QUICK HITTERS

• Troy improved to 3-4 in the SBC-MAC Challenge with its 89-78 victory at Kent State in the season opener

• Troy is 5-55 all-time against the SEC (games when the school was in the league)

• Troy has scored 100 points or more in 40 games (37-3) since Chanda Rigby took over the program ... it's the third-most in the country; UConn (52), Maryland (42)

• A first-year player has led the Trojans in scoring in each of the first two games ... Tiauna King led Troy with 21 points at Kent State, while Hannah Smith had 26 points in the victory over Thomas

• Troy and UConn are the only two programs in NCAA history to lead a stat category in nine straight seasons; the Trojans have led the country in rebounding from 2017-26

• Since the 2016-17 season, Troy has 17 games with 60-plus rebounds; that's 11 more than the next closest team (Baylor, 6) ... in fact, Troy's 17 are eight more than anyone else since 2012-13 (Troy didn't have one until the 2016-17 season)

• All 12 players who touched the floor for the Trojans against Thomas hit a bucket

• Troy has won 74.6 percent of its games under Chanda Rigby when outrebounding its opponent (220-75) ... that jumps to 82.7 percent when the rebounding margin is 10-plus (143-30)

• First-year players led Troy in points (Tiauna King – 21), rebounds (Hannah Smith – seven), steals (Smith – three), and the plus/minus (Jamonica Chambers – plus-13) at Kent State

• Troy's first-year players combined for 45 points, 21 rebounds, five assists, three blocks and four steals against Kent State ... on the year, they have combined for 105 points (54.4%) and 50 rebounds (47.6%)

• Troy is 55-8 under head coach Chanda Rigby when hitting 10-plus 3-pointers in a game; the Trojans are 1-0 this season

• The Trojans enter 2026-27 fresh off three straight postseason appearances, making the WBIT for the first time in program history in 2025-26 and playing in the WNIT from 2023-25.

• As head coach, Chanda Rigby enters her 15th season leading the Troy program ... last season, she became the winningest coach in program history, surpassing Joyce Sorrell with her 275th win, coming against Louisiana in 2025-26

• Troy tied program history for single-season victories with 25 last season

• Troy has finished in the top four of the Sun Belt standings in 12 straight seasons and 10 seasons with 20-plus victories

• Troy has defeated an SEC opponent in back-to-back seasons; Missouri & Arkansas

• Troy's five first-year players are the most in Chanda Rigby's career

• Chanda Rigby was inducted into the Pensacola State Athletics Hall of Fame Class this past fall

SEASON STORYLINES

NO CHANGES TO THE STAFF
The Troy women's basketball program didn't make any changes to the main coaching staff as it runs it back with head coach Chanda Rigby and associate head coach Jennifer Graf entering their 15th season together. Assistant coaches Stephanie Murphy and Grace Daniels enter their fourth and third seasons, respectively. Together, the staff led Troy to three consecutive postseason appearances.

BRAND NEW TEAM
The 2026-27 roster features a revamped look, with just three returners — Saniya Jackson, Shakirah Edwards and Detavia Salter — joining 10 newcomers. The Trojans welcome five transfers and five first-year players as Rigby looks to blend experience from across the collegiate landscape with a talented young recruiting class. Jackson, Edwards and Salter provide continuity from last year's squad, while the newcomers bring fresh opportunities for Troy to continue its winning tradition.

FIIRST-YEAR PLAYERS? YEP FIVE
Rigby welcomes her largest freshman class during her tenure at Troy, with five newcomers joining the program. The group includes Tiauna King, Hannah Smith, Jamonica Chambers, Kimora Hughes and Maliyah Meeks.

RESPECT AMONGST THE SUN BELT
For the Trojans, 2026-27 marks the 11th straight season they've been ranked in the top three in the Sun Belt Conference preseason poll, coming in second this year. Consistently, Troy has met those expectations, finishing in the top three in eight of the last 11 seasons.

ALABAMA'S OWN
Five first-year players join a program that has emphasized recruiting Alabama talent, including King, Smith, Chambers and Meeks. Combine Saniya Jackson, Aniya Hubbard and the Trojans have six players from the state of Alabama.

RECORD SHATTERING
Troy continued its historic rebounding tradition in 2025-26, leading the nation for the ninth consecutive season. The Trojans tied UConn as the only two programs to lead an NCAA statistical category for nine straight seasons. The program also tied its single-season record with 25 wins, finished second in the Sun Belt regular-season standings and earned its first-ever WBIT bid. As the Trojans enter 2026-27, they look to continue building on a record-setting foundation while establishing a new identity with their revamped roster.

APRIL IS INEVITABLE
Troy enters the 2026-27 season seeking its fourth consecutive postseason appearance after reaching the WBIT in 2025-26 for the first time in program history. The Trojans tied the program record with 25 wins while finishing as runners-up in both the Sun Belt regular-season standings and conference tournament. The postseason appearance extended Troy's streak to three consecutive years, following its WNIT Fab 4 run in 2023-24 and WNIT runner-up finish in 2024-25. With another postseason berth in sight, Troy looks to continue its tradition of playing meaningful basketball in March and beyond.

IN-SEASON TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS
Troy will compete in two in-season tournaments during the 2026-27 campaign, beginning with the Nugget Classic in Reno, Nevada, from Nov. 27-29. The Trojans will then travel to San Diego, California, for the University of San Diego Tournament from Dec. 12-13. Troy has won an in-season tournament in each of the last three seasons.

HEADED WEST
Troy heads west twice during its non-conference schedule, beginning with a trip to Reno, Nevada, for the Nugget Classic from Nov. 27-29. The Trojans open the tournament against UC Davis on Nov. 27 before facing host Nevada on Nov. 29. Troy then travels to San Diego, California, for the University of San Diego Tournament from Dec. 12-13, where it will face Colorado State before closing the non-conference schedule against Oral Roberts.

SBC VS. SEC
The Trojans face a challenging non-conference schedule that includes a pair of Southeastern Conference opponents. Troy travels to Mississippi State on Nov. 11 before heading to Baton Rouge to face LSU on Nov. 16. The Trojans have defeated Mississippi State three times, including a 73-66 road victory in their last meeting in 2021. Troy also looks to continue its recent success against SEC competition after defeating Missouri in 2025-26 and Arkansas in 2024-25.

THE RETURN
A native of Hoover, Alabama, Hubbard returns to her home state for her fifth collegiate season after spending two years at Florida Atlantic. The guard made an immediate impact with the Owls, earning Conference USA Freshman of the Year honors in 2022-23 before averaging 17.2 points per game in 2023-24. After sitting out the previous two seasons, Hubbard joins Troy with an opportunity to bring her scoring ability, defensive intensity and experience to a program coming off a 25-win season.

NO ROOM FOR RUST
Aniya Hubbard enters her first season at Troy with preseason All-Sun Belt Second Team honors, giving the Trojans a nationally experienced addition to their backcourt. Hubbard earned Conference USA Freshman of the Year, All-Conference Second Team, All-Defensive Team and All-Freshman Team honors during her first season at Florida Atlantic in 2022-23. She averaged 14.1 points, 5.7 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 2.5 steals per game that season before posting 17.2 points per game in 17 appearances in 2023-24. Hubbard's return to the court provides Troy with a proven scorer and playmaker as it looks to compete for a Sun Belt championship.

CHANDA RIGBY

HEAD COACH

15th Season | SE Louisiana, 1990 | Franklinton, La.
Hired April 11, 2012

Now the winningest coach in Troy women's basketball history, head coach Chanda Rigby enters her 15th season at the helm in 2026-27, fresh off three straight postseason appearances.

Over the last seven seasons, the Troy women's basketball team has accumulated 159 wins, the most of any Sun Belt men's or women's basketball team.

Since taking over the program in 2012, Rigby has made Troy a perennial championship and NCAA Tournament contender. Rigby's impressive resume includes 10 20-win seasons, five wins over Power Four opponents, three Sun Belt Tournament championships, two Sun Belt regular-season titles, three trips to the NCAA Tournament, nine postseason appearances (including the first postseason victory in program history with a WNIT Fab 4 run in 2023-24), 27 all-conference selections, seven Sun Belt postseason award winners, a Sun Belt Player of the Year honoree, a Lieberman Award finalist, two Sun Belt Conference Tournament Most Outstanding Players, two Defensive Player of the Year awards, two Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year awards and a Sun Belt Coach of the Year honor. Three seasons ago, she was inducted into the FCSSA Class of 2024 Hall of Fame.

In 2025-26, the Trojans punched their ticket into Rigby's fourth different postseason tournament via the WBIT as they tied the program record for wins with 25. The season culminated with runner-up finishes in the regular season and conference tournament, along with a trip to Allen Fieldhouse against No. 2 Kansas. Troy took the Jayhawks to the brink of an upset before falling 79-70 in the first round of the WBIT. In the Sun Belt Tournament, Rigby completed a 3-0 season sweep over Arkansas State, avenging the 2024-25 exit with an 83-73 victory to advance to the title game. Against James Madison, Rigby fell short, 69-52, in her fifth SBC title appearance.

The regular season also featured several historic moments, including a 100-82 victory over Missouri, which marked Rigby's fifth win over a Power Four opponent and second straight season with a victory over an SEC team (Arkansas - 2024-25; Missouri - 2025-26). She also passed the inaugural head coach, Joyce Sorrell, as the program's winningest coach, with her 275th career victory at Troy on a 71-55 win over Louisiana. Rigby also traveled to Las Vegas for her third straight season with an in-season tournament title, defeating Florida Gulf Coast and Texas Southern to claim the Las Vegas Resorts World Classic championship, led two 20-plus-point road win comebacks against Longwood and Marshall and shattered the single-game scoring (132), 3-pointer (20) and assists (36) records at Troy with a win over Oakwood in Trojan Arena.

Rigby also coached three All-Sun Belt selections in Zay Dyer (first team), Fortuna Ngnawo (second team) and Emani Jenkins (third team). Rigby helped guide Dyer into becoming one of the greatest players in program history, as she earned Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year honors, All-Sun Belt First Team recognition for the second straight season and became the first member of the All-Sun Belt Defensive Team in program history.

Dyer repeated her single-season rebounding record with 422 and claimed Troy's Division I rebounding record with 1,022 career rebounds. She also set the single-game Division I rebounding record with 25 against Louisiana, became the first Division I player in program history to join the Troy 1,000-point and 1,000-rebound club and ranked second in Division I with 23 double-doubles in 2025-26.

From beyond the arc, Rigby also guided Jenkins to the program record for most 3-pointers in a single season with 94. Jenkins also led the Sun Belt in 3-pointers made (94), 3-pointers per game (2.85) and 3-point percentage (40.2). As a team, Rigby's Trojans led the conference in assists (15.8), rebound margin (12.2), defensive rebounds (31.8), offensive rebounds (18.2), scoring (81.3) and winning percentage (75.8). Troy also led the nation in rebounds per game (49.91) for the ninth straight season.

The story of 2024-25 seemed like the year before as Rigby's Trojans started the season slow at 1-4 but quickly turned things around by winning the 41st Great Alaska Shootout over North Dakota State to become the first Sun Belt team in the tournament's history – Troy joined the likes of Tennessee, South Carolina, Ohio State and Stanford. Rigby continued to add feats throughout the season, like coaching the first-ever triple-double in program history (Shaulana Wagner – Memphis), defeating Arkansas in the Cherokee Tournament for the program's fourth-ever win over a Power-4 opponent, recording her 150th SBC win over Georgia State to become the third coach ever in the league's history and winning her 250th career game at Troy over Texas State to culminate in her 10th straight season as a top-4 team in the conference.

Despite falling short to the eventual champions, Arkansas State, in the semifinals of the Sun Belt Tournament, the Trojans received their bid back to the WNIT. Under Rigby, the Trojans hosted back-to-back wins over Chattanooga and North Texas before punching their ticket to the WNIT title game at Buffalo with road victories at North Dakota State and Illinois State – the program's first national championship game appearance. Rigby's championship run fell four points short, 88-84, but she helped All-Sun Belt First Team, back-to-back SBC Player of the Week, WNIT All-Tournament Team, Great Alaska Shootout All-Tournament team member Zay Dyer, to the all-time single-season rebounding record at Troy (395). She also shattered the team single-season records for points (3,045), field goals made (1,142), rebounds (1,864) and blocks (180) as the Trojans led the nation in rebounding (49.1) for the eighth straight season.

Rigby flipped the script after an 0-6 start for 2023-24, rallying the team to finish 22-

12, 15-3 SBC for the No. 2 seed in the SBC Tournament. Despite an early exit in the SBC, the Trojans accepted a WNIT bid, hosting three games and making a historic run to the WNIT Fab 4 with the first-ever postseason victory in program history against FIU. Her 2023-24 team led the nation in rebounds for the seventh straight season with 47.88 per game, beating out LSU. On the defensive end, Troy ranked eighth nationally at 30.8 and second offensively at 17.1.

She also coached the leading team for All-Sun Belt members, with Tai'Sheka Porchia on the first team, Ja'Mia Hollings on the second and Makayia Hallmon on the third. Hollings also earned WNIT All-Tournament team with 22.8 points, 12 rebounds, 1.0 steals and 1.5 blocks on the historic run. The 2023-24 season also saw the most field goals made in D-I program history at 1,060 – Hollings led the team as she became the 26th player in Troy women's basketball history to eclipse 1,000 points. Rigby hit two win milestones in the 2023-24 season, earning her 450th collegiate career win over Bowling Green and rising to third for most SBC victories at 146 – sits 47 wins away from second (Brian Boyer – 193).

During 2022-2023, the Trojans entered the Sun Belt Tournament as the No. 4 seed – ninth season the team finished in the top four. Hungry for a shot at the semifinals, the tournament ended early for the Trojans with an unfortunate official error during the Old Dominion game in the quarterfinals.

Troy scored the longest 75-plus point streak in the country with their 21-straight game streak during the 2022-2023 season. She also coached the only SBC team with four 100-plus games, improving to 34 career 100-point games – record currently sits at 51-4.

The team also ranked nationally in the top four for rebounds, offensive rebounds, scoring and free throws. In the league, the Trojans led in scoring, rebounding, steals and offensive rebounds.

The offense powerhouse Rigby led made it a legendary season for the Trojans. Five players averaged double figures for a conference-best 84.2 points per game on the fifth-best field goal percentage of 40.4 percent. Fighting relentlessly during the season, Troy also gained the third-most blocked shots at 3.4 and was the only team in the SBC to average double-figure steals a game at 11.6 – ranked eighth in the nation.

Troy ended the season with multiple league-high honors. Three players earned All-Sun Belt nods. Makayia Hallmon earned second-team honors, while Ja'Mia Hollings and Tai'Sheka Porchia were named to the third team. Hollings and Porchia also earned Sun Belt Player of the Week and NCAA Starting Five of the Week.

In 2022, Rigby and the Trojans returned from the heartbreaking loss at Texas A&M in the 2021 NCAA Tournament looking for vengeance. Troy capped off nonconference action by sweeping the Mississippi State MTE. The Trojans downed host Mississippi State, the eventual SWAC champions Jackson State and South Carolina State to start conference play with momentum.

That momentum carried Rigby's Trojans to three short-handed wins to open conference play. Due to COVID-19 protocols, Troy had to battle through three games with as few as eight players to start conference play a perfect 3-0.

The Troy Women's Basketball squad claimed the Sun Belt Regular Season Championship after convincingly downing Appalachian State 89-56 in the final weekend of the regular season.

Felmas Koranga and Amber Leggett earned All-Sun Belt honors after Koranga was selected to the first team and Leggett to the third team. The Nakuru, Kenya native picked up her second straight First Team All-Sun Belt honor after leading the league in rebounding. The junior also ranked 10th nationally with 354 boards on the season. Leggett earned her first nod from the Sun Belt Conference, being tabbed a Third Team All-Sun Belt selection in her first season with the Trojans. The Navarre, Fla., native ranked second on the team and 15th in the league, averaging 11.8 points per game. Leggett also backed up Koranga on the glass, ranking second on the team and 10th in the league with 7.1 boards per game.

The Trojans punched their second straight trip to the Sun Belt Tournament Championship. Despite losing UT Arlington, Troy earned an automatic bid to the WNIT, where the Trojans played host to Alabama.

The squad finished the season ranked first nationally in defensive rebounds, free throws made, offensive rebounds and rebounds per game. The team also ranked second in rebounds and sixth in scoring.

The 2020-21 season was another one for the record books for Rigby. She led her program to its third NCAA Tournament appearance, third Sun Belt Tournament Championship and sixth 20+ win season. She was honored by the league's head coaches and media members for the first time as she was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. The individual awards didn't stop with Rigby. She guided Alexus Dye to the Sun Belt Player of the Year award, the first player of the year honoree in program history, and Felmas Koranga to Newcomer of the Year honors. Under the leadership of Rigby, Dye was named a First Team All-Sun Belt performer, Koranga and Jasmine Robinson were second-team honorees and Tiyah Johnson was a third-team member. Troy's four All-Sun Belt performers were the most in a single season in program history and the most in the Sun Belt since 1998.

Statistically, the 2020-21 season was among the best in Rigby's career. Troy ranked third in the NCAA in scoring offense at 86.0 ppg (the highest total of her career), first in rebounds (52.1) and defensive rebounds per game (32.8), first in both free throws made (477) and attempted (653), second in total rebounds (1,458) and offensive rebounds per game (19.3), fifth in total steals (291) and 12th in total assists (471). Troy made national headlines in the NCAA Tournament against No. 2 seed Texas A&M when the Trojans almost earned the first win for a 15 seed in NCAA Tournament history, erasing a 16-point deficit to lead the Aggies late in the fourth quarter before narrowly falling by just four points. Troy's 80 points scored was the third-most points scored by a 15 seed in tournament history.

Troy put together its most successful season in program history during the 2019-20 campaign. Rigby led Troy to a program-record 25 victories and the program's first-ever Sun Belt Regular Season Championship after posting a 16-2 conference record. Although the season was cut short due to COVID-19, the Trojans earned the No. 1 seed in the SBC Tournament. Rigby guided three players to all-conference honors, the most honorees in a single season in program history. In December, Troy earned its highest RPI rating in program history (36) before ending the season with an RPI of 44, the highest in the SBC. Under Rigby's leadership, the Trojans led the NCAA in total rebounds (1,595), rebounding margin (+15.4), rebounds per game (55.0), offensive rebounds per game (22.2) and defensive boards per game (32.8).

In 2018-19, the Trojans earned their first-ever invitation to the WNIT. Rigby guided Sky'Lynn Holmes to the SBC

CHANDA RIGBY

Defensive Player of the Year, the first such award as SBC members. Holmes was also named to the All-Sun Belt Second Team. Once again, Rigby's squad was one of the best offensive teams in the country, averaging 82.3 points per game average and a +10.3 rebound margin, finishing fifth-best in the NCAA in both stats. The Trojans finished first nationally in offensive rebounds and first in the country in rebounds per game at 50.48.

In 2017-18, Rigby's Trojans finished 18-13 overall after the departure of seven seniors from the previous season. The Trojans led the Sun Belt in scoring (81.9) and the NCAA in rebounding (49.5), joining Baylor as the only school in the nation to lead its conference in both categories in each of the last six seasons. Sophomores Amber Rivers and Kayla Robinson earned Second Team All-Sun Belt Conference honors, while junior Sky'Lynn Holmes was named Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year.

Troy won its second consecutive Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship in 2016-17, earning a second straight bid to the NCAA Tournament. Forward Caitlyn Ramirez was named All-Sun Belt Conference First Team and SBC Tournament MVP. For the fifth consecutive season, the Trojans led the league in scoring and finished top 10 in the nation with 82.5 points per game. Troy was second in the NCAA with 50.15 rebounds per game, including an 86-rebound performance against Arkansas State in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament quarterfinals, the second-most in NCAA history.

In 2015-16, the Trojans finished 20-13, won the Sun Belt Conference Tournament, and qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history. Ashley Beverly Kelley was named First Team All-Sun Belt Conference and SBC Tournament MVP.

Caitlyn Ramirez took home third-team All-Sun Belt honors as well. Rigby's squad led the conference in scoring for the fourth consecutive season.

Troy's 2014-15 team won 20 games for just the fourth time in program history and made the second postseason appearance through the WBI Tournament appearance – first postseason tournament since 1997. Ashley Beverly Kelley and Ronita Garrett were both named to the All-Sun Belt First Team, giving Troy two first-team selections for the first time in over a decade.

In 2013-14, Rigby coached her first All-Sun Belt First Team performer when Joanna Harden became the first All-Sun Belt First Team member under Rigby when she scored 25.1 points per game. Harden finished seventh in the NCAA in scoring and was a finalist for the Nancy Lieberman Award given to the nation's top point guard. During the year, Troy averaged 80.4 points per game and became just the second Sun Belt team since 2000 to average over 80.0 points.

In Rigby's first season at the helm in 2012-13, Troy won seven games, a five-win improvement from the year before and tying the total number of wins Troy won over the previous two seasons combined. It was also Troy's first season playing home games in the newly constructed Trojan Arena.

Before taking over the Trojan program in 2012-13, Rigby spent 12 years at the junior college level. She spent seven seasons at Pensacola State, coaching three WBCA All-Americans, one McDonald's All-American and four NJCAA All-Americans. Rigby guided the Pirates to a combined 64-6 record over the last two seasons with two trips to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Final Four and earned two third-place finishes. Before Pensacola State, Rigby led Holmes Community College to four straight winning seasons and spent one season at NAIA Tabor College, where she transformed a last-place team into one of the top teams in the conference. Rigby began her head coaching career at Northwest Rankin High School in Mississippi in 1992 before returning to her home state of Louisiana to coach at Loranger High School from 1996-2000.

Rigby graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University with a bachelor's degree in English education in 1990 and a master's degree in secondary education in 1998. She earned her doctorate in higher education leadership from Nova Southeastern University in July 2017.

She is married to Ed Rigby, a high school football head coach and athletic director. The couple has two sons, Ramsey and Randon.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JENNIFER GRAF
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

15th Season
Northwestern State, 2000
Loranger, La.
Hired June 5, 2012

GRAF COACHING TIMELINE
2013-pres. (14 seasons)	Troy Associate Head Coach
2011-12 (1 season)	Troy Assistant Coach
2004-12 (8 seasons)	Northwestern State Head Coach
2000-04 (4 season)	Northwestern State Assistant Coach

Fresh off three straight postseason appearances, Jennifer Graf prepares for her 15th season under head coach Chanda Rigby and 14th as the associate head coach.

Over 14 seasons with Rigby, Graf has guided her post players to lead the nation in rebounds for nine straight seasons (2017-26), averaging 49.91 per game in 2025-26. She has helped guide the Trojans to five Sun Belt championships and nine postseason berths, including three NCAA Tournament appearances, back-to-back WNIT Fab 4 runs (2023-25) and, most recently, the program's first WBIT berth in 2025-26.

Graf's top two post players in 2025-26 combined for 42 double-doubles, ranking second and 12th nationally, respectively, in Zay Dyer and Fortuna Ngnawo. Dyer led the conference in double-doubles and earned her second straight All-Sun Belt First Team honor, along with Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year recognition and becoming the first All-Sun Belt Defensive Team selection in program history. Meanwhile, Ngnawo earned All-Sun Belt Second Team honors. Both post players joined the Sun Belt All-Tournament team.

Graf earned her bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Northwestern State University in 2000. She received her master's of education in sports administration from Northwestern State in 2002.

STEPHANIE MURPHY
ASSISTANT COACH

4th Season
Ole Miss, 2002
Tutwiler, Miss.
Hired May 2, 2023

MURPHY COACHING TIMELINE
2023-pres. (3 seasons)	Troy Assistant Coach
2018-23 (5 seasons)	Coahoma CC Head Coach
2011-18 (7 seasons)	Brandon HS Head Coach
2006-11 (5 season)	Tupelo HS Head Coach
2004-06 (2 seasons)	Meridian HS Head Coach

Murphy heads into her fourth season with the Troy Trojans with a perfect 3-for-3 mark in postseason appearances, including a WNIT Fab 4 appearance in 2023-24, a WNIT runner-up finish in 2024-25 and a WBIT berth in 2025-26.

In her third season with Troy, Murphy helped the Trojans reach 25 wins, tying the program record. With a 25-8 overall record and 15-3 mark in Sun Belt play, the Trojans finished second in the conference during the regular season before completing a 3-0 season sweep over Arkansas State in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament semifinals. Ultimately, the Trojans fell in Murphy's first Sun Belt Conference title game appearance against James Madison, 69-52, but Troy earned its first WBIT berth against No. 2 Kansas. Murphy also helped guide Troy to key victories over Missouri, Arkansas State (three times), Marshall and Longwood, with both the Marshall and Longwood wins featuring 20-plus-point road comebacks. As a team, the Trojans led the nation in rebounds per game (49.91) for the ninth straight season while also leading the Sun Belt in assists (15.8), rebound margin (12.2), defensive rebounds (31.8), offensive rebounds (18.2), scoring (81.3) and winning percentage (.758).

She played college basketball at Ole Miss, where she earned her bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2000 and her master's degree in higher education with an emphasis in student personnel in 2002.

GRACE DANIELS
ASSISTANT COACH

3rd Season
UTSA, 2021
Arlington, Texas
Hired October 26, 2024

DANIELS COACHING TIMELINE
2024-pres. (2 seasons)	Troy Assistant Coach
2023-24 (1 seasons)	Houston Christian Assistant Coach/ Recruiting Coordinator
2021-23 (2 seasons)	ULM Graduate Assistant

Grace Daniels returns to Troy for her third season in 2026-27, looking to build on two postseason appearances in her first two years.

In 2025-26, Daniels helped elevate Troy's play from beyond the arc. Primarily coaching the guards, Daniels guided Emani Jenkins to an All-Sun Belt Third Team selection. Jenkins led the Sun Belt in 3-pointers made (94), 3-pointers per game (2.85) and 3-point percentage (40.2 percent). Her 94 3-pointers also shattered Troy's single-season record, while her 40.2 percent shooting from deep ranked fourth in Division I and fifth-best in program history. Jenkins also concluded her Troy career with the best Division I 3-point percentage in program history at 38.4 percent on 161 made 3-pointers, the fifth-most in Troy history.

Daniels' guards helped Troy lead the Sun Belt in assists at 15.8 per game. Another senior, Ashley Baez, ranked eighth in the conference with 3.5 assists per game. Overall, Daniels helped guide Troy to a 25-8,13-5 record, earning the No. 2 seed in the conference tournament, which led to a runner-up finish to James Madison in her first-ever title game appearance and the program's first WBIT berth.

As a player, Daniels earned District 14-5A Offensive MVP twice and team MVP three times. She also broke her high school's records for most points in a game twice, with 34 and 52, while holding the single-season scoring and steals record. Daniel's performance allowed her to bring the program to its first playoff appearance in over a decade en route to being named a McDonald's All-American nominee, two-time All-Region Team and Fort Worth Star-Telegram Super Team member.
