TIPPING OFF

LAST TIME OUT
» Mississippi State moved to 2-0 on the year with a dominating offensive performance, taking down UT Martin, 114-68.
» This marked the most points scored by a Bulldog team on the road in program history and was the fifth-best scoring performance in program history.
» The Bulldogs shot 60 percent from the floor and 50 percent from beyond the arch in the contest.
» Favour Nwaedozi collected her fifth-straight double-double spanning back to 2025-26 with 21 points and 14 rebounds. She only missed one of her 10 shot attempts on the evening.
» Cali Smallwood dropped 17 points and went 4-6 from distance in the contest. In the second quarter, she knocked down a triple in three consecutive possesions.
» Reese Beaty earned her first career double-double with 12 points, a career-high 10 assists and three steals.
» Tootie Lockett collected 15 points off the bench on 6-9 shooting.
» Macie Phifer, Grace Ndubueze, Aryss Macktoon and Melissa Guillet all finished with eight points.

DUALITY OF THE DAWGS
» Through State's first two games, the Bulldogs have shown their ability to play on both ends of an offensive and defensive slugfest.
» In the season opener against North Alabama, defense reigned supreme, as the Bulldogs held the Lions to 27 total points, the second-best mark during Purcell's tenure and the fewest in both a season and home opener in program histoyr.
» State held the Lions to 16.7 field goal percentage, which was the best mark since 2014.
» State forced 33 turnovers, the most of any opponent since 2019, and earned 20 steals, the most of any Bulldog team since 2015.
» Against UT Martin, State showed their offense could overpower their opponent.
» The Bulldogs scored 114 points, the most of any State team in a road contest and the fifth-best of any Bulldog team in program history.
» State shot 60 percent from the floor and 50 percent from beyond the arch in the contest.
» Eight Bulldogs finished the game with eight or more points against UT Martin.

BY THE NUMBERS

11 — NON-CONFERENCE VICTORIES: State has won 11 regular season non-conference matchups in row. State has only lost one home non-conference game during Purcell's tenure.

5 — DOUBLE-DOUBLES: Favour Nwaedozi is on a streak of five consecutive double-doubles spanning back to the 2025-26 season.

1 — HUMPHREY COLISEUM VICTORIES: The Bulldogs have won 499 games inside of Humphrey Coliseum, needing just one more home victory to clip 500.

MEDIA INFORMATION

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL MEDIA PORTAL

Mississippi State women's basketball has created an online portal for media members covering the Bulldogs' women's basketball program. To access the portal, visit hailst.at/WBKMedia. The Women's Basketball Press Box Page of HailState.com includes links to credential request forms, media guides, game notes, box scores, recaps, press conferences and team and staff headshots.

CREDENTIALS

Working media must apply for single-game credentials at least 48 hours in advance by visiting hailst.at/MBKWBKCredentials. Seats will be assigned to credentialed media members. Credential priority will be given to those media members who cover Mississippi State athletics on a regular basis. Credentials can be picked up at media will call beginning at 90 minutes before tipoff, which is located inside the double glass doors next to the Premium entrance on the west side of Humphrey Coliseum. Be prepared to show valid ID upon picking up credentials. Media seating is located by assigned seat number in section 222 and can be accessed by entering Portal H on the concourse.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

Certain courtside spots will be reserved for each team's creative staffs, as well as television broadcast personnel. All remaining courtside media spots are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Media are asked to sit inside the photo boxes. Media is not allowed to shoot behind the team bench areas at any time. Media is asked to wait until the designated media timeouts to change sides of the floor and are asked to walk in front of the television table

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Mississippi State communications will not provide printed materials, such as game notes or in-game statistics. Flip card rosters will be available at media will call. Wireless information can be found on your seat place card. Any additional information can be found on the women's basketball press box page at hailst.at/WBKMedia

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Mississippi State will host a press conference after the conclusion of each game. In SEC play, some teams may elect to host their own press conference as well. The postgame press conference room is located on the second floor, which can be accessed from the concourse through the double glass doors betweens Portals F and G. Do not walk through the stands and attempt to access the media room through the courtside club or through the home/visiting team hallways. Postgame press conferences will be recorded and uploaded to the women's basketball press box page.

MSU PLAYER/COACH AVAILABILITY

Players and coaches will be made available to the media upon request. Those wishing to set up an interview must contact Will Simmons via phone or e-mail. On gameday, players and coaches are only available postgame.

Telephone interviews can be scheduled with players on a call-back basis during the week with arrangements made through Will Simmons.

Media members are NOT permitted to contact student-athletes on their own at any time. This includes phone, Email, text or through social media platforms. Student-athletes' contact information will not be given out.

SAMPLE FACILITY INFO

FAST FACTS

- Mississippi State has finished in the top 25 in average attendance in women's basketball across 10 of the last 11 seasons.
- Humphrey Coliseum has played host to the opening rounds of four different NCAA Tournaments (2016, 2017, 2018, 2019).
- A record 10,794 fans packed inside Humphrey Coliseum to watch the Bulldogs defeat the South Carolina Gamecocks in a rematch of the 2017 National Championship game, making it the highest attended collegiate basketball game, men's OR women's, in the state of Mississippi.
- Humphrey Coliseum officially opened for business for Mississippi State women's basketball in the second official season of Bulldog basketball on December 4, 1975 against Jackson State.
- Mississippi State completed major renovations prior to the 2024-25 season, which saw an addition of the Legends Club and Courtside Club, which features 580 club seats and 80 loge seats.
- The addition also introuduced two grand lobbies at the entrances of the east and west sides that feature direct views into the seating bowl. Both the men's and women's locker rooms received fresh facelifts as well.
- The newly redesigned playing surfact is named Adkerson Court, which honors prominent State alumnus Richard C. Adkerson.

TEAM NOTES

NEW FACES IN STARKVILLE

» Mississippi State added four players from Division I institutions via the transfer portal - Aryss Macktoon, Reese Beaty, Macie Phifer and Cali Smallwood.
» Last season. Macktoon was named the A10 Defensive Player of the Year and earned Second Team All-Conference honors at La Salle. Phifer earned All-CUSA Freshman Team honors along being named an All-CUSA Honorable Mention.
» Two NJCAA All-American Honorees made the jump to the SEC - Tootie Lockett and Arianny Francisco de Oliveira.
» Also joining the Bulldogs is Italian native Ludovica Sammartino, who makes the transition to college ball after playing in LBF Serie A1, the top league in Italy.
» Mississippi State's transfer portal class was ranked 11th by USA Today, which was the third best ranking of any team in the SEC by the publication.
» The Bulldogs also added three freshmen to their roster - Andrea Flores, Grace Ndubueze and Lani Smallwood.
» Lani Smallwood was named Alabama's Gatorade Player of the Year, while Flores was named Miss Basketball in Tennesseee.

YEAR TWO FOR MADISON FRANCIS

» Madison Francis became a national name for the Bulldogs last season in just her freshman campaign.
» Francis led the Bulldogs in scoring, blocked shots, steals and minutes while ranking second on the team in rebounding.
» Francis finished her freshman campaign with 2.84 blocks per game and became the first freshman to lead the nation in that category since the 2017-18 season (Sara Hamson, BYU)
» Francis earned SEC All-Defensive and SEC All-Freshman team honors for her efforts during the campaign.
» She joined the likes of LaToya Thomas, Rickea Jackson, and Victoria Vivians as Bulldog freshman who had a 30-point game in their first season.
» She was the first freshman to be named to the SEC's All-Defensive team since the 2019-20 season (Aliyah Boston, SC).
» Francis was one of two players in the nation last season to average at least 2.5 blocks and 1.5 steals last year and was the only player in the P4 to do so.
» Her 88 total blocks rewrote the program's Freshman Record and was the third-best season in Mississippi State history.
» 88 blocks in just 31 games inserted her into eighth among Mississippi State's all-time blocked shots leaders, making her the only player inside the top 10 in with less than 67 games played.

MSU CAREER BLOCKED SHOTS

	PLAYER	G	BLK	AVG
1	Martha Alwal (2012-15)	124	328	2.6
2	Teaira McCowan (2016-19)	149	271	1.8
3	Jessika Carter (2018-24)	151	238	1.6
4	Chanel Mokango (2009-10)	67	180	2.7
5	Tan White (2002-05)	121	118	1.0
6	LaToya Thomas (2000-03)	125	109	0.9
7	Jerkaila Jordan (2021-25)	131	98	0.7
8	Madison Francis (2025-)	33	93	2.8

» Entering the 2025-26 season, Francis was named to the SEC's Preseason Second Team, as voted on upon the league's 16 coaches.
» She was named to the Katrina McClain Power Forward of the Year Watch List, one of 20 players in the to be recognized.

FAVOUR NWAEDOZI, THE GLASS CLEANER

» Favour Nwaedozi made an immediate impact during the 2025-26 season, as she finished the year as just one of four players in the SEC to average a double-double. (Clara Strack, UK; Raegan Beers, OU; Madina Okot, SC)
» Of those four, Nwaedozi was the only player in their first season at the Divison I collegiate level. Two of the four were drafted into the WNBA.
» Nwaedozi collected two 20 rebound games last season, making her the only player in the Southeastern Conference to do so.
» Nwaedozi was the first Bulldog to record 15 double-doubles in a single season since Teaira McCowan recorded 31 in the 2018-19 season.
» On top of her rebounding abillity, Nwaedozi led the Bulldogs in scoring nine times last season, which was tied with Madison Francis for the most of any Bulldog last year.

BEATY = PG1

» Reese Beaty is set to lead the Bulldog offense after a solid freshman campaign at Iowa State.
» Beaty recorded 90 assists off the bench and helped steer the Cyclone offense to a 1.58 assist/turnover ratio, which ranked third in the nation last season.
» Beaty recorded 5+ assists in eight different contests last year and collected a season-high of six in multiple contests.
» She concluded the season with a 1.8 assist/turnover ratio, which ranked second among BIG 12 freshmen and fourth among freshmen who averaged three-plus assists per game.
» Purcell and Co. recruited Beaty out of high school, but initally missed out. When he brought her on a visit, Purcell brought Beaty fishing on her OV in Starkville and ultimately got her to sign with the Bulldogs.

SENSATIONAL SMALLWOODS

» Coach Purcell is set to coach a pair of sisters for the second time in his five seasons at Mississippi State - both took very different paths to get here.
» Lani Smallwood committed to Mississippi State in October of 2024 after before her junior season of high school basketball.
» After committing, Lani would soon emerge nationally, as she jumped into ESPNW's 2026 SportsCenter Next 100 prospects, ultimately landing in the 78th spot.
» Lani was named Alabama's Gatorade Player of the Year, as well as Alabama's Max Preps Female Athlete of the Year. She was also a McDonald's All-American Nominee.
» Cali Smallwood began her collegiate career at D2 Montevallo and averaged 12.5 points in 26 contests. She was named the 2024 GSC Freshman of the Year and transferred to UAB.
» Cali saw only action in four games her sophomore season, but made an impact in her junior year, as she aveaged 14.1 points per game. She knocked down 93 triples at a 41 percent clip throughout the season.
» Cali was one of five players in the nation to shoot 50 percent from two, 40 percent from three and 90 percent from the line last season.
» The duo were both coached by their mom, Natasha, throughout high school. Cali graduated from Susan Moore before Lani and Natasha made the jump to Albertville HS.

MISSISSIPPI MADE

» A pair of Mississippi high school standouts found their way into the Maroon and White this season after starting their collegiate careers elsewhere.
» Macie Phifer joined the Bulldogs after spending her freshman season at Middle Tennesse. She was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team and was named a CUSA Honorable Mention.
» Against the Bulldogs last season in the Emerald Coast Classic, Phifer finished a rebound shy of a double-double, as she was the Blue Raiders scoring leader in the contest with 13 ponts and nine rebounds.

» Preseason All-SEC Second Team
» Katrina McClain Power Forward of the Year Watchlist

TEAM NOTES

» Phifer has a storied high school career from her time at Ingomar Attendance Center, which is just an hour and a half north of Starkville.
» Phifer lettered for six seasons and became the school's all-time leading scoere for either boys or girls basketball with 3,519 points.
» Between basketball and volleyball, Phifer is a seven-time state champion in the state of Mississippi. She was an 11-time All-State selection. She also was a multi-time Mississippi Miss Basketball, Miss Volleyball and was named Mississippi's Gatorade Player of the Year in 2023-24.
» Tootie Lockett started her high school career 30 minutes down the road in Noxubee County High School and transferred to Starkville High for her senior season.
» Lockett was named 7A Miss Basketball in the state of Mississippi after guiding the Lady Yellowjackets to the state championship that season.
» She started her career at Itawamba Community College under former Bulldog Robin Porter (2005-08). She averaged 12 points her first season and decided to stay for a second season, although she received D1 interest.
» Lockett was named the MACCC Player of the Year and an NJCAA All-American honorable mention after her second season. She then received a call from the Bulldogs to return home.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

» Five Bulldogs made the trek to Starkville from overseas - Arianny Francisco de Oliveira (Brazil) Melissa Guillet (France), Ludovica Sammartino (Italy), Favour Nwaedozi (Nigeria) and Grace Ndubueze (Nigeria).
» Francisco de Oliveira has spent the last two seasons in the States, as she transferred from Gulf Coast State College. She was a NJCAA Third Team All-American last season.
» Guillet joined the Bulldogs at the midway point of last season.
» She made her debut in a short stint off the bench 48 hours after arriving in the US in State's 71-59 victory over #7 Kentucky.
» Guillet represented Team France in the 2024 U18 and 2022 U16 Women's European Championship and helped guide Team France to the Championship.
» Sammartino joined State later than most, as she arrived in the States in August. She most recently played in Serie A1, and has also spent time with the Italian National Team in U18 and FIBA 3x3 Action.
» Nwaedozi and Ndubueze both had similar paths to their Starkville, as they both departed Nigeria to go to Japan during High School.

YOUNG AND HUNGRY

» On top of having 10 newcomers on this year's team, the Bulldogs also have a ton of youth.
» State has a total of 7 underclassmen on this year's roster, tying them for the third-most of any team in the Southeastern Conference.
» Four of State's 13 players are sophomores, the most of any class on the Bulldog roster. (Beaty, Francis, Guillet, Phifer).

STAFF CONTINUITY

» Coach Sam Purcell was tasked with rebuilding his staff almost from scratch in year three with multiple assistants departing for head coaching jobs, but the now fifth-year head grabbed coaches with a wealth of knowledge.
» Fred Castro (AHC), Anita Howard (AC) and Samantha Williams (AC) are all entering their third year in the Bulldog program. The trio all brought head coaching experience to Purcell's staff.
» Castro is tasked as the Bulldog's offensive coordinator - he most notably served on Mike Neighbors staff at Washington, where he was apart of the 2016 Final Four Team.
» Howard serves as the Bulldog's recruiting coordinator - she spent the previous five seasons at Georgia Southern. She helped guide the Eagles to their first 20+ win season in two decades.
» Williams and Purcell's time date back to when she joined the Auburn Tigers coaching staff in 2003, where Purcell began his coaching career. Williams and Purcell also spent time together at Louisville.
» Tony Dukes returns for his fourth season at the helm and was the lone hold-over from Purcell's 2023-24 staff. Dukes and Purcell were on staff at Lousiville during Dukes' time as a GA. Although he is the only member of the staff without collegiate head coach experience, Dukes spent time in the NBA with the San Antonio Spurs and Los Angeles Lakers.

ATTACK THE GAP - TEAM MANTRA

» In each season at the helmp of the Bulldog's women's program, Coach Purcell has identified a mantra to guide the team into the season.
» This sesaon's mantra is "ATTACK THE GAP".
» With a fresh roster entering the summer, Coach Purcell spoke to the team about where the team was currently and where the team wants to be and the gap between the two, hence the saying "Attack The Gap".
» Coach Purcell has also identified three leading characteristics for the team - TOUGHNESS, DISCIPLINE AND CONNECTEDNESS.

BULLDOG NICKNAMES

» Coach Purcell has provided every player with a nickname this season, all of which describe their playstyle.
» Purcell went through the entirity of the list with the local media at the end of a November media session, but the nicknames are also listed below in numerical jersey order.

NAME	APPOINTED NICKNAME
Aryss Macktoon	The Hawk
Reese Beaty	The Surgeon
Tootie Lockett	The Juice
Ludovica Sammartino	The Microwave
Lani Smallwood	The Waterbug
Macie Phifer	The Glue
Andrea Flores	The Hustler
Cali Smallwood	The Bomb
Favour Nwaedozi	The Enforcer
Grace Ndubueze	The Bulldozer
Arianny Francisco de Oliveira	The Heat
Madison Francis	The Box Score Queen
Melissa Guillet	The Sneak Attack

TALES FROM THE RECRUITING TRAIL

» Coach Purcell and staff leave no stone unturned when looking to add to their roster, and this year's roster is no exception.
» Purcell and co. first came across film of senior forward Favour Nwaedozi in the summer prior to the 2025-26 season.
» When watching film on Nwaedozi, Coach Purcell recalled in a media session that all it took for the Bulldogs to be interested in Nwaedozi was seeing the way she ran the floor.
» State offered Nwaedozi a spot on the 2025-26 roster and she accepted without taking a visit. She experienced a 14-hour time change in her move to Starkville and kicked off an excellent career by averaging a double-double in her first season in the Maroon and White.
» Madison Francis was a top recruit in the 2025 high school class. She visited Starkville but ultimately didn't immediately commit to the Bulldogs. Her next visit was a trip to Michigan State.
» Francis recalled she was looking for a sign to ultmately decide where to she would end up. After landing in Michigan, she started noticing a billboard on the road that repeatedly listed "1-800-CALL-SAM".
» She then called Purcell while in Michigan and committed to the Bulldogs. Francis went on to lead the team in scoring her freshman campaign on top of leading the nation in blocks per game.
» Coach Purcell missed out on Reese Beaty initally out of high school, as the point guard spent her freshman season at Iowa State, where she tallied 90 assists and helped guide the Cyclones to the third-best Assist/TO ratio in the nation last year.
» Purcell called Beaty as soon as possible when the transfer portal officially opened and laid out the plan for her. Purcell told Beaty he was going to take her fishing on her official visit, a hobby she throughly enjoys.
» Beaty recalled fishing with the staff at Mississippi State volleyball coach, Julie Darty Dennis' home, and described it as showing the sense of community. CLICK FOR MORE

TOP DAWGS

» Strength and Conditioning Coach Kaiti Jones holds a "TOP DAWG" competition throughout the summer and awards the highest overall performers in the weight room as the team's "Top Dawgs".
» This was Francis' second Top Dawg selection in as many years, while it marked Macktoon's first.
» The "Top Dawg" is an award that reflects overall physical competency and athleticism metrics, athletes awarded this honor are scored on a scale of 0-10, with 10 representing of the most elite level women's basketball players to date. The metrics taken into consideration are power, speed, strength, aerobic capacity and anaerobic power.
» Listed below are key measurements from this year's Top Dawg testing.

APPROACH HEIGHT (RUNNING VERTICAL HEIGHT)
Madison Francis - 10'8.5" (up 2.5" from last season)
Favour Nwaedozi - 10'6"
Aryss Macktoon - 10'1.5"

MISSISSIPPI STATE

» Named the ninth head women's basketball coach in Mississippi State history on Mar. 12, 2022
» Became the winningest first-year head coach in Mississippi State history after earning 22 victories and helped guide the Bulldogs back to the NCAA Tournament after a three-year hiatus.
» Has led State to two NCAA Tournament apperances in four seasons, earning three victories during that span. Both are tied for the most of any coach in program history throughout their first four seasons.
» Known as an elite recruiter, Purcell has signed two of the top three signing classes in program history with the 11th-ranked 2025 class and the 23rd-ranked 2023 class (ESPNW).
» Added the 11th-ranked transfer portal class entering the 2025-26 season (USA Today).
» Has signed eight ESPN Top-100 Signees out of high school during his time at Mississippi State, with two currently on roster (Madison Francis - #39 in '25, Lani Smallwood #78 in '26)
» Defeated two top 15 opponents in one season for the first time in his tenure during the 2025-26 season. The Bulldogs defeated #7 Kentucky for the highest ranked win during Purcell's tenure, then took down #15 Tennessee just 11 days later to earn State's fourth victory all time against the Lady Vols in Knoxville.
» Guided Madison Francis to earn All-Defensive and All-Freshman honors during 2025-26, making her the first SEC freshman to be named to the conference's All-Defensive team since Aliyah Boston in 2020.
» Only the second head coach in program history to gain 20+ wins in three of their first four seasons in Starkville.
» Saw Jerkaila Jordan finish her career in the Maroon and White second in program history with 273 steals and fifth in scoring with 1,899 points at MSU.
» Defeated the reigning national champions and ninth-ranked LSU Tigers 77-73 in front of a sold-out crowd inside of Humphrey Coliseum on January 29, 2024 to collect his first career victory over a ranked opponent.
» Earned his first victory in his head coaching debut on November 9, 2022 against Mississippi Valley State.
» Became the fastest head coach to 50 wins in program history on November 20, 2024 with a victory over Mercer.
» Coached his first WNBA Draft Pick at Mississippi State when Jessika Carter was selected in the 2024 WNBA Draft (Rd. 2, Pick 11).
» Has guided his players eight total All-SEC honors during his time at Mississippi State, including Jessika Carter, Madison Francis, Jerkaila Jordan and Debreasha Powe.

PRIOR TO MISSISSIPPI STATE

» Made the move to Starkville after spending nine seasons at the Uniersity of Louisville.
» Was an Associate Coach during his last five seasons at U of L, where he helped guide the Cardinals to a 262-47 record during that span.
» Also had stops at Georgia Tech, Tulsa and Auburn, where he began his coaching career as a video coordinator.
» Has sat under some of the best minds in college basketball, including Jeff Walz, Nell Fortner and Joe Ciampi.
