HEAD COACH TONYA JOHNSON

LSU alumna Tonya Johnson enters her fifth season as head coach of the Tigers in 2026. Johnson has compiled a 61-61 record at LSU with an NCAA Tournament appearance and victory, and owns a 146-133 career record as a head coach.

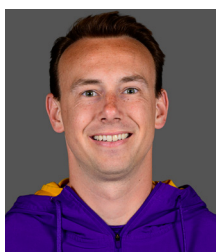

A four-year letterwinner for the Tigers (1987-90), Johnson helped lead LSU to its first NCAA Final Four appearance in 1990 while winning four SEC championships, including two regular-season and two SEC Tournament titles. She became the sixth head coach in program history when she returned to Baton Rouge in 2022.

Under Johnson's leadership, LSU has produced an AVCA All-America Honorable Mention selection, six AVCA All-Region honorees, and the 2023 AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year. Off the court, the Tigers have earned the U.S. Marine Corps/AVCA Team Academic Award in each of her four seasons, while the program posted a school-record 3.7 team GPA in the spring of 2024.

Prior to LSU, Johnson spent 14 seasons across two stints on the Texas staff, helping the Longhorns reach five NCAA Final Fours and three national championship matches. She also served as head coach at Georgia Tech (2009-13), leading the Yellow Jackets to the 2009 NCAA Tournament and posting an 85-72 record. Johnson previously served as an assistant coach at LSU (1998-2002) and began her collegiate coaching career at Kentucky in 1995.

THE SERIES

LSU leads Mississippi State in the all-time series 67-14, including a 29-7 record in matches played in Starkville, Miss.

The Tigers and Bulldogs are an even 5-5 in the last 10 matches played. LSU fell 3-1 to MSU last season in Baton Rouge.

LAST TIME OUT

LSU won a hard-fought five-set SEC opener against Alabama, capped by a 15-3 thumping in the fifth set to improve to 1-0 in SEC play.

The Tigers dominated defensively, registering 13.0 blocks, 63 digs, and held Bama to a .148 hitting percentage. On the offensive side of the net, LSU hit .209 with 60 kills and had a season-high seven aces.

Jurnee Robinson had a relatively quite double-double with 22 kills and 12 digs, while Sanaa Donaie controlled the net with a match-high seven blocks and added two aces with five kills.

TRENDING TIGERS

LSU has won four of its last five matches, and are 3-1 in five set matches this season. Other notable trends for the Tigers early this season, LSU is 6-0 when hitting .200 or better, and 6-1 when they win the first set.

DEFENSIVE PROWESS

LSU has a strong defensive unit entering into conference play. The Tigers have the seventh-lowest opposing hitting percentage at .178. LSU has held its opponent under a .200 hitting percentage nine of 10 games this season, and six times under .180, including a .148 clip in its SEC home opener against Alabama (Sept. 23).

WE CAN DIG IT

LSU ranks No. 3 in the SEC with 13.98 digs per set and No. 6 with 572 total digs.

The Tigers have recorded three matches with 70 or more digs this season, including 78 digs versus Incarnate Word (Aug. 29), 74 digs against Wake Forest (Aug. 28) and 73 digs versus NC State (Sept. 8).

LSU has two matches this season with four players recording double-digit digs.

MEET US AT THE NET...IT'S GOING DOWN

LSU has moved to No. 6 in the SEC with 2.57 blocks per set behind 105.5 total blocks, which ranks fourth in the SEC.

LSU has registered double-digit blocks in eight matches this season, including the last six consecutive matches.

The Tigers logged a season-high 14.0 blocks against Tulsa (Sept. 18).

BLOCKING, BLOCKING, BLOCKING

Since taking over the program in 2022, this staff has continually increased the team's production at the net. In 2025, the Tigers ranked No. 10 in the SEC with 2.19 blocks per set and 228 total blocks.

Year	Blocks/Set	Total Blocks	SEC Rank
2026	2.57	105.5	6th, 3rd
2025	2.19	228	10th
2024	2.00	206	13th, 12th
2023	1.91	197	12th
2022	2.12	252	11th, 10th

JUST SUFFOCATING DEFENSE

LSU showed against Alabama, that when they are locked in defensively, there is nothing anyone can do against them. After a competitive first four sets, LSU defeated Alabama 15-3 in the fifth frame, marking the fewest points the Tigers have allowed in a fifth set since Nov. 25, 1990 versus Georgia, where LSU won the set 15-2. Head Coach Tonya Johnson was a player on that LSU team. In that set, LSU held Alabama to a -.167 hitting percentage with four blocks and six digs.

MAKING NOISE

Offensively, LSU averages 12.98 kills and 11.90 assists per set. The Tigers have four matches with 60 or more kills this season, including a season-high 68 kills in the season opener against Wake Forest (Aug. 28).

The Bayou Bengals are the top serving team in the league, but has collected 13 aces over their last two matches, including a season-high seven versus Alabama.

LET'S TALK HITTING PERCENTAGES

LSU is hitting .209 this season, but has the potential to be explosive, as shown against Charlotte on Sept. 11.

The Tigers' .398 clip (49-8-103) against Charlotte was their best attacking percentage since 2024, and the third-highest percentage under Coach Johnson. It also marked the fifth time since 1993 that LSU hit .397 or better on 100 or more attempts. The most recent occurrence came against Georgia on Oct. 14, 2011, when LSU hit .402 on 117 attacks.

AVCA RANKINGS

Week four's AVCA national rankings feature five SEC teams, including three in the Top 10: No. 3 Kentucky, No. 7 Texas and No. 8 Florida.

THE STAFF

The 2026 season will be the fifth under head coach Tonya Johnson. Also in their fifth season is Associate Head Coach Kevin Inlow (first under new title), and Assistant Coach Ashley Shook.

A familiar face in Trey Cruz, was named the program's Associate Head Coach on April 20, 2026. This is Cruz's second full-time stint with the indoor volleyball team at LSU after serving as the assistant coach from 2018-2021.

LSU is seeking a return back to the NCAA Tournament since Coach Johnson's first season in 2022. That year, LSU made its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2017 and won its first NCAA Tournament match since 2014, a 3-1 victory against Hawai'i on Dec. 2, 2022, in Stanford, Calif.

WE DEVELOP HERE

The LSU staff has proven their expertise in developing players through a holistic approach. From significant leaps between freshman and sophomore seasons to successful transitions for transfers, this staff focuses on the overall growth of each athlete, enhancing not just their skills on the field, but also their mental and emotional well-being. This commitment to holistic development ensures that every player who joins their program continues to thrive.

SCHEDULE NOTES

The LSU volleyball team's 24-match regular schedule features 11 home matches, including seven SEC home contests. LSU will face eight opponents who participated in the 2025 NCAA Tournament, including road matches at Kentucky and Texas A&M, who played in the NCAA Championship match.

LSU will have four televised matches this season, including three of the Tigers' SEC home matches on SEC Network. The first televised match of the season will be versus Michigan State as part of the 2026 Allstate SEC/Big Ten Challenge. The game will be at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 1, at the Crisler Center in Ann Arbor, Mich. The following TV matches at the Maravich Center will be against Vanderbilt on Sept. 30, Missouri on Oct. 4, and against Arkansas on Nov. 4.

COMING TO SEE THE TIGERS

Volleyball continues to grow around the nation and specifically here in Louisiana. Since the arrival of Coach Johnson at the helm of the program, LSU has recorded eight attendance marks that are on the program's Top 10 list, including one this season, when 3,328 fans filled the Maravich Center against Charlotte on Sept. 11.

LSU set an attendance record against No. 8 Texas on Sept. 29, 2024, when 3,885 fans came out to the PMAC, representing the largest crowd in the state of Louisiana for a collegiate volleyball match.

EMBRACING THE JURNEE

Robinson continues to piece together one of the most impressive resumes in program history. She is a 2025 AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, a three-time AVCA All-Region selection, the 2023 AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year, and a three-time All-SEC selection. She is also a two-time Louisiana Sports Writer's award winner (2024-2025) and the 2023 LSWA Freshman of the Year.

SHE'S UNSTOPPABLE!

Robinson leads the nation with 5.37 kills per set, 220 total kills, and 251.0 total points. Robinson ranks No. 2 in the country with 6.12 points per set.

Robinson holds two of the SEC's top five individual point totals in a match, including a league-best 36.0 points versus Wake Forest (Aug. 28).

Overall this season, Robinson leads the team with 10 aces and adds 32 blocks (0.78/set), including 10 solo blocks, and averages 2.49 digs per set (102 total).

AIR JURNEE

Robinson is currently the program's all-time leader with 5.21 points and 4.64 kills per set. Her 4.64 kills per set ranks No. 2 among active NCAA volleyball players, and her 1,572 total kills ranks No. 4.

Robinson currently ranks No. 5 all-time and No. 2 in the rally scoring era in total kills at LSU. She is 19 kills shy of surpassing Leah Bennett (1,590 kills) to move to No. 4 all-time. She is also five points shy from breaking into the top 10 all-time in total points.

Robinson reached 1,000-career kills on Sept. 18, 2025, at No. 19 USC, becoming the 24th LSU Tiger to reach 1,000 career kills and the 12th to do so in the rally scoring era.

She has 35 career double-doubles, including 25 20-kill double-doubles, highlighted by three 30-kill double-doubles. Robinson has six double-doubles in 2026.

4.	Jurnee Robinson	2023-Pres.	1,767.0

AND SHE DEFENDS

Robinson is on the verge of 1,000 career digs, needing 218 more digs. Only six LSU Tigers in program history have 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs, and just three with careers in the rally scoring era alone. The last LSU Tiger to accomplish this is Catie Leak (2012-2015), who is the new head coach for beach volleyball at Coastal Carolina.

Robinson has 32 blocks this season, including a team-high 10 solo blocks, averaging 0.78 blocks per set this season.

This past summer she completed an internship with Exxon Mobile, where she analyzed pressure vessels, piping, and other refinery equipment to improve the safety, maintenance, and performance of the equipment.

Working with Exxon, Jones has learned how products she works with are used in everyday items she uses. For example, polypropylene is used heavily in volleyball court floors and other volleyball equipment.

PROCHASKA'S PATH BACK TO VOLLEYBALL

Prochaska grew up playing multiple sports, but softball and volleyball stood out. Though she explored opportunities to be a dual-sport athlete, she ultimately chose to play softball at the University of Houston. After her freshman year, she entered the transfer portal with the goal of continuing in softball. However, encouraged by her mother, she also began to reconsider volleyball. She reached out to former recruiter and LSU alumni Jill Wilson, to ask if returning to volleyball after a two-year break was even possible. That conversation led her to LSU—one of the first programs that had recruited her in high school.

WELCOME BACK LAINEE
