Kylee Owens (2024) [Honorable Mention]

Lindsay joined the Tigers in 2025 after leading Prairie View A&M to back-to-back 13-3 records in SWAC play.

Cheri Lindsay was named as the 10th head coach in Memphis Volleyball program history on January 29, 2025, announced by Senior Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics, Ed Scott, Ph. D.

Lindsay comes to Memphis after spending the previous two seasons as the head coach of her alma mater, Prairie View A&M. She led the Lady Panthers to a 36-29 overall record with a 26-6 record in conference play over the past two seasons.

During the 2024 season, Lindsay's Lady Panthers finished with a 13-3 record in Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) play, reaching the quarterfinals of the conference tournament. Three of Lindsay's athletes, Kylee Owens, Janyah Henderson and Leah Lawson all were named to postseason conference teams. Under Lindsay's guidance, Owens was also recognized as the SWAC Player of the Year, in addition to being named as an honorable mention on the AVCA All-American and All-Southwest Region teams.

In her first season as the head coach at Prairie View A&M, Lindsay led the Tigers to a 19-13 record, also going 13-3 in league play. The Lady Panthers reached the semifinals in her first season at the helm, with Owens, Henderson and Lawson earning conference honors with Henderson also being named the SWAC Freshman of the Year.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Lindsay was the head coach of the East Central University Lady Tigers. In her three seasons at East Central, she set multiple new milestones after inheriting a program that had gone 2-29 the season prior to Lindsay's arrival. Her first season at East Central in 2020 culminated in the program's first postseason appearance since 2013. Under Lindsay's tutelage in 2021, the Lady Tigers recorded their first winning season in program history and set program records for the most wins in a season (15) and the longest winning streak of nine matches. The 2022 season saw similar success for Lindsay's Lady Tigers, as they tied the single season wins record of 15, with Lindsay being named the Oklahoma Coaches Association (OCA) Coach of the Year.

Her additional coaching experience includes serving as the associate head coach at Seattle University (2018-20), head coach at Bethany College (2015-18) and assistant coach at Tiffin University (2012-14). At Bethany College, Lindsay also served as the Assistant Athletic Director and an adjunct professor in the School of Business and Athletics. While at Tiffin, she also was an advisor of the Student African American Sisterhood of Excellence.

Lindsay had a successful playing career as a member of the Prairie View A&M Lady Panthers from 2008-11. A three-time First Team All-SWAC selection, she recorded over 1,300 kills and 1,000 digs.

A Denver, Colo., native, Lindsay earned a bachelor's degree in communications studies from Prairie View A&M University in 2011, a Master's in Business Administration from Tiffin University in 2013 and is currently pursuing her doctorate in Sports Psychology from Prairie View A&M University.
