TODAY'S STORYLINES

- The University at Buffalo women's basketball team welcomes SEC powerhouse Mississippi State to Broadview Arena for an afternoon matinee on Saturday.
- This is the second-ever meeting between the two programs. The Bulldogs defeated the Bulls in the last matchup in 2010.
- Buffalo defeated Sacramento State 67-60 on Thursday night. Second year forward Meg Lucas narrowly missed out on a double-double with 20 points and nine rebounds and first year guard Ava LaMonica who scored 18 points, including shooting 8-of-10 from the free throw line.
- The Bulls bring back six players while adding nine newcomers. They return 62% of their scoring, 55% of their rebounding and 55% of their minutes from a season ago.
- With 13 underclassmen the Bulls are the youngest team in the MAC and one of the youngest teams in all of Division I women's basketball.
- Mississippi State was picked ninth in the Southeastern Conference preseason poll. They return just two players while adding nine newcomers, including seven underclassmen. It's a home game for Buffalo native Madison Francis who was named to the SEC All-Defensive Team as a rookie while leading the team in scoring, blocked shots, steals and minutes played.
- Head coach Kristen Sharkey is in her second year at the helm of the Bulls after a standout playing career at UB, followed by seven seasons on staff where she helped lead the Bulls to three MAC championship titles and a Sweet 16 appearance.

GAME 3 RECAP: SACRAMENTO STATE

• In a tightly contested game that featured six ties and eight lead changes, Buffalo made big plays on both ends of the floor down the stretch to defeat Sacramento State 67-60 at Broadview Arena on Thursday night.
• The Bulls were led offensively by second year forward Meg Lucas who narrowly missed out on a double with 20 points and nine rebounds and first year guard Ava LaMonica who gave the fans another show with 18 points, including going 8-of-10 at the free throw line.
• Buffalo maintained a 38-35 edge on the glass against a tall and physical Hornets squad while also outscoring Sacramento State in the paint with 36 points inside and scoring 15 points off of 15 Hornets' miscues and shooting 49% from the floor.

PREVEWING MISSISSIPPI STATE

• Mississippi State is 3-0 after defeating Troy 79-57 on Wednesday.
• The Bulldogs were picked to finish ninth in the Southeastern Conference preseason poll after going 18-13 overall and 5-11 in SEC play a season ago.
• Mississippi State returns just two players while adding 10 newcomers, including seven underclassmen.
• The Bulldogs have three players averaging in double figures, led by senior forward Favour Nwaedozi who is averaging a double-double at 19.0 points and 14.7 rebounds per game. Nwaedozi was one of four players in the SEC to average a double-double in 2025-26 and has now recorded six straight going back to last season.
• Buffalo native Madison Francis had a stellar rookie campaign, earning a spot on the SEC's All-Defensive Team while leading the Bulldogs in scoring, blocked shots, steals and minutes while ranking second on the team in rebounding.
• Reese Beaty is set to lead the Bulldog offense after a solid freshman campaign at Iowa State in which she recorded 90 assists off the bench and helped steer the Cyclone offense to a 1.58 assist/turnover ratio, which ranked third in the nation last season.
• Sam Purcell is in his fifth season at the helm of the Bulldogs after spending nine seasons at Louisville under Jeff Walz. He led the Bulldogs to wins over two top-15 teams in 2025-26 for the first time in his tenure.

SCHEDULE BREAKDOWN

• Buffalo is scheduled to host 15 regular season contests inside Alumni Arena this season, including six non-conference matchups and nine Mid-American Conference games.
• UB will play a challenging non-conference schedule, highlighted by a matchup with SEC powerhouse Mississippi State at Broadview Arena, a trip Florida for the FAU Thanksgiving Classic as well as a pair of Big 4 rivalry games.
• For the fourth straight year the schedule will feature the MAC-SBC Challenge. After hosting Georgia State in the season opener the Bulls will travel to a to-be-determined Sun Belt opponent on February 6.
• The MAC has announced a revised format for the 2027 MAC Basketball Tournaments, held at Rocket Arena in Cleveland, Ohio on March 10-13. Under the new format, the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds in both tournaments will receive byes into the semifinal round, while the No. 3 and No. 4 seeds will receive byes into the quarterfinal round.

• Aniya Rowe was named to the Preseason All-MAC second team following a rookie season in which she earned a spot on the All-Freshman after leading the Bulls in scoring (12.6 ppg), three-point field goal percentage (.312), assists (106) and minutes played (31.3). Defensively, she led the Bulls and ranked eighth in the MAC in steals per game (1.9).
• The Geneva, NY native elevated her game in MAC play as she averaged 14.8 points, 3.9 rebounds, 3.8 assists and 1.8 steals per contest, while knocking down 1.6 three-pointers per contest, all of which ranked in the top two amongst all rookies in league action.

THE RIM REAPER

• Meg Lucas put together a stellar freshman campaign in which she ranked second in the MAC and in the top 40 nationally in rebounding (9.6 rpg) while also ranking second on the team in points per game (9.9). She set the program's freshman Division I single-season program record for rebounds per game and her rebounding mark was fourth amongst all rookies nationwide.
• The Melbourne, Australia native recorded nine double-doubles on the year which is tied for seventh in a single-season in program history.
• Lucas is picking up where she left off as she is averaging a double-double through three games, including a season-high 20 points against Sacramento State and a season-best 16 rebounds at Youngstown State.

JERSEY DEVIL

• First year guard Ava LaMonica put on a show in the season opener as she scored a team-high 27 points including an efficient 9-of-14 from the floor and 7-of-8 from the free throw line, to go with five assists. Her 27 points were the most by a freshman in their debut in program history.
• The Hillsborough, NJ native leads the team at 17.3 points per game and is shooting 50% from the floor as well as 82% from the free throw line.

GOING FOR GOLD

• Sophomore Diann Jackson made the most of a special opportunity in July as she helped lead the Puerto Rican Women's U20 National Team to a gold medal at the 2026 Central American and Caribbean Games, notching a double-double with a game-high 18 points to go with 12 rebounds and two steals in the championship game.
• The Chicago native averaged 9.6 points per game in the tournament, including two double-doubles, three double-digit scoring efforts and three double-digit rebounding totals across five contests while averaging 3.6 assists per game and shooting an efficient 47% from the floor.

AUSSIE, AUSSIE, AUSSIE

• In contstructing this year's roster, head coach Kristen Sharkey returned to the Australian pipeline that has been fruitful to her and the Bulls with the addition of freshmen Ella Wickstrom and Layla Hearne.
• The trio of Lucas/Hearne/Wickstrom join a successful group of former UB Aussies including 2016 MAC Tournament MVP Stephanie Reid, Sweet 16 members Liisa and Katherine Ups and Courtney Wilkins and 2022 MAC Freshman of the Year Georgia Woolley.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK
• The Bulls return six players from last year's squad, including a quartet of players who played major minutes as rookies.
• Of the nine newcomers, three came to Buffalo via transfer. Sophomores Asia Wilson (Holy Cross), Briana Young (Schoolcraft College) and Oyinkansola Soetan (Salt Lake CC) all have four years of eligibility remaining. UB also welcomed six freshmen to the squad who will look to make an immediate impact in their first seasons in the blue and white.

YOUNG BULLS
• The Bulls have 13 underclassmen on this year's roster, making them the youngest team in the MAC and tied with Central Connecticut State as the youngest team in all of Division I women's basketball.

RELIABLE ROOKIES
• Buffalo started four freshmen in 14 straight games to close the season, which was the most in all of Division I women's basketball.
• On February 10 at Bowling Green, UB had four freshmen (Lucas, Rowe, Corry, Jackson) score in double figures. It was the first time four rookies have scored in double figures in the program's Division I history.
• Additionally, UB was one of two teams in the league to have a rookie leading the squad in minutes played.

CLEANING THE GLASS
• The Bulls were second in the MAC and ranked in the top 50 nationally in offensive rebounding (14.0) last season, averaging 11 second chance points per contest, while also ranking fourth in the league in rebounds per game (38.7).

PAINTING A NEW PICTURE
• Last season UB scored 29 points per game in the paint, accounting for 50% of their scoring.

SWIPER NO SWIPING
• The Bulls ranked fifth in the MAC in steals per (8.6) and sixth in turnovers forced (16.7) per game a year ago, averaging 14 points per game off opponent's miscues which accounted for 24% of their scoring.

CLOSING TIME
• Since the 2015-16 season, the Bulls have been extremely effective closing out games, winning 217 of their last 234 games (.927) when leading or tied with five minutes left.

HOLDING COURT
• Over the last decade, the Bulls hold an 136-62 (.687) record at home across 198 contests.
• Since the 2017-18 season, UB is 85-32 at Alumni Arena.
• On the flip side, the Bulls are 132-116 (.532) on the road or on neutral ground during that stretch.

59 IS MORE THAN FINE
• Over the last nine seasons, UB is 93-9 when holding opponents to 59 points or less.
• The Bulls are 153-38 over that same stretch when holding their opponents to under 70 points.

• Head coach Kristen Sharkey enters year two at the helm of her alma mater.
• A two-time graduate of UB, Sharkey helped build the Bulls into a perennial contender in the Mid-American Conference. Buffalo made four NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2018, across seven seasons as an assistant coach under former UB head coach Felisha Legette-Jack.
• She returned to Buffalo after three seasons on the staff at Syracuse University, where she helped guide the Orange to back-to-back postseason appearances.
• A two-time All-MAC selection, Sharkey averaged 14.1 points and 8.1 rebounds as a senior. She ranks in the top 15 in program history in scoring, career games played, rebounds, free throws made, free throw percentage and blocked shots.

FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH
• At 34 years old, Coach Sharkey is one of the youngest head coaches and with a staff average (head coach/four assistant coaches) of 31, they are one of the youngest staffs in all of Division I.
• While they may be young, they bring a unique pedigree with a combined career scoring average of just over 10 points per game.

LEGENDARY REUNION
• It's also a homecoming for a pair of former Bulls as Summer Hemphill and JoAnna Smith join Coach Sharkey's staff.
• Hemphill is in her second year as an assistant coach after a decorated playing career in which she led UB to two Mid-American Conference championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2018. She finished her career as the program's all-time leading rebounder and leader in career games played (134) and is one of just two Bulls to record 1,000 career points and 1,000 career rebounds.
• Smith, also in year two on the sidelines, helped lead UB to its first MAC Championship in 2016. She is the winningest player in program history since the Bulls joined the MAC in 1998-99, collecting 78 wins in 121 career games, which ranks fifth all-time.

PRO PEDIGREE
• Damon Jones is in his second season as an assistant coach, and first as offensive coordinator, at Buffalo. He comes to Buffalo after serving as a player development coach and video coordiator for the Minnesota Lynx, helping to lead the team to a Commissioner's Cup Championship and the first 30+-win season in Lynx history. In 2024, he also worked on the support staff of the U.S. Women's National Team that captured an eighth straight Olympic Gold Medal at the 2024 Paris Olympics.

STRONGER TOGETHER
• The Bulls are wearing a special patch on their jerseys this season to recognize the formation of the Stronger Together Task Force.
• The patch was created in unity with UB student-athletes, coaches and staff as a symbol of Buffalo's commitment to model and lead a diverse and inclusive culture throughout the campus, community and country.

LAST GAME | 11/12/26 VS SACRAMENTO STATE

BUFFALO, NY – In a tightly contested game that featured six ties and eight lead changes, the University at Buffalo women's basketball team (2-1) made big plays on both ends of the floor down the stretch to defeat Sacramento State 67-60 at Broadview Arena on Thursday night.

The Bulls were led offensively by second year forward Meg Lucas who narrowly missed out on a double with 20 points and nine rebounds and first year guard Ava LaMonica who gave the fans another show with 18 points, including going 8-of-10 at the free throw line.

Buffalo scored on their first possession of the game as Diann Jackson hit Lucas with a no-look pass for a layup and then later, Asia Wilson drilled a triple from the top of the key to give UB an early lead. Ella Corry then knocked down a triple of her own, but the Hornets responded with a 9-4 run to take a one-point lead at the end of the first.

It was a sluggish start to the second quarter for the Bulls before Jackson knocked down a midrange jumper to tie the game at 19, but the Hornets answered with a triple at the other end to retake the lead at the 6:09 mark. The visitors extended the run to 7-0 to take their largest lead of the half before the Bulls began to chip away as LaMonica got her own miss and finished off glass and then the Bulls got to the charity stripe and converted to cut the lead to one at the half.

Sacramento State opened the third quarter on a 13-4 run to go up 41-33 and force a UB timeout at the 5:34 mark. LaMonica hit a cutting Lucas for a layup before knocking down a midrange jumper of her own and then Lucas skied up for an offensive rebound putback plus the foul and then made a free throw line jumper to give the Bulls a 47-43 lead at the end of the third.

The Hornets started the fourth quarter with back-to-back and one buckets to tie the game at 48 before Lucas went into attack mode, scoring on two straight possessions and Wilson knocked down a midrange jumper in transition as Buffalo maintained a 56-51 lead at the final media timeout. Ella Wickstrom drove to the bucket for a tough layup off glass and then Lucas came up with a big steal and scored in transition to put the Bulls up by five with 90 seconds remaining and the Bulls would seal the game at the charity stripe in the final minute.

Buffalo maintained a 38-35 edge on the glass against a tall and physical Hornets squad while also outscoring Sacramento State in the paint with 36 points inside and scoring 15 points off of 15 Hornets' miscues and shooting 49% from the floor.

Up next, Buffalo will remain home to host SEC powerhouse Mississippi State at Broadview Arena on Saturday, November 14 at 12pm.

Kristen SHARKEY

Head Coach • First Season
Buffalo '14

Kristen Sharkey enters her second season at the helm of the Bulls in 2026-27 after being named the 14th head women's basketball coach in school history on April 18, 2025. Sharkey comes to Buffalo after three seasons on the staff at Syracuse University, most recently serving as associate head coach.

In her time at Syracuse, Sharkey helped guide the Orange to back-to-back postseason appearances, reaching the Super 16 of the WNIT in 2023 and advancing to second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2024.

The 2023-24 team was tabbed to finish ninth in the Atlantic Coast Conference and proceeded to finish 24-8 overall with a 13-5 ACC record, tied for second in the league standings. Syracuse peaked as high as No. 17 in the Associate Press Top 25 Poll and earned a first-round win over Arizona in the NCAA Tournament, before falling to UConn in the second round. Sharkey was instrumental in the recruitment and development of Dyaisha Fair, who became the sixth player in program history drafted to the WNBA when she was selected 16th overall by the Las Vegas Aces and graduated as the third all-time leading scorer in NCAA history with 3,403 career points.

Across seven seasons at UB, she helped build the Bulls into a perennial contender in the Mid-American Conference. Buffalo made four NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2018.

In her first year on the sidelines, the Bulls won the MAC Tournament and secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament – both program firsts. She mentored All-MAC First Team selection JoAnna Smith and MAC Tournament MVP Stephanie Reid.

After a 29-win season, the 2017-2018 UB squad became the first team in school history, and only the second in MAC history, to receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. Buffalo advanced to the Sweet Sixteen with upset wins over South Florida and Florida State and finished the season ranked No. 21 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll.

In her final season in Buffalo, the Bulls posted a 25-9 record and won the MAC Tournament, securing a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the third time in five years. Fair was an AP Honorable Mention All-America and All-MAC First Team selection and MAC Tournament MVP and Georgia Woolley was named the MAC Freshman of the Year.

She helped develop nine All-MAC players during her time as an assistant coach including 2019 WNBA draft pick Cierra Dillard who was selected 22nd overall by the Minnesota Lynx. Summer Hemphill earned All-MAC Freshman Team honors in 2017 and was an All-MAC Second Team selection in 2019 and 2022 while being named to the Katrina McClain Award Watch List and the Preseason Cheryl Miller Award Watch List during her UB career.

As a player under Legette-Jack, Sharkey started 85-straight games to end her UB career, leading the Bulls to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in over 15 years.

A two-time All-MAC selection, Sharkey averaged 14.1 points and 8.1 rebounds as a senior. She ranks 13th on UB's all-time scoring list with 1,264 career points and also ranks in the top 15 in career games played (120), rebounds (758), free throw percentage (.772), free throws made (305) and blocked shots (98).

A native of Manahawkin, NJ, Sharkey graduated from Buffalo with a bachelor's degree in psychology and earned her MBA from UB in 2021. Sharkey and her wife Rosie have a daughter, Rory.
