Tina (Burcham) Seals, who during her collegiate career became one of Mississippi State University's first standout volleyball performers, is in her fifth season as head coach of MSU's Volleyball Bulldogs.

Seals joined the Mississippi State University Athletic Department staff in March 2004, becoming the ninth head coach in the history of State's 34-year old volleyball program.

Over the course of four seasons, the Florence, Ala., native has engineered an impressive resurgence in the Mississippi State volleyball program, guiding State to back-to-back winning campaigns in 2005 and 2006 while climbing the ladder as one of MSU volleyball's most successful coaches.

Seals' State teams have compiled a 58-58 mark, tying or setting school records for conference wins in three of her four seasons while establishing the school mark for home court wins.

In 2004, her first season at the MSU helm, Seals guided the Bulldogs to a 14-16 worksheet, an 11-win gain over the 2003 edition and one of the program's biggest season-to-season turnarounds. That '03 team, projected for a last place SEC finish, tied a school record with five league wins and finished tied for eighth in the overall SEC standings, just missing a berth in the eight-team field of the SEC tournament. That MSU team, climbed 111 spots to a No. 156 final national ranking by RichKern.com.

Seals' 2005 edition climbed further up the ladder, posting a 15-12 worksheet, the program's seventh winning campaign in 31 seasons and only its second in 13 seasons. Along the way the Bulldogs established a school record with six SEC wins and earned the school's first berth in the SEC Tournament since qualification standards were put in place following the 1998 season.

During the 2005 season RichKern.com ranked the Bulldogs as high as No. 66 --- the highest in-season national ranking ever for a Mississippi State volleyball. After spending much of the year ranked in the top 100, State finished the year at No. 111, also a school-best. The '06 Bulldogs begin the year with a Pablo system ranking of No. 77.

State's success story continued in 2006 when the Bulldogs raced to a 10-1 started en route to a 17-13 finish, the most wins in program history since 1996. State again set the school standard for conference wins, registering eight victories in rugged league competition. MSU swept a pair of SEC series (vs. Mississippi and South Carolina) for just the second time in school history and closed out the season with a program-first win over SEC West power and 2006 NCAA Tournament entrant Arkansas. That season-ending win at home was MSU's school-record 10th.

Injuries impeded the Bulldogs' progress in 2007, but Mississippi State still managed to register season series sweeps of divisional foes Arkansas and Auburn and notch its first win over SEC East power Tennessee since 1996.

Seals has maintained an emphasis on academic excellence during her coaching tenure at MSU. The number of Bulldog players represented on the annual SEC Academic Honor Roll has climbed in each of Seals' first four seasons at State, including a school-record nine selections in 2007-08. Including five first-year players featured on the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll, 14 of State's 15 rostered players earned academic all-conference plaudits last year.

Prior to coming to MSU Seals enjoyed a highly-successful 12-year run as volleyball coach at Northwest-Shoals Community College in Muscle Shoals, Ala.

A native of Florence, Ala., she launched her coaching career at Northwest-Shoals C.C. in 1992, the inaugural year for the sport at NW-SCC. She quickly built the program into a perennial power in the Alabama junior college ranks, compiling a remarkable 444-137 record (.764) in 12 seasons.

Seals' first team posted a 28-12 record and finished runner-up in Alabama. Her teams won 30 or more matches over the next 11 seasons. In 12 seasons the Patriots claimed seven state junior college titles and took runner-up honors four times. Her last five teams concluded play with top 20 rankings, including the 2000 edition that posted a 47-9 record and a school-highest No. 2 national ranking.

Seals guided the Patriots to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division I or Division II national volleyball tournament seven times during her term there. And she directed NW-SCC to top 10 national rankings in three of her last five seasons at Northwest-Shoals.

Eight players coached by Seals at NW-SCC were accorded All-America team accolades while 10 of her players also earned Academic All-America team honors.

Seals' accomplishments did not go unnoticed. She was honored as the Tachikara/AVCA Regional Coach of the Year in 1999, 2000 and 2002 and seven times was recognized as the Alabama Junior College Coach of the Year. During her term at NW-SCC Seals tutored nearly 50 players advanced their volleyball careers with athletic scholarships at four-year colleges and universities.

Seals signed a volleyball scholarship with Mississippi State University in 1981 following a stellar prep career at Bradshaw High School, where she was a three-sport athlete. She earned all-state honors in volleyball and also competed in basketball and on the BHS track team.

She was recruited to Mississippi State by coach Gina Jacobellis and played her first two seasons at MSU for coach Lynn Keiser (1981 and 1982). Seals concluded her playing career competing her final two seasons for coach Vivian Langley, becoming one of MSU's initial four-year letter winners in volleyball. She served as team captain in 1982, 1983 and 1984.

Following her sophomore season she was selected to play for the touring

Athletes in Action volleyball team that competed in China and Japan in the summer of 1983. The successful AIA Asian tour helped advance her career and set the stage for a career-best senior season at Mississippi State in 1984, a campaign in which she paced the Bulldogs with 387 kills and a .316 hitting percentage, still the fourth-best single season hitting mark in 33 seasons of State volleyball. For her exploits Seals was accorded first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a senior, becoming the first Mississippi State player to earn such distinction.

The MSU standout was also a member of the MSU softball team during her college career, earning a varsity letter as an outfielder in 1983.

Seals got her first taste of coaching as an undergraduate assistant on Langley's MSU volleyball staff in 1985 team before earning a bachelor's degree in civil engineering in 1987.

Following graduation she worked four years as an engineer with the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA). Her involvement with volleyball continued during that span when she formed and directed a club volleyball program in Muscle Shoals. She later earned her master's degree in math education at the University of North Alabama in 1994.

Seals has been active in the development of youth volleyball throughout her career. She founded the Golden Triangle Volleyball Club and the Mississippi State Juniors Club in 2004 and has also been a guiding force behind the establishment of summer youth volleyball camps on the MSU campus. USA Volleyball honored Seals in 2008 for her efforts to promote club volleyball with a Robert L. Lindsay Meritorious Service Award for the USVBA Delta Region.

During her MSU volleyball playing career she met and married Tony Seals, a native of Winfield, Ala., and a 1986 graduate of Mississippi State University. They are the parents of a daughter, Tracey Marie, a senior at Starkville High School. The Seals also serve as a host family for Takatoshi Sato, an international exchange student from Fukuyama, Japan.

New York native Don Perkins is in his second year as a member of the Volleyball Bulldog coaching staff, joining Tina Seals' MSU volleyball team as an assistant coach in July 2007.

Perkins, 29, has 15 years of volleyball experience under his belt as both a player and as a coach. He joined the MSU staff in 2007 after serving for one season as head women's volleyball coach at The State University of New York Institute of Technology in Albany, N.Y. A native of East Greenbush, N.Y., Perkins was also instrumental in the implementation of the SUNYIT's first men's volleyball program.

At Mississippi State Perkins works primarily with Mississippi State's outside hitters and the Bulldogs' SEC-leading serving game. He also coordinates MSU's recruiting efforts and oversees team travel and scheduling, the team's tape exchange program and opponent scouting.

Perkins is a 2000 graduate of Syracuse University in New York, where he competed on SU volleyball club teams that captured three consecutive league championships. He earned his undergraduate degree in political science in three years before earning a master's degree in public administration from The University at Albany's Rockefeller School of Public Affairs.

He previously served for three seasons as head coach with the North Country Albany Juniors Volleyball Club, helping guide the 17-and-under team to a second place finish in the 2005 regional championships. While with NCAJ, Perkins founded and served as tournament director of the Great Nor'easter Tournament, one of the top club volleyball events in the Northeast.

Prior to his work with NCAJ, Perkins served from 2001 to 2003 as head coach and club director of the University of Albany Men's Volleyball Club. He guided his 2003 edition to the NIRSA National Championship Tournament. Perkins also worked with the University of Albany women's volleyball team, one of the region's top NCAA Division I teams.

Perkins, who also previously coached the Georgetown University men's volleyball club, began coaching women's volleyball in 2001, serving as assistant coach and offensive coordinator at the Sage Junior College of Albany.

The MSU assistant has also worked extensively with USA Volleyball, first as the director of High Performance Programs for the Iroquois Empire Region and as an evaluator and court coach for the USA Youth and Junior National team tryouts. In 2008 he served on the staff of the USA Volleyball High Performance Pipeline camp in Austin, Texas.

Perkins' coaching history also includes a stint as an assistant coach with the Adirondack Region Men's and Girl's Empire State Games in 2003 and 2005 respectively. Additionally, he has served as camp instructor and clinician at volleyball camps at the University of Florida, University of Texas, the University of Albany and the University of Pennsylvania as well as Mississippi State University.

Perkins, who is single, enjoys film and traveling.

Coach Don Perkins

ASSISTANT COACH

Beginning her first season on the Mississippi State volleyball coaching staff Lindsay Shondell.

A native of Muncie, Ind., Shondell joined the MSU volleyball coaching staff as an assistant coach in January 2008 after serving in 2007 as an assistant volleyball coach at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala.

At Mississippi State, Shondell oversees the training of Bulldog setters and coordinates the team defense. She also assists with the operations of the MSU volleyball skills camps, works with team travel and opponent scouting, practice planning and MSU volleyball alumni relations.

At Samford, Shondell helped direct coach Michelle Durban's Bulldogs to 16-13 finish, the first winning campaign at SU in 20 seasons.

The MSU assistant coach is a 2007 graduate of Purdue University, where she earned a bachelor's degree in sociology/anthropology with a minor in communication. While at Purdue she was a three-year regular as a setter, helping lead the Boilermakers to NCAA Volleyball Tournament appearances in three consecutive seasons. Both the 2005 and the 2006 Purdue volleyball editions advanced to the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen.

Shondell has an extensive background in club volleyball as both a player and a coach as well as with volleyball instructional camps and clinics. She began her club volleyball career with the Asics Munciana Volleyball Club in Muncie, playing on teams from 1990 to 2002.

Prior to launching her coaching career at Samford, she served as an assistant on coach Mike Lingenfelter's 18-Elite Asics Munciana Volleyball Club. She also worked as a court coach from 1999 to 2002 under Dr. Don Shondell on the 12-and-under training program for the Muncie club. She served as head coach of the 13-Elite team at the Raider Volleyball Club in West Lafayette, Ind., after directing the 12-Elite RVC teams in both 2004 and 2005. Additionally, she served as an instructor in the volleyball camps at Purdue from 2003 to 2005.

Shondell prepped at Muncie (Ind.) Central High School, where she was a four-year regular as a setter on the MCHS volleyball team from 1998 to 2001. As a freshman and sophomore she played on teams that captured the state volleyball championships and capped her prep career earning all-state honors as a junior and senior. She signed with Cal-State Fullerton following her prep career before transferring to Purdue in 2003.

Shondell, who serves as an instructor at satellite volleyball camps throughout the region, enjoys reading and writing poetry in her spare time.

SUPPORT STAFF

Dana Blount

Academic Counselor
(Tuskegee University, 1997)

Providing academic guidance and counseling for the Volleyball Bulldogs is Dana Blount, beginning her first year on the athletics department staff at Mississippi State University as an academic counselor.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas; Blount joined the MSU staff in June 2008 after working as an assistant athletic academic counselor at The Ohio State University. While working there, she also completed her master's degree in African American Studies. She obtained her bachelor's degree from Tuskegee University in History.

Blount also serves as academic counselor for MSU men's and women's cross country/track and field and soccer teams.

Midge Davis

Office Associate
(Williams Baptist College, 1980)

Tending to the countless administrative tasks associated with the Volleyball Bulldogs and the MSU coaching staff is Midge Davis, in her first year on the Mississippi State University Athletics Department staff.

In addition to her administrative duties with volleyball, she also serves in a similar capacity with MSU soccer and both the men's and women's golf programs at State.

A native of Mantachie, Miss., Davis earned an associate degree at Williams Baptist College in Walnut Ridge, Ark.

She previously served for 14 years as an administrative assistant at East Central Community College in Decatur, Miss. She is married to Gene Davis, Dean of Continuing Education at East Central Community College, and they are the parents of a son, Blake, a senior at the University of Southern Mississippi.

Ann Carr

Senior Assoc. A.D./SWA
(Mississippi State University, 1990)

A 15-year veteran in athletic administration at MSU and a former Lady Bulldog athlete, Ann Carr serves as senior associate athletics director and senior women's administrator.

Carr is in her second stint with the Mississippi State athletic department. She served for seven years as Assistant Athletic Director for Student Life, working with the personal development of MSU's student-athletes in addition to responsibilities as academic counselor for the Bulldog football team.

She was named associate athletic director for women's sports in June 2006 and was elevated to her current position in June 2008.

Carr serves as the director of the department's Life Skills program, which includes the support systems and career programs for all MSU student-athletes, and its CHAMPS program (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success).

As SWA, Carr oversees the operation and the supervision of State's nine athletics teams for women and serves as the direct departmental liaison with the Bulldog volleyball team. Hired in 1993 as an assistant director in the athletic academic office, she returned full-time to the department in 1999 following a one-year stay in a similar capacity at the University of Southern Mississippi.

A native of Brookhaven, Miss., Carr was a four-year letter winner on the Mississippi State women's basketball team (1986-90), where she concluded her career ranked among MSU's all-time leaders in an array of statistical categories.

Carr, a 1990 graduate of State, also earned her master's degree in counseling at MSU in 1992.

Joe Dier

Media Relations Contact
(Mississippi State University, 1975)

Overseeing the publicity needs of the Volleyball Bulldogs is Joe Dier, who this year begins his 23rd year on the Mississippi State Athletic Department staff and his 13th as the primary media relations contact for the Bulldog volleyball program and Mississippi State baseball.

Dier, 55, has been affiliated with Mississippi State athletics since 1978. A 1975 graduate of Mississippi State University, Dier followed the late Bob Hartley and Bo Carter as MSU's third full-time sports information director in November 1986, initially serving as the primary media contact for all 15 Mississippi State sports.

He served as media coordinator for MSU-hosted NCAA regional baseball tournaments in 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1992 and for MSU's 1991 Liberty Bowl football team. In 1992 Dier began a four-year term as editor of the weekly athletic department publication Dawgs' Bite, returning to sports information work in July 1996.

Born in Baton Rouge, La., Dier is the son of a career Air Force chaplain and traveled extensively with his family to military assignments in Washington, British Columbia, Oregon, Alabama, Florida, Okinawa, Mississippi and Alaska.

He is married to the former Kim Monroe of Starkville, a teacher in the Starkville public schools, and they are the parents of a son, Reed Burton, age 17, a senior at Starkville High School.
