RALLY POINTS

• The Rebels head back on the road for a critical SEC clash at rival Mississippi State on Friday night.

• The home team has won each of the last four meetings in the all-time series. Ole Miss was the last to win a road match in the series, in 2022.

• Junior Gabi Placide has made an immediate impact since coming to Oxford, ranking second in the SEC in kills (255) and points (293.0). Placide was added to the AVCA Player of the Year Watch List for her efforts.

• The Rebels are 5-1 when Shayla Meyer hits .200 or higher and 4-5 when she does not.

• Cammy Niesen broke the Rebels all-time digs record on Sunday, breaking a 14-year-old mark held by Morgan Springer. Niesen's attention now turns to the SEC all-time top-10, where she needs 122 to break in.

• Ole Miss is 6-2 when freshman Carly Paugh gets five or more kills and 3-4 when she does not.

• The Rebels are 6-1 when recording 8 or more blocks in a match this season and 3-5 when falling below the threshold.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

4.75 Cammy Niesen has averaged 4.75 digs per set in her last three meetings against Mississippi State.

6 Gabi Placide is closing in on 1,000 kills in her career and needs just six to reach the mark as only a junior.

15 Mokihana Tufono is closing in on 2,000 assists in her career, needing just 15 more to reach the mark.

47 Ole Miss junior Gabi Placide is one of 47 players nationally to be tabbed to the AVCA Player of the Year Watch List.

48 Cammy Niesen has tallied at least 10 digs in 48 consecutive matches, dating back to 2023.

122 Now the Rebels all-time record holder, Niesen needs just 122 digs to enter the top-10 all-time in SEC history.

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI STATE

After a sensational non-conference campaign, the Mississippi State Bulldogs were riding high and an SEC opening win over No. 19 Florida only increased the excitement. However, the Bulldogs are seeking to recapture that form after dropping two of the next three matches and stand at 12-2 and 2-2 in SEC play. The star of the show has been the freshman Lindsey Mangelson, who leads the team with 197 kills and a .313 hitting percentage. Returner Mele Corral-Blagojevich is a key returner from last season's roster, with 142 kills, while Cayley Hanson has stepped into a starting setter role nicely, averaging 10.98 assists per set. Head coach Julie Darty Dennis is seeking a return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2021.

SERIES HISTORY

Ole Miss has dominated against its in-state rival historically, holding a 64-27 lead overall. The Rebels and Bulldogs split last season's series at one game apiece. Mississippi State is Ole Miss' most played rival, as well as the team it has the most wins against. The next closest SEC contender is Auburn (with 39 wins).

Mississippi State has claimed the last two matches in Starkville, while the Rebels have been perfect at home in the same span. In last season's 3-2 win in Oxford, Cammy Niesen paced the Rebels with 20 digs, as she led a quartet of Rebels with double-digit digs. Mokihana Tufono set a then-career high 56 assists and 11 digs for a double-double.

LAST TIME OUT

Despite tallying more kills than Auburn, the Rebels were unable to recover late in sets, falling 3-0 to the Tigers on Sunday afternoon. Gabi Placide led all competitors with 13 kills, but the star of the day was Cammy Niesen, who recorded 10 digs to become the program's all-time leader in digs, passing Morgan Springer. Niesen broke a 14-year-old program record with the majority of the conference slate to come. Cameron Bradley also shined with 11 digs on the day.

AT EASE WITH PLACIDE

Gabi Placide has become the SEC's breakout star since arriving in Oxford this season and will be a critical part of the Rebels lineup as SEC play begins.

Placide has surged to the forefront of the national rankings, ranking second in the SEC with 293.0 points and 255 kills, ranking 16th and 20th nationally, respectively. The Centennial, Colo., native also ranks 19th nationally in points per set and 21st nationally in kills per set.

Her efforts earned her a mid-season addition to the AVCA's Player of the Year Watch List. Placide also recently took home SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week honors following back-to-back career-highs in wins over Texas Tech and UAlbany and hit over .300 for the weekend. Placide also showed off her athleticism with 22 digs and 11.0 blocks to go alongside 71 kills.

CAN YOU DIG IT?

Senior libero Cammy Niesen made history on Sunday, smashing the program's all-eras dig record that stood for 14 years (by Morgan Springer). The 2024 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year has been a model of consistency her entire career and is now poised to add to her all-time lead as SEC play continues.

Niesen has quietly emerged as one of the best liberos in the SEC over her dynamic career as she closes in on the all-time SEC top-10. Niesen is 122 away from entering the top-10 in conference history.

Last season, Niesen led the SEC in total digs with 537, which also ranked 33rd in the nation. This season, Niesen continues to impact the game, ranking second in the SEC in digs per set (4.18).

FILLING THE VOID

While the Rebels have had to replace much of their offensive attack from 2024, several newcomers have immediately stepped up. They are led by transfer Gabi Placide, who surged to 255 kills and a .229 hitting percentage through her first 15 matches and already leads the SEC and ranks 20th nationally in total kills. Redshirt freshman Melia Johnson has also shined, opening her college career with 10 or more kills in four of her first eight matches.

TRANSFER TO THE SIP

Head coach Bre Henry and her staff were active in the transfer portal this offseason, landing several big names in an effort to reload following the graduation of several program legends (Sasha Ratliff & Payton Brgoch).

The most notable addition was All-Big Sky hitter and former Big Sky Freshman of the Year Gabi Placide, who joins the program with two seasons of eligibility remaining after opening her career at Northern Colorado. Over two seasons at UNC, Placide recorded 739 kills, 248 digs, 150 blocks, 40 aces and 15 assists.

Joining Placide is middle blocker Jordyn Towns, who makes the move over from Alabama to join the Rebels for her final two collegiate seasons. The 6'6" Towns becomes the tallest Rebel in program history. Over two seasons at Alabama, Towns tallied 195 kills and 82.0 total blocks to lead the Crimson Tide block.

Former Cal State Bakersfield setter Vivianna Samaniego and Kankakee Community College standout hitter Aniya Lewis round out the transfer class, with both having three seasons of eligibility remaining.

HONORED BY THE SEC

Setter Mokihana Tufono, who turned heads in her debut season in Oxford, was named to the All-SEC Preseason Team earlier this offseason. Tufono, who started her collegiate career at UCLA, developed into one of the top setters in the conference under head coach Bre Henry, earning AVCA All-South Region honors and recording 1,173 assists in 2024. Tufono also notched 286 digs, 60.0 total blocks, 43 kills and 21 service aces.

This season, Tufono continues to excel, ranking 23rd in the nation in assists per set at 10.26 and has tallied two 50-assist matches. Her recent play earned a spot in the NCAA's 'Rotation of the Week' a few weeks ago.

LONG BEACH CONNECTION

Head coach Bre Henry and associate head coach Taylor Gregory have a special connection. The two have been friends since they met at Long Beach State, where they both played volleyball collegiately. Henry, a four year starter, was a member of the 2013 NCAA National Championship team in beach volleyball and earned All-American honors in 2014. Gregory was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Conference honoree who finished his career as one of the most decorated middle blockers in program history with 500 total blocks.

Henry and Gregory both met their spouses, John and Delaine, who also played volleyball. Now, over 10 years later, their paths have crossed again in Oxford as Henry and Gregory are coaching together and raising their children.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS

Throughout the entirety of the 2025 season, Ole Miss athletics and the volleyball program will honor and recognize many who have contributed to the success and legacy of the program over 50 years of volleyball.

The program has tallied over 800 wins, reached five NCAA Tournaments and won the 2017 NIVC championship. Nineteen student-athletes have earned All-SEC honors, 16 have earned AVCA All-Region and three have been named All-Americans as the program has blossomed over generations of standout student-athletes.

CLIMBING THE LADDER

Several Rebels are poised to etch their names in the all-time record books in 2025 across multiple different metrics.

In addition to her pursuit of the all-eras digs record at Ole Miss, Cammy Niesen is also poised to enter the top-10 all-time in service aces, with 66 in her career. That stands just three outside the rally scoring era's top-10. Shayla Meyer also has her sights on the same list, standing at 64 service aces and is just five away from the top-10 across two and a half seasons of action.

Mokihana Tufono continues her rapid ascent of the assists charts in her short time at Ole Miss. Tufono currently sits sixth all-time in the rally scoring era with 1,758 and 11th across all eras, despite only playing just 43 matches as a Rebel.

BRE HENRY

THE SCOOP

With national championship pedigree as both an athlete and coach, Bre Henry leads the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in her third full season as head coach in 2025.

Over the course of her eight seasons as a graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach, Henry helped produce five All-Americans, 16 All-Region honorees and won the 2017 NCAA crown with Nebraska. Throughout her entire career, she has either been mentored by or worked alongside some of the top coaches in the nation, such as John Cook (Nebraska), Matt Ulmer (Oregon) and Erin Lindsey (Santa Clara), among others.

In her first full season as head coach and second with the Rebels, Henry changed the culture of the program. She created an environment where student-athletes and staff became a family and fell in love with the game of volleyball while still competing at a high level in the SEC.

Henry was the architect of a historic 2024 season, in which the Rebels went 18-12 with a 7-9 mark in SEC play and won the program's first ever NCAA Tournament match. The Rebels achieved countless success stories, culminating in the first round victory over No. 21 Florida State in Omaha, Nebraska. Henry helped guide Nia Washington to new heights in 2024, as Washington was named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA All-South Region and All-SEC honoree. It marked another transfer success story under Henry, alongside the development of first year Rebel setter Mokihana Tufono, who also earned AVCA All-South Region honors and recorded a sensational 1,173 assists in her first season in Oxford. Defensively, Henry oversaw another huge year from the blocking duo of Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch. Ratliff finished her career as the program's all-time leading blocker, while Brgoch took home AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention honors as she set a new single-season total block record in the rally scoring era with 134.0. Cammy Niesen also shined under Henry, leading the SEC with 537 digs, while moving into third all-time in program history in just three seasons.

The Rebels made waves in the SEC, earning several big wins. Henry and the Rebels erased losing streaks against traditional powers Arkansas and Tennessee that predated her arrival, while extending the program's longest winning streak against LSU since 1997-98. The Rebels rode a balanced lineup that led the SEC in total digs (1,732), ranked second in blocks (238.0), ranked third in kills (1,578) and ranked third in assists (1,482) into the NCAA Tournament, where Henry's team etched their names into the record books.

In 2023, the Rebels finished with an 11-18 record, including a 5-13 mark in conference play. Under Henry, the Ole Miss offense saw seven Rebels finish the season with over 100 kills, including four with over 200. Among those with offensive success were Anna Bair, who wrapped her Ole Miss career with the fifth most kills by any player in school history, and Julia Dyess, who led the Rebels in kills in SEC play and finished with a breakout junior season. She helped Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch rank inside the top five in hitting percentage in the SEC while recording 100 blocks. The two middle blockers also entered the top five in program history in total blocks with a chance to be the two best to ever wear a Rebel uniform at their position.

Ole Miss saw vast improvements defensively after ranking last in the SEC and 302nd nationally in opponent hitting percentage and 10th in digs per set a season ago. In 2023, Henry and defensive coach Taylor Gregory guided a defense that averaged 13.95 digs per set, the third-best mark in the SEC. Cammy Niesen ranked third in the conference with her 4.04 digs per set to lead the way. In total, the Rebels featured one of the stingiest defenses in the SEC, holding their opponents to a .210 hitting percentage (fifth-best in the SEC).

Henry joined the Ole Miss staff as assistant coach prior to the 2022 season and was named acting head coach for the final 11 matches. After a national search in the offseason, she was the clear choice to guide the Rebel volleyball team into the future and was named permanent head coach on Friday, Dec. 9, 2022, by Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter.

Working primarily as the defensive coordinator until her promotion, Henry helped middle blocker Sasha Ratliff earn her second All-SEC and AVCA South All-Region nod and guided Payton Brgoch to the fourth-most blocks in a single season in program history. She was also instrumental in the growth of a young Rebel team that saw three freshmen see significant playing time at setter, libero and outside hitter. Under her guidance, they garnered multiple SEC weekly honors, and Aly Borellis was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team.

Prior to arriving at Ole Miss, Henry spent three seasons as an assistant at Santa Clara. During her time with the Broncos, Santa Clara produced three AVCA All-Region selections, 12 All-WCC accolades and 10 WCC all-academic nods. A proven defensive mind, Santa Clara led the WCC and ranked 10th nationally with 326.5 total blocks.

Henry began her coaching career as a graduate assistant with one of the nation's elite programs at Nebraska. In two seasons, the Huskers went 62-11, winning the 2017 NCAA title and finishing as runner-up in 2018 while producing four All-Americans and six all-conference selections.

A former standout student-athlete at Long Beach State, Henry played both indoor and beach volleyball, earning ACVA All-American Honors for the 2014 indoor season and winning the 2013 beach National Championship. She helped lead the 49ers to a 27-5 record and a perfect 16-0 mark in the Big West Conference during her senior campaign. After graduating, Henry continued her playing career professionally in the Philippines and Switzerland in 2015 and 2016.

A Redding, California, native, Henry studied kinesiology as an undergraduate student at Long Beach State before earning a master's in sports and exercise psychology from Argosy University in 2016 and a master's in education administration from Nebraska in 2017.

Henry and her husband John reside in Oxford with their children, Quinn and Jones.
