

NORTHWESTERN VOLLEYBALL

MATCH NOTES | SEPT. 3 VS. ALABAMA | SEPT. 4 AT MISSISSIPPI STATE | STARKVILLE, MISS.

CHALLENGE AHEAD: Northwestern volleyball will play in the inaugural Big Ten/SEC Challenge this weekend in Starkville, Miss., facing Alabama in a neutral site match on Thursday afternoon before facing Mississippi State on Friday night.

- Northwestern is 2-1 against Alabama all-time, with the Crimson Tide taking the most recent meeting in 2003. All three previous meetings were also neutral site matchups.
- The 'Cats beat Mississippi State 3-1 in a neutral site meeting in 2001, the two teams' only previous matchup.
- Northwestern is 29-31 all-time against current SEC teams. (6-4 vs. Missouri, 1-8 vs. Texas, 5-2 vs. Tennessee, 4-2 vs. LSU, 3-3 vs. Kentucky, 3-2 vs. Ole Miss, 1-3 vs. Georgia, 0-4 vs. Florida, 2-1 vs. Alabama, 2-0 vs. South Carolina, 1-1 vs. Texas A&M, 1-1 vs. Oklahoma, 1-0 vs. Mississippi State, and 0-1 vs. Arkansas). Their most recent meeting with an SEC foe was in 2021 vs. Missouri.
- Northwestern went 10-2 last year in non-conference action, with losses to then-No. 20 Baylor and St. Thomas. The Wildcats' 10 non-conference wins were the team's most since 2022 (11).

WEEKEND REWIND: Northwestern began its season in Washington, D.C., where the 'Cats went 1-2 against George Mason, American and Georgetown last weekend.

- Mara Stiglic led the offense in her first weekend as a Wildcat, tallying 42 total kills and reaching double figures in each of the three matches.
- Bella Bullington began her sophomore season with a statement weekend. She tallied her first collegiate double-double against George Mason with 13 kills and 11 digs, then led the 'Cats in the sweep over Georgetown with 12 kills, nine digs and three service aces.
- First-year Ellie Stiernagle started every set at setter and racked up 111 assists. She recorded double-doubles in both of the first two matches with double-digit assists and digs.
- The 'Cats saw three hitters reach double-digits in both of their first two matches. In addition to Stiglic and Bullington, Campbell Paris recorded 12 kills against George Mason before leading the team against American with 15 more.

OLD HAUNTS: Three Wildcats began their careers at SEC schools: Campbell Paris and Gabrielle Gerry both spent two seasons at South Carolina before transferring to Northwestern ahead of the 2025 season, and Cate Schnell spent three years at Tennessee ahead of her transfer to Northwestern this past offseason. Paris fared well against Alabama as a Gamecock; in November of 2024, she hit a career-best .625 against the Crimson Tide, collecting 16 kills in 24 tries and committing just one error.

TRANSFER OF POWER: Junior outside hitter Mara Stiglic joined the Wildcats last winter after two seasons at Utah State, where she made a huge offensive impact. With nearly 600 kills across her first two seasons, Stiglic entered 2026 as the most prolific scorer on Head Coach Tim Nollan's squad. She racked up 37 matches with double-digit kills in Logan, including three 20-kill matches, and picked up right where she left off with three more double-digit performances last weekend. Her 42 kills ranked second in the Big Ten at the conclusion of the first weekend of play and lead all Wildcats heading into this weekend.

MORE NOTES...

THE SET-UP: After graduating both of last year's setters, Lauren Carter and Sienna Noordermeer, the 'Cats' roster features a pair of true first-years at the position in 2026. JVA Girls' All-National Team member and AVCA High School All-American Ellie Stiernagle is the first first-year to lead Northwestern at the setter position since Alexa Rousseau during the shortened 2020-21 season. Stiernagle made an immediate impact in her first weekend of collegiate action, racking up 111 assists and two double-doubles across the three matches. With just three matches under her belt, the Wheaton, Ill., native is already halfway to joining Northwestern's top-ten list of first-year assists in program history. In addition to the assists, Stiernagle also chipped in six kills, two aces and two blocks last weekend. Also new to the roster this season is first-year setter Kaitlyn Bodnar, who collected nearly 1,900 assists during her high school career in Nebraska.

BELLA B: Bella Bullington made her mark last season as a first-year, ranking third on the team in kills with 291. She's already stepping up in an even bigger role this year. After collecting her first career double-double in the opener against George Mason (13 kills, 11 digs) she followed up with two more strong performances, posting 15 kills at American and 12 at Georgetown, both of which led the team. Her 49.0 points in those three matches placed her third in the Big Ten in points through Aug. 31, and her 40 kills put her fourth in the conference. In addition to her attacking, Bullington was strong from the service line, setting a career high with three aces in the final match of the weekend. Her six total aces in Washington, D.C., match her total from all of last season. To round things out, she contributed four blocks and 27 digs.

SECOND EFFORT: This year's sophomore class for the Wildcats features three players who made instant impacts upon their arrivals in Evanston last season. At middle blocker, Kayla Kauffman led the 2025 'Cats with 98 blocks, tying Northwestern's first-year record. She also contributed 58 kills, working out to 1.30 points per set during her first season in Evanston. Bella Bullington also came up big as a first-year in 2025; her 291 kills ranked third on the roster last season and first among returning players this year. Her Wildcat tenure began with a bang during non-conference play last season, highlighted by an 18-kill performance against Cornell that saw her hit .708, which was the second-best mark in program history during a four-set match. Rounding out the group is libero Lauren Dignan, whose defense helped anchor the back row. One of three liberos on the team, she finished last season with 184 digs across 106 sets.

AT YOUR SERVICE: Northwestern finished last season first in the Big Ten and fourteenth in the NCAA in total aces, with 217. That was the team's most since at least 1993. While three of the top four players in aces graduated after the 2025 season, Head Coach Tim Nollan did welcome back Drew Wright, one of four 'Cats to eclipse the 30-ace mark last season. In addition, he welcomed in a pair of transfers who are both strong from the service line. Cate Schnell collected four multi-ace matches in limited action across two seasons at Tennessee, including a six-ace performance against Wofford last fall. Mara Stiglic served up 29 aces last season to rank third on the team at Utah State. Her 2025 included eight matches with two or more aces, including two four-ace performances. Nollan's first-years have also demonstrated promise in the category; most notably, setter Kaitlyn Bodnar racked up 96 aces across her final two seasons of high school volleyball, ranking third in her district in Nebraska in 2025.

FIRST CLASS: This year's first-year class is made up of six players - two middle blockers, two outside hitters and two setters - and is the first class at Northwestern to have been recruited fully under Head Coach Tim Nollan, who began his Wildcat tenure in February of 2024. The Northwestern volleyball class of 2030 includes two JVA Girls' All-National team members in Ellie Stiernagle and Maya Stillwell and three members of USA Volleyball Girls Junior National Championship teams: Stillwell (2024 U16 and 2026 U18 Open Division), Clara Schramm (2025 U17 National Division), and Simone Huarte (2023 U15 Patriot Division). This year's is the largest first-year class to join Northwestern since 2018.
