Blazer Volleyball

- Head coach Betsy Freeburg enters her 5th season leading the Blazers. Freeburg played her college ball at the University of Florida, helping the team to the NCAA Tournament all four years.
- UAB ended the 2023 season with a 5-26 overall record and a 3-16 conference record. The 2024 schedule features home games against two SEC teams (Auburn & Mississippi State). The Alabama Showdown will be hosted by UAB this year and includes South Alabama, Auburn, and Samford. The Blazers will start conference play on September 27th in Bartow Arena against Tulsa.
- UAB returns 12 players while adding four to the 2024 squad. The newcomers include Abby Jones, Meg Jarrett, Shay Henry, and Annastiina Tarkkanen. All four of these players will look to come in and make an impact right away. The only local product out of the bunch is Meg Jarrett who is from Madison, Alabama. Mia Reese (289) and Kelsey Smith (298) return with the top two kill amounts in 2023. Defensively, the Blazers return two of their top three dig totals for the year in Brooklyn Allison (186) and Asli Celikkol (226). Madison Page brings back a season high of 105 blocks.

BETSY FREEBURG

HEAD COACH

Fifth Season

Betsy Freeburg enters year five as head coach of UAB.

Through her prior four seasons, she led the Blazers to Conference USA Tournament appearances from 2021 to 2022. Coach Freeburg was also able to coach four Blazers who went to the pros, in addition to leading an AVCA Academic Team in 2024.

She spent three seasons at Samford as an assistant coach before being elevated to associate head coach earlier this year. Freeburg was named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association's (AVCA) "Thirty Under 30" list in May and has had a tremendous impact on Samford's program over her three seasons.

She helped the Bulldogs to back-to-back Southern Conference Tournament championships and NCAA Tournament berths in 2018 and 2019. The 2019 season was highlighted by Samford going a program best 15-1 in SoCon play and defeating No. 24 Arizona on the Wildcats' home floor.

Freeburg coached the 2019 SoCon Player of the Year and an AVCA All-Region honorable mention, Kelsi Hobbs and the 2018 SoCon Freshman of the Year, Lauren Deaton. In total, Freeburg coached five All-Conference players six times. She assisted in the commitment in nine student-athletes, including the 2017 Alabama Gatorade Player of the Year.

Prior to her time at Samford, Freeburg was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgia State.

Freeburg began her coaching career as an assistant coach for USA Volleyball, where she has served as court coach and evaluator for the USAV High Performance Program tryouts. Additionally, she worked as an apprentice coach for the 2016 Girls' Future Select National Training Program and was an Assistant Coach for the 2016 Girls' Youth National Team Prospect Training Block. She also served as an assistant coach with the Orlando Volleyball Academy.

As a player from 2009-12, Freeburg led the University of Florida to four NCAA Championship appearances, including three Sweet Sixteen berths and an Elite Eight appearance in 2011. The Gators were crowned SEC champions in 2010 and 2012. As a senior, Freeburg served as team captain and was a Second Team All-SEC Middle Blocker.

COACHING RESUME

Assistant Coach

USA Volleyball

College Coach

Georgia State

Samford

UAB (Current)

Ryan Freeburg joined the UAB volleyball staff in August 2020.

He comes to the Blazers after spending the 2019 season at Samford where he helped lead the Bulldogs to the Southern Conference regular season and tournament championships and an NCAA Tournament berth. Freeburg coached the 2019 SoCon Player of the Year and AVCA All-Region honorable mention selection Kelsi

RYAN FREEBURG

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Fifth Season

Hobbs.

Prior to Samford, Freeburg was on the staff at Alabama from 2014 through 2018. He worked primarily with passing, blocking and defense. Freeburg was named interim head coach for the final five matches of the 2018 season.

Before his time in Tuscaloosa, Freeburg was an assistant coach at Dayton during the 2013 season, helping train the Flyers' setters and middle blockers. Serving as the team's defensive coordinator, his Dayton squad averaged 3.00 blocks-per-set, which ranked third nationally.

Freeburg spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as an assistant coach at

George Washington, where he trained the team's serve receive, blocking and outside hitters.

A 2010 graduate of Purdue University, Freeburg spent three years as a student manager for the Boilermakers and one season as a volunteer assistant coach. During the 2010 season, he helped Purdue to an Elite Eight finish in the NCAA Tournament with wins throughout the season against No. 1 Florida, No. 4 Penn State and No. 10 Illinois.

He also founded the Lafayette Volleyball Academy in Lafayette, Ind., and worked with the Munciana Volleyball Club in Muncie, Ind.

Ashley Veach entered her first season as an assistant coach in January 2021.

Veach spent the 2019 as an assistant coach for Lander University. In her lone season with the Bearcats, they finished the season with a 20-10 record, the program's fifth 20-win season in six years.

ASHLEY VEACH

ASSISTANT COACH

Fifth Season

In 2014 she joined the staff at Birmingham-Southern College. With the Panthers, Veach helped lead the Panthers to three consecutive 20-win seasons and the first NCAA Tournament victory in program history in 2015.

Veach was a four-year letterwinner at Ole Miss, where she was part of 52 victories with the Rebels. During her time at Ole Miss, Veach played in 369 sets and was named to the SEC Athletic Academic Honor Roll three times.

A native of Alpharetta, Ga., Veach won three state championships as a member of the Northview High School volleyball program and was named the Georgia 5A Player of the Year in 2008.

She set the program record for aces (272) as well as the single-season ace record (90) in 2006. She also set the single-season digs record (562) in 2008.
