FAST BREAK POINTS

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

Currently on a seven-game winning streak, Mississippi State has won all but one of their games this season with an average margin of victory of over 25. The Bulldogs defeated the Alabama State Hornets on Wednesday night, 105-57, their biggest blowout this season. In their only other true road game this year, they fell at the hands of Texas Tech in Lubbock on November 20, 69-62.

Junior forward Favour Nwaedozi leads the team in PPG (14.1) and RPG (10.3) while shooting a team-high 61.1% from the field. Freshman forward Madison Francis leads the nation in blocks with 40, including seven against Charlotte. She also scored a career-high 30 points against Alabama State.

Sam Purcell, now in his fourth season as head coach of the Mississippi State women's basketball program, has led the Bulldogs to multiple 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances. Purcell guided Mississippi State back to the Big Dance twice in his first three years and previously spent nine seasons at Louisville, helping the Cardinals to multiple Final Four runs under head coach Jeff Walz.

ALL-TIME MATCHUP

THE KI TO SUCCESS

On Monday, Kiara Williams was awarded her first Big 5 Rookie of the Week award following her impressive game at UMES. The redshirt freshman tallied 11 points to go along with 6 rebounds, 3 steals, and 3 blocks. She followed that performance up with 12 points, 7 rebounds, 4 assists, 2 blocks, and a steal in another stat-sheet stuffing performance.

CONNOR KEEPS CREATING

Ashleigh Connor set a new career-high in assists in three consecutive games against VCU, Penn, and UMES, with six, seven, and eight respectively. The redshirt junior averages 1.4 assists more than she did last season and currently ranks second in the conference in assists per game (4.5).

AA BATTERY

EXPLORERS' BLOCK PARTY

The team averages 4.7 blocks per contest, ranking second in the Atlantic 10 and representing over a 200% increase over last season. Amiya Moses leads the way, averaging 1.3 blocks per game. Moses and Kiara Williams combined for 7 of the team's blocks at UMES.

THE Q FACTOR

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH
MOUNTAIN MACGILLIVRAY

Mountain MacGillivray, a Philadelphia native who helped guide Quinnipiac University to seven straight 20-win seasons and a 2017 NCAA Sweet 16 appearance, was named the ninth head coach in La Salle women's basketball history in April 2018.

Since his arrival, MacGillivray has led the Explorers to steady growth, highlighted by a 16-12 record in 2021-22 — the program's best season of his tenure. That year's 9-6 mark in Atlantic 10 play was La Salle's highest since 1996-97, earning the Explorers the No. 5 seed in the A-10 Championship, their best ever. In 2019-20, his second season, La Salle opened 6-1 for its best start since 2006, doubled its win total from the previous year, and defeated Penn State for the program's first Power Five win since 2015.

Under MacGillivray's guidance, standout players such as Kayla Spruill and Claire Jacobs etched their names in the record book. Spruill ranks fifth all-time in scoring (1,629) and first in threes made (221), earning All-A10 honors three times, while Jacobs sits sixth in scoring (1,496) and third in threes (190).

Before La Salle, MacGillivray spent nine seasons at Quinnipiac, including three as associate head coach. The Bobcats made four NCAA Tournaments in his final five years, winning four league titles and reaching the Sweet 16 in 2017. Known for his recruiting and player development, he helped produce 18 All-Conference honorees and multiple Defensive Players of the Year. His earlier stops included assistant coaching roles at New Hampshire and Vermont, where he helped guide the Catamounts to the NCAA Tournament.

A 1996 Temple graduate, MacGillivray began his coaching career in the Philadelphia high school and AAU circuits, notably with Archbishop Carroll, Lady Running Rebels, and Delaware Valley Comets. He and his wife, Grace, live in the Philadelphia area with their eight children.

INFORMATION

JOHN E. GLASER ARENA
HOME OF THE EXPLORERS

The recently renovated John E. Glaser Arena is located on the third floor of the La Salle Athletic Center on the campus of La Salle University in Philadelphia, PA. The arena houses the school's basketball and acrobatics & tumbling teams.

The arena originally opened under the name "Tom Gola Arena." Tom Gola won a National Championship with the Explorers in 1954 and is the NCAA's all-time leading rebounder to this day.

February 21, 1998 would mark the first time La Salle would play basketball on campus since leaving (still-standing) Wister Hall in 1955, Tom Gola's senior season. La Salle's men's team defeated Virginia Tech by a final score of 74-64.

The arena underwent major renovations prior to the 2024-25 season which included updates to lighting, seating orientation, and the playing surface. These improvements provided a modern home for the La Salle men's and women's basketball programs.

John E. Glaser Arena has a seating capacity of 3000, providing an intimate but energetic environment for fans. The arena features modern amenities including updated locker rooms and a video scoreboard, ensuring a high-level experience for players and spectators.

The first game played post-renovation came on November 4, 2024, when the La Salle men's team defeated American by
