RALLY POINTS

- Ole Miss returns home to open a four-match homestand, wrapping up the regular season at Gillom over the next two weekends.
- Freshman Jaidyn Hartsfield has emerged offensively in recent matches, leading the Rebels in kills in two of the last three matches.
- Last time she faced Mississippi State, sophomoe Keirstyn Carlton had one of her best ever performances, tallying 12 kills on .400 hitting, while adding four blocks.
- The Rebels have developed an early tendency to finish strong. Ole Miss is a combined 14-26 in all first and second sets, but 17-18 in sets three through five.
- Libero Cameron Bradley continues to lead the SEC in digs per set at 4.93. Despite injuries marring a few matches, Bradley ranks 12th nationally in the metric.
- Sophomore Bella Bonanno has stepped up in Bradley's absence, recording back-to-back career-highs in digs with 18 against South Carolina and 20 at Auburn.
- Ole Miss is 7-0 when recording at least seven service aces, compared to 1-12 across all others.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

1 Shayla Meyer needs just one more service ace to move into third all-time in the rally scoring era at Ole Miss.

3 Junior libero Cameron Bradley is one of only three SEC athletes to record a 30-dig match this season (A. Cruz, R. Gary).

8 The Rebels have won seven of eight matches when recording at least 8 blocks this season.

9 Shayla Meyer is also seeking to become just the ninth Rebel in program history to reach 100 aces (all eras).

76 Shayla Meyer needs just 76 more kills to reach 1,000 in her career.

77 Vivianna Samaniego needs 77 assists to reach 1,000 in her career between Ole Miss and CSU-Bakersfield.

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI STATE

With a lofty 15-5 record, the Mississippi State Bulldogs still find themselves seeking more signature wins as the program makes a charge for a return to the NCAA Tournament under head coach Julie Darty Dennis. The Bulldogs have been particularly potent at home in Starkville, where they are one of two programs in the SEC to remain perfect at home, at 7-0 overall.

Lindsey Mangelson remains the top threat of the offense, with 3.68 kills per set, despite a slightly lower hitting percentage than her breakout freshman campaign. Mangelson is buoyed by more options around her in 2026, with improved play from Bernadita Aguilar, who is hitting .289 this season. Junior Noella Obi continues to anchor the block with 72.0 on the season, while her active defense behind is averaging 15.49 digs per set to lead the SEC. Libero McKenna Yates leads the way with 4.43 digs per set this season.

SERIES HISTORY

Ole Miss enters the weekend with a robust all-time series lead against Mississippi State, leading 64-28. Despite the advantage, the series has been extremly competitive in recent seasons, with each side winning three of the last six matches and six of the last 12. The Bulldogs were the winner of last season's battle, emerging 3-1 in Starkville. The Rebels recorded 92 digs in the loss, with 20-dig performances from Cammy Niesen, Mokihana Tufono and Shalya Meyer.

LAST TIME OUT

The Rebels put up a strong fight at one of the top teams in the nation, but were unable to break through, falling 3-0 at No. 5 Florida on Sunday. Jaidyn Hartsfield led the Rebels with nine kills, while Melia Johnson added eight kills, as the Rebels found offensive success early, to the tune of .242 hitting against the talented Gators defense, but could not sustain the momentum.

CAM CAN

Ole Miss libero Cameron Bradley had a season debut to remember, tallying an NCAA leading 78 digs over the first three matches of the season on her way to SEC Defensive Player of the Week honors. Bradley bested her previous career-high in digs in all three matches, headlined by a 30-dig performance in the finale against LMU.

Since that time, Bradley has gotten off to a sensational start to what has been a breakout campaign. Despite currently dealing with an injury, Bradley ranks continues to lead the SEC and ranks 12th in the nation in digs per set with 4.93.

Bradley is in her first season as the starting libero following the graduation of all-time digs leader Cammy Niesen and has seamlessly stepped into the rotation. Bradley has also shined at the service line with 14 service aces this season.

TIME TO CROOK

The Rebels made a big splash in the transfer portal entering this season, adding UAB opposite Jorda Crook to the program. A native of Ohatchee, Ala., Crook made her mark in three seasons as a Blazer, earning two All-AAC First Team honors and taking home five AAC Player of the Week awards, becoming the first UAB volleyball player to ever accomplish the feat.

Crook follows a growing path of impact transfers into the program. Head coach Bre Henry and her staff have developed 400-kill hitters in back-to-back seasons, with Crook entering the fold on the heels of 394 kills as a junior at UAB.

Crook is off to a strong start to her Ole Miss tenure, tallying a team-high 217 kills, while also leading the team with 56.0 blocks and ranking second in with 18 service aces.

Crook made personal history against Missouri, reaching 1,000 kills in her decorated career and doing so in just 86 matches.

GIVING BACK TO THE SIP

The Ole Miss volleyball program has been incredibly active in the community under head coach Bre Henry. The Rebels lead all sports at Ole Miss in community engagement points, a metric made up of hours and donations, so far contributing 90 hours of community service. These opportunities have ranged from visiting a children's hospital in Jackson, Miss., to serving meals to the community as part of the 'More than a Meal' initiatve.

Jordyn Towns and Bella Bonanno have been leaders for the program, organizing a donation of 3,900 items for 'Feed the Sip', a donation drive to provide snacks to children in Quitman County and Tunica County who are experiencing food insecurity.

LONG BEACH CONNECTION

Head coach Bre Henry and associate head coach Taylor Gregory have a special connection. The two have been friends since they met at Long Beach State, where they both played volleyball collegiately. Henry, a four year starter, was a member of the 2013 NCAA National Championship team in beach volleyball and earned All-American honors in 2014. Gregory was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Conference honoree who finished his career as one of the most decorated middle blockers in program history with 500 total blocks.

Henry and Gregory both met their spouses, John and Delainey, who also played volleyball. Now, over 10 years later, their paths have crossed again in Oxford as Henry and Gregory are coaching together and raising their children.

NEXT GENERATION

Head coach Bre Henry and the Ole Miss volleyball program added five new freshmen to the program this season as the Rebels welcome Rileigh Butler, Jaidyn Hartsfield, Ryea Jackson, Coco Natarajan and Sophie Taylor to the team.

The group has earned several accolades in their careers. Natarajan and Jackson were both tabbed to the AVCA's Phenom Watch List, while Natarajan was named to AVCA All-American Watch List in 2025.

Four of the five additions to the class have come from the state of Texas, including three from the same volleyball club - MadFrog Volleyball Club. The Rebels have heavily scouted the Lone Star State, as Butler, Hartsfield, Jackson and Natarajan will join fellow Texans Cameron Bradley, Keirstyn Carlton, Nina Moorer and Carly Paugh in 2026.

Jackson will help anchor the middle of the court, while Hartsfield and Taylor join the fold as athletic pins. Butler will join Cameron Bradley and Bella Bonanno as liberos, while Natarajan will join Tenesyn Frye and Vivianna Samaniego in the setter room this season.

THE ROAD TO 1K

After senior opposite Jorda Crook earned her 1,000th collegiate kill in a home victory over Missouri on October 2, the Rebels have their eyes on more big milestones ahead of the meat of the SEC schedule.

Shayla Meyer is seeking to join Crook at 1,000 kills, standing at 924 in her collegiate career. The fifth year is unique in all have come as a Rebel and reaching the milestone would put Meyer into the top-10 all-time in the rally scoring era at Ole Miss. Setter Vivianna Samaniego is also chasing a personal milestone, standing 77 assists away from 1,000 assists.

CLIMBING THE LADDER

Shayla Meyer enters her final collegiate season with eyes on the record books. After multiple service aces at No. 4 Kentucky, Meyer moved into a tie for third place in the rally scoring era in service aces and now has 86 in her career. Meyer is seeking to become the eighth Rebel to ever reach 100 service aces.

Her 32 aces in 2025 marked Meyer's second straight season with 30 or more service aces. A third-consecutive 30-ace season would be enough to allow Meyer to become just the second Rebel in the rally scoring era to tally 100 or more service aces and put pressure on becoming the all-time leader in the era.

Additionally, Meyer also has eyes on several longer-term milestones, including 1,000 career kills and 1,000 career digs. Meyer currently sits at 924 kills and 757 digs in her standout Rebel tenure.

BRE HENRY

THE SCOOP

With national championship pedigree as both an athlete and coach, Bre Henry leads the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in her fourth full season as head coach in 2026.

Over the course of her nine seasons as a graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach, Henry helped produce five All-Americans, 17 All-Region honorees and won the 2017 NCAA crown with Nebraska. Throughout her entire career, she has either been mentored by or worked alongside some of the top coaches in the nation, such as John Cook (Nebraska), Matt Ulmer (Kansas) and Erin Lindsey (Santa Clara), among others.

In her first full season as head coach and second with the Rebels, Henry changed the culture of the program. She created an environment where student-athletes and staff became a family and fell in love with the game of volleyball while still competing at a high level in the SEC.

Guiding a new-look lineup in 2025, Henry helped mentor a young team, while also guiding program legends in the final season of their college careers. Under Henry's tenure as head coach, Cammy Niesen became the program's all-time leader in total digs with 1,853, smashing the previous record that stood for 14 years by 222. In senior setter Mokihana Tufono's final season, she recorded 1,135 assists, cementing herself inside the all-time top-10 in assists at Ole Miss, despite only two seasons with the program. Offensively, the Rebels got AVCA All-South Region honorable mention honors from Gabi Placide, who finished the year with 488 kills to rank second in single-season kills in the rally scoring era. Despite dealing with injuries for much of the year, the Rebels showed tremendous fight throughout the campaign, including a five-set win at Oklahoma, a sweep of Georgia in Athens and a run to the quarterfinals in the return of the SEC Tournament. The Rebels romped LSU in a sweep, before taking down sixth-seeded Missouri in five-set thriller the next day.

Henry was the architect of a historic 2024 season, in which the Rebels went 18-12 with a 7-9 mark in SEC play and won the program's first ever NCAA Tournament match. The Rebels achieved countless success stories, culminating in the first-round victory over No. 21 Florida State in Omaha, Neb. Henry helped guide Nia Washington to new heights in 2024, as Washington was named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA All-South Region and All-SEC honoree. It marked another transfer success story under Henry, alongside the development of first year Rebel setter Mokihana Tufono, who also earned AVCA All-South Region honors and recorded a sensational 1,173 assists in her first season in Oxford. Defensively, Henry oversaw another huge year from the blocking duo of Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch. Ratliff finished her career as the program's all-time leading blocker, while Brgoch took home AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention honors as set a new single-season total block record in the rally scoring era with 134.0. Cammy Niesen also shined under Henry, leading the SEC with 537 digs, while moving into third all-time in program history in just three seasons.

The Rebels made waves in the SEC, earning several big wins. Henry and the Rebels erased losing streaks against traditional powers Arkansas and Tennessee that predated her arrival, while extending the program's longest winning streak against LSU since 1997-98. The Rebels rode a balanced lineup that led the SEC in total digs (1,732), ranked second in blocks (238.0), ranked third in kills (1,578) and ranked third in assists (1,482) into the NCAA Tournament, where Henry's team etched their names into the record books.

In 2023, the Rebels finished with an 11-18 record, including a 5-13 mark in conference play. Under Henry, the Ole Miss offense saw seven Rebels finish the season with over 100 kills, including four with over 200. Among those with offensive success were Anna Bair, who wrapped up her Ole Miss career with the fifth most kills by any player in school history, and Julia Dyess, who led the Rebels in kills in SEC play and finished with a breakout junior season. She helped Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch rank inside the top five in hitting percentage in the SEC while recording 100 blocks. The two middle blockers also entered the top five in program history in total blocks with a chance to be the two best to ever wear a Rebel uniform at their position.

Ole Miss saw vast improvements defensively after ranking last in the SEC and 302nd nationally in opponent hitting percentage and 10th in digs per set a season ago. In 2023, Henry and defensive coach Taylor Gregory guided the defense to average 13.95 digs per set, the third-best mark in the SEC. Leading the way was libero Cammy Niesen, ranking third in the conference with her 4.04 digs per set. In total, the Rebels created one of the stingiest defenses in the SEC, holding their opponents to a .210 hitting percentage (fifth-best in the SEC).

Henry joined the Ole Miss staff as assistant coach prior to the 2022 season and was named acting head coach for the final 11 matches. After a national search in the offseason, she was the clear choice to guide the Rebel volleyball team into the future and was named permanent head coach on Friday, December 9, 2022, by Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter.

Working primarily as the defensive coordinator until her promotion, Henry helped middle blocker Sasha Ratliff earn her second All-SEC and AVCA South All-Region nod and guided Payton Brgoch to the fourth-most blocks in a single season in program history. She was also instrumental in the growth of a young Rebel team that saw three freshmen see significant playing time at setter, libero and outside hitter. Under her guidance, they garnered multiple SEC weekly honors, and Aly Borellis was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team.

Prior to arriving at Ole Miss, Henry spent three seasons as an assistant at Santa Clara. During her time with the Broncos, Santa Clara produced three AVCA All-Region selections, 12 All-WCC accolades and 10 WCC all-academic nods. A proven defensive mind, Santa Clara led the WCC and ranked 10th nationally with 326.5 total blocks.

Henry began her coaching career as a graduate assistant with one of the nation's elite programs at Nebraska. In two seasons, the Huskers went 62-11, winning the 2017 NCAA title and finishing as runner-up in 2018 while producing four All-Americans and six all-conference selections.

A former standout student-athlete at Long Beach State, Henry played both indoor and beach volleyball, earning ACVA All-American Honors for the 2014 indoor season and winning the 2013 beach National Championship. She helped lead the 49ers to a 27-5 record and a perfect 16-0 mark in the Big West Conference during her senior campaign. After graduating, Henry continued her playing career professionally in the Philippines and Switzerland in 2015 and 2016.

A Redding, California, native, Henry studied kinesiology as an undergraduate student at Long Beach State before earning a master's in sports and exercise psychology from Argosy University in 2016 and a master's in education administration from Nebraska in 2017.

Henry and her husband John reside in Oxford with their children, Quinn, Jones and Brooks.
