BIG ORANGE OFFENSE

- The Tennessee offense has been producing at a high level this season. One of the top offensive teams in the nation, The Lady Vols enter the week with a .310 hitting percentage, leading the SEC and ranking third in Division I. The production has come from multiple sources this season, with four players over the 100-kill mark.
- Leading the team in kills is Hayden Kubik, coming in with 207 on the season. The senior hitter has 10 or more kills in 13 contests. Paityn Chapman follows with 151 kills, including nine matches with double-digit kills. Rounding out the quartet for the Lady Vols is Chelsea Sutton at 132 kills and Mackenzie Plante at 103.
- Four players have a hitting percentage over .300. Chelsea Sutton leads the team at .429, the second-best percentage in the conference. Paityn Chapman follows Sutton, with the sophomore opposite hitter entering the week at a .323-clip.

DEFENSE FUELING TENNESSEE'S SUCCESS

- The Lady Vol defense has been key to the team's success in 2025. Tennessee is holding opponents to a .175 hitting percentage, ranking third in the SEC.
- Tennessee's block defense has been impressive all season. The Lady Vols rank seventh in the conference in blocks per set at 2.53. Leading the team in blocks is Chelsea Sutton at 71, followed by redshirt freshman Zoë Humphrey at 58.
- The Lady Vols floor defense has been strong as well. As a team Tennessee has 792 digs, averaging 13.20 digs per set. Leading the team is Gülce Güçtekin with 3.75 digs per set and 225 digs, ranking eighth and ninth in the conference respectively.

SUTTON TAKING LARGER ROLE IN YEAR TWO

- Chelsea Sutton has been an important piece both offensively and defensively for the Lady Vols. Sutton is third on the team with 132 kills and leads the team with a .429 hitting percentage. Defensively, Sutton is the team leader with 71 total blocks, while her 1.25 blocks per set rank ninth in the SEC.
- Sutton has been a key cog in the Tennessee lineup. She has played in all 17 matches and has played in all but three sets. Sutton has seven matches with eight or more kills, and 13 matches with four or more blocks.

TEAM BREAKDOWN

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media credentials should be directed to volleyball contact Bryant Avery. Those wishing to attend a match are asked to call the Strategic Communications Office to be placed on the pass list.

Photo credentials will be issued to accredited photographers or those individuals on special assignment. Because there are designated areas for photographers, we ask that anyone shooting a volleyball match at Food City Center check with Bryant prior to the start of the contest.

RADIO

Food City Center is available for radio broadcasts through UT Telephone Services. In order to access these lines, those interested in broadcasting a particular match need to inform the UT Athletics Strategic Communications Office in writing at their earliest convenience and no later than three weeks prior to the contest. Radio stations also will need to contact UT Telephone Services at (865) 974-3121 to order a telephone line for use at the contest(s).

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Services provided include statistics generated from the Genius Live Stats computer program. Match statistics will be handed to all attending members of the media and sports information personnel after every game. Following the match, final statistics will be emailed to the visiting sports information director's email list.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews will be available following the match after a 10-minute cooling-off period. Media wishing to interview the coaches or any players other than on match days are required to set up interviews with 24 hours notice through Bryant Avery in the UT Strategic Comms Office.

THE NEXT GREAT OUTSIDE HITTER FOR THE LADY VOLS?

- Heading into the 2025 season, the team looks to replace the production of AVCA Second Team All-American Nina Cajic.
- Cajic took up the mantle of the top hitter for the team in 2024, finishing the season with 4448 kills. Cajic ranked 38th nationally and eighth in the SEC in kills per set at 4.31, while ranking 29th and seventh in points per set at 4.93. Cajic finished with double-digit kills in all but two matches, including five 20+ kill performances.
- Head coach Eve Rackham Watt and staff have had success offensively since arriving on Rocky Top, ranking in the top 15 nationally in kills per set in three out of her seven seasons at the helm.
- Several returners and newcomers look to factor into the rotation for the Lady Vols as they head into the campaign.
- Paityn Chapman returns after a strong freshman campaign. The rising sophomore was second on the team with 225 kills, while leading the team in kills in five matches. She finished with double-digit kills in 13 matches, including a career-high against Georgia on Nov. 15.

- Hayden Kubik heads into year two in Knoxville, coming off a 2024 season where she finished with 210 kills. She recorded 10-plus kills in nine matches a season ago, while also finishing second on the team with seven double-doubles.
- Kiki Granberry comes back after her best offensive season in her career, finishing last season with 189 kills and a .455 hitting percentage. Granberry finished with double-digit kills in seven matches including recording a season-high 13 on two occasions (at Wofford, Sept. 16 & at Oklahoma Sept. 29).
- Texas Tech transfer Brynn Williams joins the Lady Vols in 2025, coming off a season where she earned All-Big 12 honors. Over her career with the Red Raiders, Williams finished with 636 kills with 30 double-digit kill performances and three 20-kill contests. She has eclipsed 300 kills in consecutive seasons, and finished 2024 with a career-best 3.10 kills per set.
- Starr Williams joins from New Mexico State, coming over to Knoxville with First Team All-Conference USA honors. She totaled 691 kills on a .271 hitting percentage for the Aggies, posting 37 10-plus kill outings and three 20-kill efforts. She finished 2024 with 395 kills and a .317 hitting percentage, averaging 3.55 points and 3.26 kills per set.
- Sydney Jones rounds out the list of hitters looking to take up the mantle for the squad this year. Jones comes over from Temple, having been named the American Conference Freshman of the Year and earning All-American Conference honors. Jones finished her freshman season with 324 kills, recording double-digit kills in 19 matches and 20 or more kills three times. She ranked third overall in the conference with 3.60 kills per set and was fourth in points per set at 4.11.

RECORD-SETTING CROWDS PACK FOOD CITY

- For the second consecutive year, Tennessee set an attendance record in their season-opening game. A crowd of 7,654 were in attendance for Tennessee's opener against USF on Aug. 31.
- The previous program record for attendance came in last season's opener against Penn State, with 6,193 fans at Food City Center. Five of the top six largest crowds came during the 2024 season. The Big Orange set a program record for total attendance and average attendance.
- Tennessee has seen five of its eight largest crowds in program history to open the season. Through their nine home games this season, the Lady Vols are averaging over 4,800 in attendance.

FIRST-YEARS MAKING INSTANT IMPACT

- A trio of freshmen have played pivotal roles for the Lady Vols this season
- Zoë Humphrey has been a prominent feature on the block. The Houston-native has 65 kills and 58 blocks this season. Humphrey ranks 12th in the conference at 1.12 blocks per set, helping a Lady Vol defense hold opponents to a .175 hitting percentage
- Maggie Dostic has been stellar on defense for Tennessee, sitting fifth on the team with 78 digs. Dostic notched her first double-figure dig match against Florida with 10. She also continues to lead the team in aces this season with 18, while ranking fifth in the conference in aces per set at .37.
- Mogridge has featured in ten matches so far this season. She has 120 assists on the campaign for an average of 4.44 assists per set. Mogridge has two outings with 20 or more assists, including a season-high 28 on Sept. 14 on the road against St. John's

KERR HAVING ANOTHER IMPRESSIVE SEASON ON ROCKY TOP

- In her redshirt junior campaign at Tennessee, Caroline Kerr is continuing the play that has made her a two-time all-American
- Kerr leads the team with 531 assists, averaging 9.32 assists per set. The setter is helping lead an offense that is third in the nation in hitting percentage at .310 and top 20 in kills per set at 14.10.
- Kerr has 2,845 assists in her career, the tenth-most in program history. Kerr also ranks in the top 10 in assists per set, with her 10.66 total sitting seventh all-time.
- Kerr has tallied 30 or more assists in ten matches, including tying her career-high with 57 assists against Florida. That marked her 11th career match with 50 or more assists. Kerr also notched a double-double in the match, adding 15 digs.
- Before the season, Kerr was named to the AVCA National Player of the Year Watch List. It was the second consecutive year that Kerr was named to the watch list. Kerr also garnered Preseason All-SEC recognition.

LADY VOLS PICK UP WEEKLY HONORS

- Multiple Lady Vols have been awarded for strong performances during the season
- Three players have earned SEC weekly honors this season: Caroline Kerr, Chelsea Sutton, and Zoë Humphrey.
- Kerr has twice been named SEC Setter of the Week in 2025, giving the Champaign, Illinois native five total in her career. Her first came back on Sept. 15, following a week where Kerr had 53 assists and 13 digs in a victory over Georgia Tech. It marked the 10th 50-plus assists match in Kerr's career. Her second came on Oct. 6 after another double-double performance against LSU (39 assists & 14 digs) adding seven kills as well.
- Sutton earned SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors back on Sept. 15 as well. This came after the sophomore notched 15 blocks in a week, including five against Georgia Tech and six against St. John's. She also found success on the offensive end with 26 kills.
- Humphrey was awarded SEC Freshman of the Week back Sept. 29. Humphrey picked up 13 blocks en route to the award, including an eight-block outing against South Carolina on Sept. 26.

DEFENDING THE HOME COURT

- Tennessee owns an impressive 88-23 record at home during the Eve Rackham Watt era, and it's even more eye opening when you realize the Lady Vols are 46-12 in the last four seasons.
- The Big Orange has won double-digit home matches in six of Rackham Watt's eight seasons on Rocky Top, including each of the last four.
- UT has beaten nine top-25 opponents inside of Food City Center since 2018, including ranked non-conference wins against No. 9 Baylor (2021), No. 21 Georgia Tech (2025), No. 22 Michigan State (2018) and No. 25 UCLA (2024).
- A big part of the success at home has been the crowd. Tennessee's enjoyed its two best seasons for total attendance and average crowds during the Rackham Watt era.
- Tennessee set an attendance record in its season-opening game against USF, with 7,654 fans. This marked the second year in a row that the Lady Vols broke its program single-game attendance record on opening night, with the 6,193 fans in attendance for their match against Penn State on Aug. 30.
- At the time, five of the top six largest home crowds in Tennessee history occurred in 2024, and for the second year in a row, UT shattered its records for total attendance (41,544) and average attendance (3,196).

WORK HARD, PLAY HARDER

- One area of Tennessee volleyball that often goes unmentioned outside the program is strength and conditioning, but it certainly plays a major part in the team's success on the court.
- The Lady Vols are trained by veteran strength coach Brad Roll, who boasts 20 years of experience in the NFL and 40 combined with college.
- Roll trained pro football players during stints with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Miami Dolphins, Buffalo Bills, St. Louis Rams, Oakland Raiders and Cleveland Browns.
- The former collegiate football player for Blinn College and Stephen F. Austin has an impressive resume in the collegiate realm as well. He worked with the Kansas men's basketball team when it won the 1988 national championship along with Miami football during its NCAA title seasons in 1989 and 1991.

- Roll has been on Rocky Top since 2016, and he has greatly elevated the level of training for the volleyball program. Here are some of the top numbers by Lady Vols in the weight room from this spring/summer:

RACKHAM WATT EFFECT

Tennessee volleyball head coach Eve Rackham Watt is in her eighth season on Rocky Top in 2024 and has compiled a record of 131-68. In her first six seasons, Rackham Watt became the fastest coach in program history to reach 20 wins in conference play, became the second-fastest to reach the 50-win and 100-win milestones in Tennessee history. The Sebastopol, California, native is currently the third-winningest coach in program history and holds a 82-44 record against SEC opponents.

In 2024, Rackham Watt led the Lady Vols to their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and finished in the top half of the SEC. She coaches a pair of players to All-American honors in Nina Cajic and Caroline Kerr. Cajic earned AVCA Second Team All-American honors, while Kerr garnered All-American status for the second time in her career.

During the 2023 campaign, she coached the Lady Vols to their second-highest ranking in program history at No. 8, and the team earned its highest-ever NCAA Tournament national seed at No. 10. UT reached the regional semifinal for the first time since 2005 thanks to an offense that led the SEC and ranked inside the top five nationally in kills per set, assists per set and hitting percentage.

Throughout her time on Rocky Top, Rackham Watt has coached nine different Lady Vols to All-American status, including six during the last three seasons. Tennessee has been represented on the AVCA All-Region list 15 times and the All-SEC team on 12 occasions. Rackham Watt and her staff have coached two athletes to National Player of the Week status, as Erica Treiber (2018) and Morgahn Fingall (2022, 2023) earned the prestigious honor.

Successful teams are powered by successful players, and her student-athletes consistently maximize their athletic potential. Throughout her time as a college coach, Rackham Watt has produced 29 AVCA All-American selections, 42 all-conference honorees, two conference Players of the Year, three conference Defensive Players of the Year, four conference Newcomers/Freshmen of the Year, 38 AVCA All-Region selections, one AVCA Regional Player of the Year, two AVCA Regional Freshmen of the Year and four NCAA Regional All-Tournament Team selections.

In the classroom, Rackham Watt has coached 13 CSC (formerly CoSIDA) Academic All-District honorees and two CSC Academic All-American.

During the 2025 spring semester, the Lady Vols posted their highest GPA ever of any semester at 3.67. Under her leadership, Tennessee volleyball has earned the USMC/AVCA Team Academic Award during each of the last five years (2021-25), marking the best streak in program history. Fingall earned SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in 2022 and 2023.

At the professional level, Tessa Grubbs and Breana Runnels both enjoyed successful 2022-23 seasons. Grubbs was named the MVP of the Swiss League, while leading her team to a championship title. Runnels replicated the same success in the Finnish Champions league, earning the top honors while guiding her team to a title. Following the 2023 campaign, Fingall and Jenaisya Moore were selected in the Pro Volleyball Federation Draft. Fingall was taken with the No. 4 overall pick by the Grand Rapids Rise, while Moore was selected in the fourth round with the No. 28 pick by the Columbus Fury. Nina Cajic became the third Lady Vol under Rackham Watt to be taken in the PVF Draft, going to the Indy Ignite with the 28th pick in the 2024 draft.

Between her time at the helm at Tennessee and serving as UNC's recruiting coordinator, Rackham Watt has put together an impressive track record when it comes to identifying and bringing in top talent. In total, she signed 26 top-100 prospects between 2011-18. With the Tar Heels, she signed three top-10 classes in the country, including the No. 3 overall class by PrepVolleyball.com in 2016.

COACH QUOTE

“Alaina is a player you can put anywhere on the court. We love her versatility as an attacker and think she can play in a variety of roles for us. The best part of her game may be her aggressiveness and understanding of blocking. That is what first stood out to our staff. She is a high-motor player who brings a ton of energy to the floor. I know people will love playing with her and believe she will help us right away.”

- Eve Rackham Watt

COACH QUOTE

"Izzy is a player who will instantly make us better in more ways than one. An elite competitor and without a doubt one of the best setters in the 2025 class, Izzy has a world of potential at the college level. She is fast, smart and plays with great composure. Our staff can't wait for her arrival and to get to work."

- Eve Rackham Watt
