JENNY HAZELWOOD

Southern Miss Director of Athletics Jeremy McClain announced in December of 2021 the hiring of Jenny Hazelwood as volleyball coach, who becomes the 12th head coach in the program's history.

"We are extremely excited to welcome Coach Jenny Hazelwood and her family to Southern Miss," said McClain. "Jenny brings a wealth of knowledge and experience as a head coach and is well-connected throughout the volleyball world. Her passion for the game and her student-athletes came through during the search process, and we look forward to watching her lead the Golden Eagles to new heights!"

With 15 years' experience as a collegiate head coach, Hazelwood has enjoyed stops at her alma mater, Mississippi State, as well as Austin Peay, Centenary College in Shreveport, La., and Mississippi College. Her most recent work experiences has been as a television analyst for both ESPN and the SEC Network, as well as an assistant coach with the USA Volleyball (USAV) Junior National program. Her duties also have included founding the Infinity Volleyball Academy for club teams in Flowood, Miss. She has served in numerous leadership roles within the USA Volleyball High Performance programs, including the lead for the Women's Junior A1 Program (USAV High Performance Championship Head Coach) and Select A1 Coach (USAV High Performance Championship Associate Head Coach), and was a part of numerous other USAV High Performance programs through the years.

In her six seasons at the helm of the Mississippi State program, Hazelwood posted the school's first-ever victories over Top 20 RPI teams including Kentucky in 2011 and LSU in 2014. In addition, her sixth-place showing in the SEC ranked as the best finish in Mississippi State history until this season.

Her accomplishments also included having three AVCA All-Region and All-American selections, coming during the 2013-2014 seasons, which are the only three in Bulldog history, while also having two All-SEC selections, five All-SEC Freshman picks, two SEC Offensive Players of the Week, three SEC Defensive Players of the Week and six SEC Freshmen of the Week – the most in school history.

"I am honored to have been chosen to lead this Southern Miss Volleyball program," said Hazelwood. "From top notch facilities to great support from athletic administration, it is clear that Southern Miss is a special place. I'm thankful to Athletic Director Jeremy McClain, Senior Associate AD Brian Morrison and SWA Sonya Varnell for their incredible support of volleyball at USM and for entrusting me to lead this program. I can't wait to get in the gym with this group and continue to build on the great foundation they already have in place! SMTTT!"

Off the court, Hazelwood oversaw one AVCA Academic All-American in 2009 and Kayla Woodard received CoSIDA Academic All-American honors in 2010, making the third player in Mississippi State history. Five players were selected to the SEC Community Service team during her tenure.

Her team also posted nine of the top 10 attendance figures in school history at the time and eclipsed the MSU attendance record with 4,525.

Upon graduation from Mississippi State in 2000, she stayed in Mississippi to launch her coaching career, serving for two seasons as head volleyball coach at Mississippi College. While directing the Choctaws' program, she was responsible for recruiting players that garnered American Southwest Conference East Division Freshman of the Year honors in 2000, 2001 and 2002.

She continued her coaching career in 2002 at Centenary College. During five seasons at Centenary, her teams took on the likes of Virginia and Southeastern Conference foes Mississippi State, Ole Miss and Tennessee. She guided her initial Centenary team, one with two players from a three-win club the previous season, to a 13-win campaign. That feat earned her Independent Coach of the Year national honors in 2002. Two players from her 2006 team earned Mid-Continent Conference (now Summit League) All-Freshman team honors, the first all-conference honors ever accorded to a Centenary volleyball player.

Hazelwood accepted the head coaching post at Austin Peay in 2007, guiding a team that returned just six letter-winners and three starters to an 8-25 finish in her first season coaching the Lady Govs. Her second APSU edition drew national attention when it produced a 14-win improvement and rated as college volleyball's most dramatic turnaround that fall. That Lady Gov team, picked to finish ninth in the 10-team Ohio Valley Conference, compiled a 22-11 worksheet and surprised league foes with a third-place finish and a win out of first place.

One of Hazelwood's prized recruits, junior outside hitter Stephanie Champine, earned first-team All-OVC and OVC All-Newcomer team honors and became the first Austin Peay player to receive American Volleyball Coaches Association's All-Midwest Region team honors.

Additionally, her 2008 team was selected by the league's coaches and players for the Ohio Valley Conference Sportsmanship Award.

As a player, Hazelwood enjoyed a successful four-year playing career at the setter position at Mississippi State (1996-99), in which she holds several records including the top assist marks for a match (83), a season (1,541) and career (5,505) and finishing fourth in the SEC in setting. She excelled in the classroom, becoming the first Bulldog volleyball player to earn SEC Academic Honor Roll honors all four of her collegiate years. Additionally, she was honored as the recipient of MSU's Newsom Award for athletic and academic excellence.

Hazelwood is married to Clinton, Miss., native Brian Hazelwood, a two-time All-Southeastern Conference placekicker during his football career at Mississippi State (1995 to 1998). He later played four seasons as a placekicker in the arenafootball2 league, earning second-team all-league honors in three of his four seasons and in 2011 joined the Volleyball Bulldog staff as a volunteer assistant.

The Hazelwoods are the parents of three children, Sarah (18), Allie (16) and Drew (10).

ASSISTANT COACHES

Kody Bivins

First season at USM
Orlando, Florida
Polk State College

Southern Miss Volleyball head coach Jenny Hazelwood announced the addition of Kody Bivins to the Golden Eagles staff as assistant coach on March 1, 2024.

“Kody comes here with college head coaching experience and is going to bring a lot of knowledge and an understanding of a lot of things in the game,” Hazelwood said. “I have known him for a number of years and he knows how to teach a lot of different areas of our sport, so it is always really nice to have someone that can coach multiple positions. He is very organized and takes initiative to do things, so he’s going to be a wonderful addition to our staff in all that he brings experience-wise and with his knowledge.”

Bivins comes to Southern Miss after serving as head coach of Belhaven Volleyball for two seasons, leading the program to the most wins over two years since the 2017-2018 seasons, while finishing fifth place in the Collegiate Conference of the South in 2022 and sixth in 2023 with a combined conference record of 14-18.

“I am truly grateful for the opportunity to be joining Coach Jenny’s staff and the Southern Miss family,” Bivins said. “She has a great vision for the program that is already in progress, and I am looking forward to assisting in continuing to bring that vision into fruition. Ultimately, I am excited to get in the gym, connect with the student-athletes, and help to foster an environment where we all can learn and grow. It is an exciting time to be a Golden Eagle - SMTTT!”

Most recently in 2023, Bivins led the Blazers to the CCS Tournament Quarterfinals with a 7-9 standing in conference play. In the regular season, the Blazers won a five-set victory against Huntingdon, who finished second in the conference.

In 2022, the Blazers saw a pair of All-Conference honorees in Bivins’ first campaign with Ellie Jones and Jeslian Vazquez being named to the Collegiate Conference of the South Second Team. Vazquez also earned the conference’s Rookie of the Year honor.

Prior to joining the Blazers in 2022, Bivins spent the 2021 season at Auburn University at Montgomery as an assistant coach under Head Coach Flavia Siqueira. He served as lead recruiter and helped coach the Warhawks to 17 victories, which is tied for the most wins since AUM joined NCAA Division II in 2017. Additionally, he was the position coach for middle blockers and liberos and oversaw all team workouts and conditioning.

Prior to his time at AUM, he assisted coach Kandis Schram at Maryville College and aided the Scots in securing their first program national ranking in the AVCA National Poll as Maryville finished the 2020-21 season ranked No. 25 with an overall record of 16-1 and undefeated 8-0 conference standing. He helped lead the Scots to the 2020-21 USA South West Division Conference Championship, was responsible for oversight of the team’s defense and was the position coach for all front row positions and liberos.

Bivins coached four USA South All-Conference members, two USA South Conference Players of the Week and six USA South Academic All-Conference members at Maryville.

Before his stint at Maryville, Kody spent four years as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater Polk State College in Winter Haven, Fla. He helped the Eagles to four NJCAA National Tournament appearances, finishing as high as third place in 2016.

Bivins also was part of two Mid-Florida Conference Championship teams and spent five weeks ranked #1 in the NJCAA National Poll. Additionally, he coached five NJCAA All-Americans, three Mid-Florida Conference Players of the Year and had 18 student-athletes named to the Mid-Florida All-Conference team.

Bivins, originally from Orlando, Fla., is a graduate of Polk State College, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Tristyn Sells

First season at USM
Littleton, Colorado
Valdosta State

Head coach Jenny Hazelwood announced the addition of Tristyn Sells as an assistant coach for the Southern Miss Volleyball program.

“We are incredibly fortunate to have Tristyn Sells joining the Southern Miss Volleyball program. Her experience as a player and coach will add so much to the continued growth of this program,” Hazelwood said. “Tristyn is a great teacher of the game and has already made a positive impact in our gym.”

Sells, a Littleton, Colo. native, joins Southern Miss from Mississippi College, where she had served as the Choctaws’ assistant coach since 2021. In 2022, Sells helped lead Mississippi College to a 23-7 standing, the most wins in a single season in program history and highest winning percentage for the program since 1994. The Choctaws also earned its first regional ranking in program history.

Prior to coaching, Sells enjoyed a decorated volleyball career, starting at Palm Beach State College from 2014-2015. Sells earned First Team All-Conference honors and was recognized as Second Team All-State and a First Team All-State Tournament honoree in 2015, along with being named to the NJCAA All-Academic Team.

Sells finished her collegiate playing career as a two-year starter at Valdosta State University and then played overseas from 2019-2020 for As Valle de la Sauer in Walbourg, France as a starting outside hitter.

Sells began her coaching career at her alma mater, Valdosta State, as a student assistant coach. After serving as a strength and conditioning intern at Barry University in 2019, Sells continued coaching as an assistant for the Seminaire de Jeunes High School volleyball team in Walbourg. Sells has also gained three years of experience coaching club volleyball teams, including ASVS in Woerth, France.

Outside of coaching, Sells served as a part-time assistant for athletic compliance during her time at Mississippi College, where she graduated with a master of science in athletic administration.

LAST TIME OUT...

Southern Miss Volleyball falls to Elon in a five-set match to close out the weekend at the Mercer Invitational.

Southern Miss started strong in the first set, but Elon kept the score close. Kills from Brynn Botkin and an ace from Lindsey Smith helped the Golden Eagles offensively. Kaylee Lowther was also able to make good defensive plays against the Phoenix. However, Elon was able to with the first set 26-24 to close out set one.

Elon gained momentum in the second set, keeping their errors to a minimum. Southern Miss tried to keep the Phoenix at bay with blocks from Madison Baldridge and Izzy Kronenberg. Despite a push, the Golden Eagles couldn’t recover, and Elon took the second set 25-20.

Southern Miss rallied in the third set. Strong plays from Botkin, who had 17 kills overall, helped Southern Miss gain the advantage. The Golden Eagles forced Elon into making crucial errors, pushing through the set to win it 25-23.

The Golden Eagles forced the fifth set by winning 26-24 in the fourth. Kronenberg found a weakness in Elon’s serve-receive, earning three back-to-back aces. Panunzio placing the ball across the net was essential for the offense, while Sunni Sheppard’s consistent defense helped secure the set.

In a dramatic fifth set, Southern Miss battled hard with kills from Botkin, McAda and Kronenberg. Unfortunately, Elon pulled away in the final moments finishing the set 15-13.

McAda led the team with 24 kills, hitting at a .286 percentage. She also contributed 10 digs and 2 blocks, making her a key player both offensively and defensively. Botkin added 17 kills with a .217 hitting percentage and earned four total blocks. Panunzio played a crucial role as the setter, dishing out 48 assists. She also contributed 9 digs and 2 blocks.

Southern Miss drops to 3-6 overall (0-0 SBC) while Elon advances to 6-5 (0-0 CAA).
