GAME 10: MISSISSIPPI STATE

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI STATE:

Mississippi State enters the weekend with an 8-1 record, and off a dominant 79-44 win over Pittsburgh on Thursday night in the ACC/SEC challenge. Destiny McPhaul's career high of 22 points led the Bulldogs offensively but it was the defense that highlighted the win. The Mississippi State defense held Pitt to 22% shooting from the floor (13-59) and forced 18 turnovers which led to 23 MSST points.

Madison Francis has protected the paint for the Bulldogs with 28 blocked shots on the season, leading the SEC and ranking third in the NCAA. Chandler Prater has been efficient at the free throw line, shooting 87.9% to rank ninth in the conference. McPhaul (12.8), Francis (11.8) and Favour Nwaedozi (11.7) all average double figures in scoring.

Under Head Coach Sam Purcell, State is 45-6 in regular season non-conference play and inside Humphrey Coliseum, the Bulldogs are 27-1 in regular season non-conference play with the only loss coming in Purcell's second season against Miami, where only seven players were available for the game.

CHARLOTTE VS. POWER FOUR:

Six of Charlotte's 10 matchups this season have been Power Four schools, with Mississippi State being the sixth. In the first five games of the 2025-26 season, four of Charlotte's games were P4 schools, the most to begin a season in a five-game stretch in program history. Charlotte fell short to Auburn in overtime, outlasted UCF on the road, were defeated by 5th ranked LSU and unranked Cal on the road, and dropped a nine-point contest to Oklahoma State in the Cayman Classic.

Before the win at UCF, Charlotte's last P4 win came at Wake Forest during the 2023-24 campaign when Charlotte won 69-58 inside Lawrence-Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Charlotte also defeated Wake Forest and Boston College in the 2019-20 season. Wisconsin (Big 10) and Pittsburgh (ACC) were two key P4 wins for Charlotte during the 2016-17 season. In 2012-13, During the 2010-11 postseason WNIT, Charlotte picked up two SEC wins over Florida, South Carolina, and Virginia on their journey to the semifinals. Charlotte picked up a win over TCU for a Big 12 victory, also defeating Texas A&M in 2002-03 while the Aggies were members of the Big 12.

UPSET BID COMES UP SHORT:

Charlotte pushed SEC foe Auburn to overtime in the season opener, a game that saw nine ties and six lead changes. Karen Nimo came off the bench and scored 13 points in the first half (17 for the game) in her first NCAA game after one season of JUCO and just one year of high school basketball, just beginning organized basketball her senior year. Daphane White returned to action after missing two years due to injury. In just 10 minutes of action in her debut, she scored eight points while making four of her five field goal attempts.

CRASH THE GLASS

Charlotte grabbed 32 offensive rebounds versus Campbell, which was good for third best in program history for a single game. Charlotte's 57 total rebounds were tied for the most in a game since the 2018-19 season. Nicholson led the way for Charlotte, coming up with seven offensive rebounds. All 11 players for Charlotte that saw action grabbed at least one rebound.

GAME OF RUNS

A 19-0 scoring run from the end of the first quarter to midway through the second quarter fueled Charlotte's win over UCF. Princess Anderson attacked the basket throughout the afternoon, hitting 14 of her 18 free throw attempts, while Karen Nimo, Zoe Best, and Tanajah Hayes all scored timely buckets to seal the win.

Charlotte was trailing Oakland 19-16 in the early stages of the second quarter but rattled off a 32-10 scoring run into the late stages of the third quarter taking a commanding 48-29 lead. Charlotte's lead grew to as much as 25 points in the consolation game of the Raising The B.A.R. Invitational.

Charlotte used a 15-4 first quarter advantage, and ending the game on an 11-0 scoring run after the game was tied 50-50. Tanajah Hayes' veteran leadership helped get Charlotte to the finish line in the fourth quarter, as her driving layup reclaim the lead 52-50. A possession later, two offensive rebounds from Imani Smith and Princess Anderson led to a three-pointer from Hayes. Leading 56-50, Zoe Best found an open Anderson to connect for her fifth made three-pointer of the evening, highlighting the 11-0 run Charlotte went on to close the game out by a score of 61-50.

COACH'S CORNER

"We did not play with good energy in the Cayman Islands," said Tomekia Reed. "We wanted the team to relax and focus on the business, but we did not play with urgency. This team is struggling to put four quarters together. For me, that means having energy and enthusiasm while on the floor. Ja'Navia played better vs. George Washington to lead the post, but it's going to take more than one player. When we take punches, we must fight back and get better going forward."

"Taliah was locked in and brought the energy and effort," said Reed. "She got us going on the offensive end and as the season has progressed, she continues to get better and gain confidence."

"Oklahoma State was a game we could have won," Reed said. "We did not get enough from our post players and were forced to play a smaller lineup. They played with heart. Our guards stepped in at spots undersized and helped us get into the game. We must play tougher going forward. Tanajah Hayes, Zoe Best, and Princess Anderson are players the program depends on and they delivered vs OKST. They came out slow but woke up as the game went along and gave us everything they had. They understood what we expected of them and it was good to see them come alive."

GAME 10: MISSISSIPPI STATE

CHARLOTTE PLAYERS TO WATCH:

Asianae Nicholson averaged a double double with 12.8 points per game and 12.0 rebounds per game for Bethune-Cookman last season. At the end of the season, she was named an HBCU All-American and to the All-SWAC Second Team. She ranked second in the entire NCAA for double doubles (22) and led the SWAC in rebounds with 367. Through four games with Charlotte, Nicholson is averaging seven offensive rebounds per game to lead the NCAA.

Princess Anderson is leading Charlotte averaging 14.9 points per game, ranking fourth in the American. She's fourth in the conference with 27 made free throws. After being held scoreless in the season opener vs. Auburn, Princess Anderson scored 26, 26, and 27 points in three consecutive games while making 24 of her 31 free throw attempts (77.4%) and 34.6% from behind the arc (9-26). (vs Campbell, at UCF, at LSU)

Zoe Best impressed in 2024-25 with SEMO, winning the Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year after averaging 14.1 points per game and 5.1 rebounds per game. Best scored double figures in 21 of her 28 games played including six 20+ point performances. Best's signature performance as a Charlotte 49er thus far came in the win over Oakland when she scored 19 points, grabbed 8 rebounds, and made 5 threes to earn a spot on the Raising The B.A.R. All-Tournament team. She has scored in double figures in 5 consecutive games, scoring 18 points vs. Oklahoma State to be named to the Cayman Classic All-Tournament team.

Charlotte native Tanajah Hayes earned a spot on the American Conference Players of the Week Honorable Mention list after leading the 49ers to a win over the Wofford Terriers. The senior captain scored 16 points, dished out seven assists, and grabbed five rebounds in an all-around great performance. This season, Hayes is second in the conference with 47 assists and averaging 5.2 per game.

Ja'Navia Gage transferred to Charlotte after a standout season at Gulf Coast State (JUCO) where she earned Honorable Mention All-American recognition. She averaged 12 points per game on an efficient 56% shooting from the floor. Gage's 12.9 rebounds per game ranked fifth in the nation. Her best game as a 49er so far this season came vs. George Washington when she recorded a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Daphane White, after missing the last two seasons due to injury, has returned to the lineup this season earning four starts. She played a season high 20 minutes in the loss to Cal and has scored in eight of nine games. Her season high of 8 points came in the opener vs. Auburn and matched that total vs. George Washington.

LOOKING AHEAD:

Following the away contest at Mississippi State, Charlotte will conclude non-conference play hosting Davidson (Dec. 14), Winthrop (Dec. 17), and ETSU (Dec. 21) leading to American Conference play when they'll host Memphis (Dec. 31) and UAB (Jan. 3) to highlight a 5-game homestand.

FIRST POINTS:

Taliah Cornish scored her first NCAA Division I points in the loss at LSU, hitting a pair of three-pointers off the bench, logging 14 minutes. Cornish played a season-high 18 minutes in the win over Oakland, scoring five points and dishing out six assists. She set a career-high of 14 points in the loss to George Washington, knocking down 6 of her 11 field goals in just 14 minutes of action.

Lucy Henderson found her way into the box score in the loss to #24 Oklahoma State, scoring five points including a three-pointer. McKenzie Graves made her Charlotte 49ers debut in the win over Oakland also, playing the final two minutes and knocking down a free throw to score her first career points in the college ranks.

GEORGE WASHINGTON RECAP:

George Washington took advantage of their open looks, shooting 54% from the floor and 38.9% on three-pointers. Four Revolutionaries scored in double figures led by 18 from Gabby Reynolds who made all three of her attempts from behind the arc. Free throw discrepancy favored George Washington, finishing the game 20-25 compared to 6-8 for Charlotte.

Hot shooting in the first quarter lifted George Washington to an early lead, making 8 of their 11 field goals including four three-pointers. Zoe Best kept the 49ers in the game by draining a pair of threes as well as four points in the paint by Daphane White.

Charlotte's defense turned the intensity up in the second quarter as George Washington missed all five of their threes, however, Charlotte struggled to find an offensive rhythm themselves as they shot 25% from the floor (4-16) and missed their five three-point attempts as well. Going into halftime, the 49ers trailed 38-28.

Taliah Cornish provided a spark off the bench in the second half, scoring 10 points on an efficient 4-8 shooting paired with two assists to finish with 14 points total. Cornish's scoring was complemented by Karen Nimo and Ja'Navia Gage in the third quarter as the trio combined for 10 of Charlotte's 21 points in the quarter to go into the fourth trailing 56-49.

Gage's presence continued to be felt as the fourth quarter began, tipping in a missed driving layup by Imani Smith in the opening seconds. After a defensive stop, Princess Anderson attacked the basket and earned the and-one opportunity, quickly trimming the deficit to 56-55 in the first minute of the quarter.

Emma Theodorsson answered with back-to-back threes to stretch George Washington's lead back to seven. That would be as close as Charlotte would get, as the Revolutionaries led wire-to-wire on their way to the 81-67 victory.

HEAD COACH TOMEKIA REED

2ND SEASON • ALMA MATER: GEORGIA SOUTHWESTERN '03

Tomekia Reed enters her second year at the helm of Charlotte 49ers Women's Basketball. Reed was named the ninth head women's basketball coach in program history April 25th, 2024. Reed, a three-time HBCU National Coach of the Year, came to Charlotte following a highly successful six-year stint as head coach of the Jackson State Tigers.

In year one with Charlotte, the 49ers went 11-21 while ending the season on a high-note by making a run to the American Conference Tournament Quarterfinals. Charlotte became the second 12th seed in American Conference history to reach the quarterfinals.

Reed took the program to new heights by winning five consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) regular season titles and three SWAC tournament titles, including back-to-back championships in 2021 and 2022.

In making the program's second straight appearance in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, and the first as a #14 seed, JSU led in the fourth quarter in nearly achieving a historic tournament win over #3 LSU. JSU made its return to the NCAA Tournament as a #14 seed again to face #3 UConn in 2024, where Reed won the respect of hall of fame coach Geno Auriemma.

Reed is a four-time SWAC Coach of The Year (2020, 2022, 2023, 2024). The 2020 championship was the first regular season crown for JSU since 2008, and the 2021 tournament championship earned the first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2008.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"I'm so excited that Tomekia Reed has been named the head coach at Charlotte. After coaching against her team, I came away super impressed with how hard they work and how disciplined they are. Congrats to Coach Reed and to Charlotte for reaching out of the box and getting a terrific coach."

Geno Auriemma: University of Connecticut Women's Basketball Head Coach

"Charlotte got a great hire in Tomekia Reed. She is going to be a great advocate for her student-athletes. She is a great basketball mind and uniter of the community. Being this close to Charlotte, I will be paying close attention to her success."

Dawn Staley: University of South Carolina Women's Basketball Head Coach
