Vols in her debut season on the pitch. The fifth-year forward also spent the 2025 season with Tennessee, after transferring from Missouri, but was sidelined by a preseason ACL injury for the duration of the campaign.

Top-10 Lady Vols

Despite settling for a draw at Texas, Tennessee remains in the top-10 of this week's IWSOC coaches' poll and TopDrawerSoccer.com's weekly national rankings, checking in at No. 9 and No. 6, respectively.

Tennessee's inclusion marks the fifth consecutive week the Lady Vols have been within the top-10. It matches the second-most weeks spent in the top-10 of the IWSOC/United Soccer Coaches poll in one season in program history. Tennessee set a new program record in 2025, spending nine consecutive weeks ranked within the top-10.

Revenge on the Mind

After an unbeaten nonconference slate to open the 2025 season, Mississippi State handed Tennessee its first loss of the season to open SEC play. Ranked No. 1 in the nation at the time, the Lady Vols fell 3-2 on the road to the Bulldogs.

Tennessee once again enters the matchup with an unbeaten record in 2026, however, this year's match will take place in Knoxville.

A Look at the Bulldogs

Mississippi State has had a strong start to the 2026 season under first-year head coach Kevin O'Brien, boasting a 7-1-1 overall record. The Bulldogs have had a similar start to SEC play as the Lady Vols, earning four points from a possible six.

A 4-1 win over rival Ole Miss kicked off SEC play for Mississippi State on Sept. 11, before being held to a 2-2 draw at home against Florida in the team's last match on Sept. 18. The Bulldogs' lone defeat thus far came in the nonconference finale, a 3-0 home loss to Charlotte.

Mississippi State has an array of attacking options, with three players having tallies of at least ten points in 2026. Senior forward Hailey Johnson leads the way with five goals and three assists, while sophomore midfielder Laila Murillo is the joint-leading goalscorer with five goals of her own.

TENNESSEE TIDBITS

- With the game-winning goal in the 3-1 win over LSU, Taylor Cheatham became the first Lady Vol with multiple game-winning goals this season. A different player had scored the game-winning goal in Tennessee's first five wins of 2026.
- There have been 11 different goal scorers for Tennessee through eight matches in 2026. Ten out of 11 of those players had not scored for the Lady Vols entering 2026, while six of the 11 have recorded their first career collegiate goals this season.
- Thursday's match will be Tennessee's third SEC contest of 2026. The Lady Vols opened conference play 1-0-1, tying the team's best two-match start to SEC play since 2007, which began with two victories.
- Tennessee's eight-match unbeaten streak marks the second-longest streak to open a season in program history. The team's best start came in 2017, a campaign that began with a ten-match unbeaten streak.
- The Lady Vols closed nonconference play unbeaten at 5-0-1, capped by a 1-0 win over Northwestern. It marks the second consecutive year Tennessee has posted an unbeaten nonconference record in the regular season.
- Tennessee opened the 2026 season with five consecutive victories at Regal Soccer Stadium. Dating back to the beginning of the 2025 season, the Lady Vols are 12-1-1 at home, with the lone blemish coming in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, a 3-1 defeat to North Carolina.
- Tennessee is a unanimous top-10 team entering SEC play. The Lady Vols fell to No. 9 in the IWSOC Coaches' Poll this week, while coming in at No. 6 in this week's TopDrawerSoccer.com national rankings.
- Tennessee's 0.62 goals against average ranks second in the SEC. The Lady Vols have earned for clean sheets thus far in 2026, all of which came at Regal Soccer Stadium.
- Freshman forward Ayva Jordan returned for Tennessee in the SEC opener at LSU after missing the previous two matches to attend U-20 World Cup Training Camp with the United States Women's National Team in Poland. Jordan was selected as an alternate for the tournament and was ultimately not included in the final squad.

Built on the site of the Tennessee Soccer Complex, Regal Soccer Stadium is the home of Tennessee soccer.

Funded through private donations, including a generous leadership gift provided by Knoxville-based Regal Entertainment Group, the facility features stadium seating for approximately 3,000 fans and a field-level concessions stand. The stadium includes a state-of-the-art scoreboard from Daktronics and a working press box with separate booths for television and/or radio.

The grounds still feature two 80 x 120-yard fields with less than a one percent crown on the competition field and television-standard lights on the game field. The fields are Bermuda grass and boast total field irrigation. Both home and visiting teams enjoy spacious locker rooms built into the stadium that feature team meeting areas. Tennessee also benefits from a players' lounge, featuring a flat-screen television, pool table and kitchen area, as well as a video scouting room with theater seating.
