Series: Wake Forest leads, 2-0

Last Meeting: Sept. 10, 2023

Result: W, 3-0

Scouting the Bulldogs

- Mississippi State heads into Winston-Salem with a 4-1 record, highlighted by a pair of 3-1 wins over Iowa and Northwestern in the BIG 10/SEC Challenge over the weekend.
 - Junior Bernadita Aguilar recorded a 20-kill, 17-dig double-double, while sophomore Lindsey Mangelson logged 19 kills and 11 digs against the Hawkeyes.
 - The duo also combined for 32 kills in the win over the Wildcats.
- The Bulldogs are led offensively by Aguilar and Mangelson, who both have surpassed 50 kills on the season.
 - Aguilar leads the team with 76 kills while Mangelson has tallied 56 kills through the first five matches.
- Junior setter Cayley Hanson has totaled 185 assists over the opening five matches, including a combined 81 assists during the BIG 10/SEC Challenge.
 - Hanson is currently averaging 10.3 assists per set.
- Mississippi State has recorded 45 blocks this season, with five Bulldogs totaling double-digit blocks.
 - Junior Noella Obi leads the Bulldogs with 20 blocks this season.

Double-Double Machine

Senior Patrycja Lagida has been on an impressive run, having totaled three double-doubles this season. The Chotomow, Poland, native recorded her first double-double of the season in the win over Houston, finishing the match with 14 kills and 13 digs. Lagida carried that momentum into the Wake Forest Invitational as she recorded double-doubles in the first two matches of the tournament, tallying 16 kills and 14 digs against Davidson, and 15 kills and 15 digs in the win over UCF.

JEFF HULSMEYER
Head Coach

Jeff Hulsmeyer was named the 13th head coach of Wake Forest volleyball within program history on Jan. 9, 2025.

Hulsmeyer comes to DEACTOWN following 10 seasons at FSU, where he most recently helped guide the Seminoles to a ninth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. In each of the last two fall seasons (2023-24), Florida State has been consistently ranked within the American Volleyball Coaches Association's (AVCA) Top 25 Coaches Poll. Additionally, the team was crowned co-champions of the 2023 Atlantic Coast Conference Championship – a first such achievement for the program since 2012. Hulsmeyer handled several duties during his time with the Seminoles, including development of the team's setters, recruiting, scouting opponents in match preparation and handling the implementation of the team's training program. Florida State produced five seasons of 20-plus wins, along with 12 All-Americans, two ACC Player of the Year nods, an ACC Rookie of the Year and 31 All-ACC selections during Hulsmeyer's time in Tallahassee.

Hulsmeyer brings over three decades worth of coaching experience at the collegiate level. In addition to his time at Florida State, he previously was the offensive and recruiting coordinator of Kansas State's volleyball program for six years, following head coaching stints at both Georgetown College and Purdue University. The late 1990s involved him being an assistant coach at Illinois, preceded by three years apiece as head coach of Arkansas State and Western Kentucky, where he began his coaching journey as a graduate assistant for the latter.

At the helm of Arkansas State, Hulsmeyer captured three Sun Belt regular-season titles and two conference tournament championships. His personal accolades include two Sun Belt Coach of the Year awards, earning the honor in 1990 at Western Kentucky during his first season as a head coach and again, three years later, at Arkansas State in 1994. While leading Georgetown College, Hulsmeyer was named the Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year and Region XI Coach of the Year twice (2007-08).

Off the court, Hulsmeyer has helped a plethora of student-athletes succeed in the classroom. His tenure at Florida State involved 39 All-ACC Academic Team selections. Kansas State took home the USMC/AVCA Academic Team Award in five of Hulsmeyer's six seasons with the Wildcats. In 2001, during Hulsmeyer's third year, the Purdue volleyball team claimed the President's Cup – given to the university's sports program with the highest cumulative grade-point average. The Boilermakers also landed 19 Academic All-Big Ten picks during Hulsmeyer's four seasons.

TINA READLING

Triplette Family Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator

Tina Readling joined the Wake Forest coaching staff on Feb. 6, 2025. Holding over 15 years of experience at the collegiate level, Readling joins the Demon Deacons in the position of the Triplette Family Volleyball Assistant Coach.

From 2022-24, Readling spent time at Penn State, serving as Director of Operations for the Nittany Lions volleyball program. Her day-to-day planning, evaluation and relationship-building expertise all played a major part in Penn State going on to capture the 2024 NCAA Championship this past December.

Prior to her time at Penn State, Readling spent 10 seasons on the women's volleyball staff at Elon University. She was elevated to Associate Head Coach in 2015 after rejoining the Phoenix as an assistant coach in 2012. Elon won 128 matches during that stretch. Readling's final season in 2021 involved helping lead the team to a program-best 11-5 conference record in the Colonial Athletic Association, ultimately advancing to the championship match of the CAA tournament. Haylie Clark was tabbed the CAA Setter of the Year, joining Leah Daniel and Jenn Krzeminski as a Phoenix trio that earned All-CAA honors. Elon also led the CAA in team hitting percentage (.268) through conference play that same season.

Readling handled numerous responsibilities at Elon, serving six seasons as the recruiting coordinator, seven as the offensive coordinator and all 10 as the serving coach. She helped the Phoenix achieve numerous program firsts – including their first American Volleyball Coaches' Association (AVCA) All-American, first AVCA All-Region selection, first CAA Player of the Year and first CAA Rookie of the Year. In total, Elon racked up 10 All-CAA postseason honors during Readling's tenure while earning several CAA and COSIDA District III academic accolades.

Readling's collegiate coaching career began as a volunteer assistant at Elon in 2010, when the Phoenix won the SoCon North Division regular season title. The following year saw her spend a season at Duke, helping the Blue Devils reach the 2011 NCAA Tournament and producing three All-ACC players, in addition to the 2011 ACC Defensive Player of the Year, before she made a return to Elon.

Prior to her first stint with the Phoenix, Readling assisted locally with Carolina Region High Performance and Piedmont Volleyball Club, working with multiple age groups within the club volleyball scene. Additionally, she worked as the assistant volleyball director at the Greensboro Sportsplex.

SHERISA LIVINGSTON
Assistant Coach

Sherisa Livingston joined the Demon Deacons volleyball staff as an assistant coach on Feb. 18, 2025.

Livingston spent 2024 on the women's volleyball staff at Charlotte, entering the fold as an assistant coach before stepping into the interim head coach role in November. During the fall season, she primarily worked with the 49ers' middles and right-side hitters while coordinating team blocking and scheme, also assisting with all other player positions.

From 2020-23, Livingston led Radford University's volleyball program as head coach. Her leadership led to junior libero Shelby Hernandez being voted onto the VaSID All-State Second Team and representing Radford on the Big South All-Academic Team. Additionally, in her first season playing for Livingston, sophomore Sophie Paspal recorded the fifth-best attacking percentage in school history (.328).

Prior to her time at Radford, Livingston was an assistant volleyball coach at Winthrop (2018-19). Her tenure with the Eagles involved training student-athletes at the attack and blocking positions, as well as helping develop the team's offense. Livingston also aided the passer strategy, outlined game plans and dedicated time to the recruiting trail. Her efforts contributed to Winthrop winning the 2019 Big South Championship, its first since 2006, en route to earning an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. Additionally, she played a heavy role in developing Siani Yamaguchi, the 2019 Big South Player of the Year/Setter of the Year and conference tournament MVP.

In 2015, Livingston launched the women's volleyball program at the University of Antelope Valley, guiding the Pioneers for two seasons. Her career has also included stops at Tennessee Tech, Seattle University, and Nebraska, as she got her start in coaching as a volunteer assistant for the Cornhuskers in 2013.

A volleyball alum of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Livingston is one of the most decorated players in program history. Her four-year career with the Badgers from 1998-01 featured numerous accolades and achievements. Following her collegiate career, Livingston stepped into a journey of professional volleyball that took her across the globe – Puerto Rico, Greece, Spain, Turkey, Indonesia, Korea, Austria, Italy, Romania and The Netherlands. She split time playing as a middle blocker and right-side hitter from 2002-13 while also handling duties of representing teams and sports clubs, meeting with media members, participating in charity events and more.

PETER STEWART
Assistant Coach

Peter Stewart joined the program as an assistant coach on April 2, 2026.

Stewart comes to DEACTOWN after spending just over four years at Belmont Abbey College from November 2021 to March 2026, where he served as an assistant coach for the Crusaders' men's volleyball team. He played a key role in developing and recruiting student-athletes while also assisting with administrative duties and promotional items.

Belmont-Abbey enjoyed notable success during Stewart's time on campus, being crowned the Conference Carolinas champions in back-to-back seasons during 2024 and 2025 while also making the NCAA Division I Men's Volleyball quarterfinals those same seasons. Stewart helped a number of Crusaders attain individual accolades, combining for 18 all-conference selections, two All-Americans, 31 All-Academic picks, three Elite 23 Awards and numerous weekly honors.

Stewart has also spent time as a USA Volleyball coach since November 2021, having primarily worked with young athletes for the southern region while representing nationally. Within the travel scene, he has been involved with multiple amateur volleyball clubs and academies across the East Coast.

During his days as an undergraduate student at Florida State University, Stewart was a piece of the Seminoles' women's volleyball program from 2017-19 as a senior manager. His role happened alongside Coach Hulsmeyer, who was an assistant coach at Florida State from 2015-24. Stewart also served as president of the men's club volleyball team.

Stewart obtained a bachelor's degree in Marketing from Florida State in December 2019. Less than two years later, he graduated from Tusculum University with a Master of Business Administration. He competed for Tusculum's men's volleyball program as a team captain and was also a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) member.

Outside of his coaching responsibilities at Belmont-Abbey, Stewart also played a heavy part in the college's Make-A-Wish foundation. The Crusaders ranked top-five nationally among men's volleyball programs for their efforts and No. 1 in volunteer hours.

2025 (Freshman)

Played as a consistent spark on both sides of the ball during her first collegiate season... Appeared in 29 matches (93 sets) and made seven starts... Ranked fourth on the roster in kills (149) and blocks (56.0)... Had a breakout performance versus Maryland during the team's first home weekend (Sept. 14), going off for 10 kills on 13 attacks with only one error that resulted in a .692 attacking percentage - the highest by any Demon Deacon with double-digit attempts in fall 2025... Followed up that showing with 12 kills and five blocks at East Carolina (Sept. 16)... Caught fire in her attacks during the non-conference finale at Old Dominion (Sept. 20), going 13-for-20 with two errors (.550)... Went 10-for-16, committing only one error (.563), in a four-set home win over Notre Dame (Nov. 7)... Reached a season-high 14 kills, with a .414 hitting clip and three blocks, at Syracuse (Nov. 14), helping begin a three-match road win streak... Recorded five blocks four times - her highest single-match total of the year
