HEAD COACH
MARGUERITTE BATES

FULL NAME Marguerite Bates (Aozasa) DATE OF BIRTH May 17, 1990 HOMETOWN Piscataway, N.J.

HIGH SCHOOL Los Altos High School
ALMA MATER Santa Clara, 2012 (B.A. Psychology, Minor in Public Health and Spanish)

DATE ANNOUNCED AS HEAD COACH November 25, 2025

Margueritte Bates (Aozasa) has been named head soccer coach at The University of Texas, UT Vice President and Lois and Richard Folger Athletics Director Chris Del Conte announced. Bates arrives on The Forty Acres following an extraordinary four-year tenure at UCLA, where she became the first rookie head coach to win the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship in 2022.

During her time with the Bruins, Bates compiled a 67-13-9 (.803) ledger, the fourth-best mark of any program during that stretch. The two-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year guided UCLA to a pair of conference titles and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

After being tabbed the sixth head coach in UCLA women's soccer history in Dec. 2021, Bates promptly steered her team to the program's second NCAA Championship and a school record-tying 22 victories.

The first-year head coach led the Bruins to a No. 1 national ranking for the final nine weeks of the season, with UCLA ascending to the top after a road sweep of No. 2 Duke and No. 1 North Carolina on Labor Day weekend.

Bates' Bruins began the year by winning their first 13 games, setting a new program record for best start to a campaign.

UCLA finished the regular season with a 17-2 mark, as Bates was voted the Pac-12 Coach of the Year. The Bruins were also named the United Soccer Coaches National Staff of the Year. That season, Bates coached the 2022 Honda Sport Award winner Lilly Reale.

In 2023, Bates won her first conference title and second consecutive Pac-12 Coach of the Year honor, as UCLA finished the season with a 16-2-1 ledger.

During the Bruins' inaugural campaign as members of the Big Ten in 2024, UCLA ran through the conference tournament with three shutout wins, capped off by a record-setting 5-0 victory in the championship final.

This past season, Bates guided the Bruins to a 12-5-4 mark, with a marquee 2-0 win over No. 1 Stanford and a 3-0 victory against No. 5 Iowa. Heading into postseason play, Bates' team ranked second nationally in goals against average (0.42) and logged 12 clean sheets in 19 matches. UCLA reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament before coming up short in a penalty kick shootout against fifth-seeded BYU.

Under Bates, the Bruins produced 27 professional players, including all 11 seniors from the 2024 squad. UCLA collected eight major conference awards, highlighted by Reale, who garnered Conference Defender of the Year three times. One year after graduating, Reale received her first senior U.S. Women's National Team call-up and earned NWSL Rookie of the Year distinction.

Bates has also coached at the U.S. Youth National Team level. Following the 2022 collegiate season, she joined the coaching staff of the U.S. Under-23 National Team as an assistant coach for a training camp in Feb. 2023 and as the head coach of the U-23 team in March 2023. In June 2024, she was an assistant coach for the U.S. U-20 squad at the Concacaf Championships, as they qualified for the FIFA Under-20 World Cup.

Prior to arriving at UCLA, Bates was an assistant coach at Stanford from 2015-21. She helped the Cardinal win NCAA Championships in 2017 and 2019 and five straight Pac-12 titles from 2015-19. The 2018 team also reached the College Cup.

While on The Farm, Stanford registered a 125-19-8 (.849) record, with the Cardinal notching a +318-goal differential (412 goals for, 94 goals against). Two of her Stanford student-athletes won the Hermann Trophy in three consecutive years from 2017-19 – Andi Sullivan (2017) and Catarina Macario (2018 & 2019) – and four Cardinal players were selected as the No. 1 pick in the NWSL Draft – Sullivan in 2018, Tierna Davidson in 2019, Sophia Smith in 2020 and Naomi Girma in 2022.

As a recruiter, Bates brought in multiple top-5 recruiting classes, including the second-ranked class of 2022. She mentored six U.S. Women's National Team players through their collegiate careers at Stanford – Sullivan, Macario, Davidson, Smith, Alana Cook and Jane Campbell. With Bates on staff, the Cardinal amassed 18 major conference awards.

The Stanford coaching staff was recognized as the 2016 NSCAA Pacific Region Staff of the Year, with Bates selected to the United Soccer Coaches' 30 Under 30 Class in 2018-19.

In addition to working with the Cardinal, Bates was the ECNL head coach for 10 years at MVLA Soccer Club, which was ranked by Top Drawer Soccer as the No. 6-ranked youth club in the country. Her '02 and '03 MVLA ECNL squads were Champions League teams, with a combined 35 players on NCAA Division I rosters.

Bates was a four-year starter under head coach Jerry Smith at Santa Clara from 2008-11, playing at midfield and center back. A two-year team captain and WCC All-Academic Team member, she graduated from Santa Clara with a major in psychology and minors in public health and Spanish in 2012. In 2020, she earned a master's degree in coaching and athletic administration from Concordia University, Irvine, and received her U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License.

A native of Piscataway, N.J., Bates is one of three Asian American women currently serving as a head coach for an NCAA women's soccer team.

She is married to Mykell Bates, who is a fellow soccer coach with both collegiate and professional experience. They have a two-year-old girl, Akari.

LONGHORNS NOTES

YOUNG MCDONALD – Ava McDonald burst onto the college soccer scene last season. Following her star-studded debut campaign, McDonald has cemented herself as one of the top forwards in the league, receiving All-SEC First Team acclaim in 2026. In SEC action, the 5-foot-6 standout finished third in assists (3) and shots (44), fourth in shots on goal (19) and tied for 10th in goals (3) and points (9). A year ago, McDonald garnered United Soccer Coaches Southeast All-Region Third Team distinction, Top Drawer Soccer Freshman Best XI First Team plaudits and SEC Freshman of the Year honors. She became the ninth different Longhorn to earn Newcomer/Freshman of the Year distinction, including the sixth in the last nine seasons.

Player	Award	Year
Kati McBain	Big 12 ROTY	2000
Kelly Wilson	Big 12 ROTY	2001
Kasey Moore	Big 12 ROTY	2005
Cyera Hintzen	Big 12 FOTY	2016
Haley Berg	Big 12 FOTY	2017
Julia Grosso	Big 12 Co-FOTY	2018
Lexi Missimo	Big 12 FOTY	2021
Amalia Villarreal	SEC FOTY	2024
Ava McDonald	SEC FOTY	2025

McDonald paced all of the league's rookies in goals (9), points (22), shots (67) and shots on goal (32) a season ago. Overall, the Allen, Texas, native ranked fourth in goals per game (0.53) and fifth in points per game (1.29). Across the final nine contests, McDonald mounted 16 points, highlighted by a pair of multi-goal efforts. She became the first Longhorn freshman to have three braces since Trinity Byars in 2021.

BIG-TIME BAYLISS – Despite standing at 5-foot-6, Bayliss Flynn has made a large impact in her first season in burnt orange. Entering the postseason, Flynn has the most saves (62) in the SEC. The senior is looking to become just the fourth Texas goalkeeper in the last 25 years to lead the conference in saves. Dianna Pfenninger (2008), Abby Smith (2014) and Mia Justus (2023) all paced the Big 12, which the Longhorns competed in soccer from 1995-2023.

SEC SAVES LEADERS (AS OF NOV. 6)

Player	Team	Saves
1. Bayliss Flynn	Texas	62 (3.65)
2. Megan Holland	Kentucky	57 (3.40)
3. Madi Munguia	Alabama	56 (3.11)

The two-time SEC Defensive Player of the Week has registered seven shutouts through Texas' first 17 matches. Flynn is just the second Longhorn goalie to record back-to-back shutouts in their first two starts at Texas in the program's illustrious 33-year history, joining Dana Hall in 2003. Across three seasons at Montana, the Edina, Minn., native established the program's career records in save percentage (.903) and goals against average (0.42). During the 2024 campaign, the Big Sky Goalkeeper of the Year led the NCAA in save percentage (.925), while also ranking third in goals against average (0.35).

NOTEWORTHY NON-CON – Following a 5-1-1 start to the Margueritte Bates era, the Longhorns jumped into both the IWSOC Poll and the Top Drawer Top 25, checking in at No. 19 and 16, respectively. For only the third time in program history, Texas posted five clean sheets through its first seven matches. The 2026 squad is just the second Texas team to have allowed a school-best one tally through four contests alongside the 2008 squad. Across the Longhorns' strong start, Texas mounted its quickest goal to begin a campaign in nine years, knocked off Atlantic Coast Conference power Pitt on the road, held its opponents scoreless over the first 209 minutes and 46 seconds of the season, became the lone team to blank a potent Grand Canyon squad, compiled its largest margin of victory since 2023 and upended No. 19/14 TCU in Forth Worth for the first time in 18 years.

A NEW ERA – On Nov. 25, 2025, Margueritte Bates was named just the fourth Longhorns head soccer coach since the program's birth in 1994. Bates arrives on The Forty Acres following an extraordinary four-year tenure at UCLA, where she became the first rookie head coach to win the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship in 2022. During her time with the Bruins, Bates compiled a 67-13-9 (.803) ledger, the fourth-best mark of any program during that stretch. The two-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year guided UCLA to a pair of conference titles and four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

GUESS WHO'S BACK, BACK AGAIN – The Longhorns return eight of their 11 starters from a season ago, highlighted by 2025 SEC Freshman of the Year Ava McDonald and two-time All-SEC Second Team selection Amalia Villarreal. Texas brings back 92 percent of its goals, the highest mark in the league. Meanwhile, 75.7 percent of the Longhorns' total points are returning in 2026. Six of Texas' top seven players in minutes played last season will don the burnt orange once again.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK – The Longhorns welcome 15 newcomers to the 2026 roster, including five freshmen and 10 transfers. Texas' rookie class is headlined by Caroline Swann, who was ranked as the outlet's fifth-best overall recruit in the class of 2026. Meanwhile, the Longhorns' 10 transfers enter the season with a combined 12,088 minutes and 221 matches of collegiate experience. Ashlyn Anderson and Mya Brandon arrive on The Forty Acres fresh off a national championship at Florida State. Former top-10 recruit Callan Harrington joins the Longhorns following two standout seasons at LMU and 2025 Summit League Midfielder of the Year Hannah Tate bolsters Texas' backline. In net, Texas adds three goalkeeper, led by Montana transfer Bayliss Flynn, who brings the most experience of the group. Flynn led the NCAA with a .925 save percentage in 2024.
