THE BUZZ

THE HEADLINE: On the tails of its first home victory and a close loss to a strong, mid-major opponent, the Alabama State University Lady Hornets basketball team (1-3 overall) takes on its second Southeastern Conference (SEC) foe of the regular season in Mississippi State (4-0) for the third straight season, giving the team another sturdy test in the early goings of the 2026-27 campaign.

THE OPPONENT: The Mississippi State University Lady Bulldogs compete in the historically competitive SEC, home to three of the past five national champions. The Bulldogs, led by fifth year head coach Sam Purcell, have found recent success in the postseason, reaching the national championship game in 2017 and 2018 while making it to at least the third round six times since the turn of the century. Since its first meeting on record in December 2013, the Bulldogs have won all six games by an average of 48 points, with each being played in Starkville. Last year's contest, a 105-57 affair, was among the toughest tests for then-first-year head women's basketball coach Johnetta Hayes.

SCHEDULE SIMILARITIES: The Bulldogs and Hornets both face four teams this season - Troy (MSU - W, 79-57, ASU - 12/5), SEC teams Georgia (ASU - 12/21, MSU - 1/31) and Auburn (ASU - L, 35-84, MSU - 2/15), and Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) opponent Jackson State, who Mississippi State will take on in its non-conference finale on December 28 before ASU faces the Tigers in early January in SWAC play.

THE LEAD HORNET: Sophomore guard Londyn Walker has been the offensive engine for the Hornets in the early part of the season, as the newcomer from North Carolina A&T is averaging 15.8 points, including a season high 23 in the loss to UTEP on Saturday. As Coach Hayes continues to find the right role players to build the core of the team, she is certainly able to rely on the Atlanta native as one of the top scorers throughout this season.

FROM THE HEAD HONCHO: "The competing part is there for sure, but it's about competing the right way, and competing with the right understanding, and we just lacked that today." -Hayes, in referencing the team's fight regardless of what the score is, following the Auburn game. She singled out a few young players who came in and contributed well off the bench, but went on to note the importance of these games in preperation for whatever lies ahead.

WE LIVE IN A TRANSFER WORLD: Similar to every team at every level in America, the Lady Hornets are feeling the affects of the transfer portal, one of many moving pieces in the current state of college athletics. Coach Hayes welcomes in ten new student-athletes, seven of which come to the River Region by way of the transfer portal. This is to be expected, as nearly that many people left the team, whether that be due to graduation or, in most cases, the portal. It is the same situation for the opposing team, as Coach Purcell picked up six new non-first-year Bulldogs from different schools across the nation in his effort to build a strong, SEC contender.

JOHNETTA HAYES

HEAD WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

RICE '04 / PRAIRIE VIEW A&M '06M

18-19 Record at ASU - 2nd Season

215-184 Record Overall - 15th Season

Johnetta Hayes enters her second season as the sixth head coach of the Alabama State University women's basketball team in 2026.

Hayes, who came to the River Region after serving as an assistant coach for the Rutgers Scarlet Knights, takes the reigns of the Lady Hornets women's basketball program from Alabama State Athletics Hall of Fame head coach Freda Freeman-Jackson, who retired after 27 successful seasons at the helm.

Hayes is a veteran coach with 10 years of head coaching experience, including six highly successful seasons as the head coach at Texas Southern University from 2013-19.

During her tenure at Texas Southern, she posted an 83-24 SWAC Record, winning 78% of her conference games with an overall record of 115-74. She led TSU to two SWAC Regular-Season titles, one SWAC Tournament title, and four overall postseason tournaments (1 NCAA tournament appearance, 2 WNIT appearances, and 1 WCBI appearance). In addition, she helped lead Texas Southern to a 2013 SWAC regular-season title and a WNIT appearance as the associate head coach. Haynes's overall record as a head coach is 197-165 and 130-80 in conference games, with head coaching stops at Wiley College, Texas Southern, and the University of Maryland-Baltimore.

Before Rutgers, Hayes served as the head coach at UMBC for four seasons, leading the team to new heights and historic milestones.

In the 2022-23 season, Hayes led the Retrievers to an 11-win improvement, one of the best in the nation. Hayes also led the team to a 10-6 mark in America East play, their second-best record in program history. UMBC defeated NJIT, 82-71, to advance to the America East Semifinals for the first time since 2015.

Under her tutelage, Kiara Bell became the first UMBC player named America East Defensive Player of the Year. Bell was also named the inaugural America East Newcomer of the Year, earning spots on the All-Conference Second Team and All-Defensive teams.

KK White also was named to the All-Conference Second Team, while Ashia McCalla was voted onto the All-Conference Third Team and was named to the Academic All-District Team.

Hayes' squad excelled in the classroom. The team GPA also reached an impressive 3.32 for Fall 2022, and multiple players earned a 4.0 and Academic Honors, such as Dean's List.

Before her time in Baltimore and Texas Southern, Hayes spent two years as an assistant on coach Cynthia Cooper-Dyke's staff at the University of North Carolina-Wilmington. During the stint, the Seahawks recorded back-to-back 20-win seasons and WNIT appearances.

Before arriving at UNCW, Hayes was an assistant coach at North Texas (2008-10), where she helped mentor Sun Belt Conference Rookie of the Year honoree Jasmine Godbout, who became the second player in program history to earn the honor.

Hayes has also served as the head coach at Wiley (Texas) College (2006-08) and as an assistant coach at Prairie View A&M (2004-06).

The Houston, Texas native was a four-year letter winner at Rice University (2000-04). She earned First Team All-WAC honors in 2003 after leading Rice in scoring, rebounding, blocked shots, and field goal percentage. Hayes was ranked 16th nationally in blocked shots per game during the 2002-03 season, averaging 2.46 blocks per game, and is third in program history with 142 blocked shots in her career.

Hayes graduated with a Bachelor of Liberal Arts degree from Rice University in 2004 and earned a Master of Education from Prairie View A&M University in 2006. She has two daughters, Khloe Perry and Zoie Perry.

JOE L. REED DUNN OLIVER ACADOME

The Joe L. Reed Dunn-Oliver Acadome is a multipurpose facility on the campus of Alabama State University, featuring a 7,400-seat basketball arena suitable for NCAA Tournaments and concerts, as well as team locker rooms for athletes, entertainers, banquet facilities and laboratory space for physical education classes. Built in 1992 on the southern end of the campus, the facility has hosted commencement exercises for Alabama State, as well as high schools from around the area, and has been a concert venue for some of the biggest names in entertainment such as Earth, Wind and Fire, Kem, The Isley Brothers, Jill Scott, and Frankie Beverly and Maze.

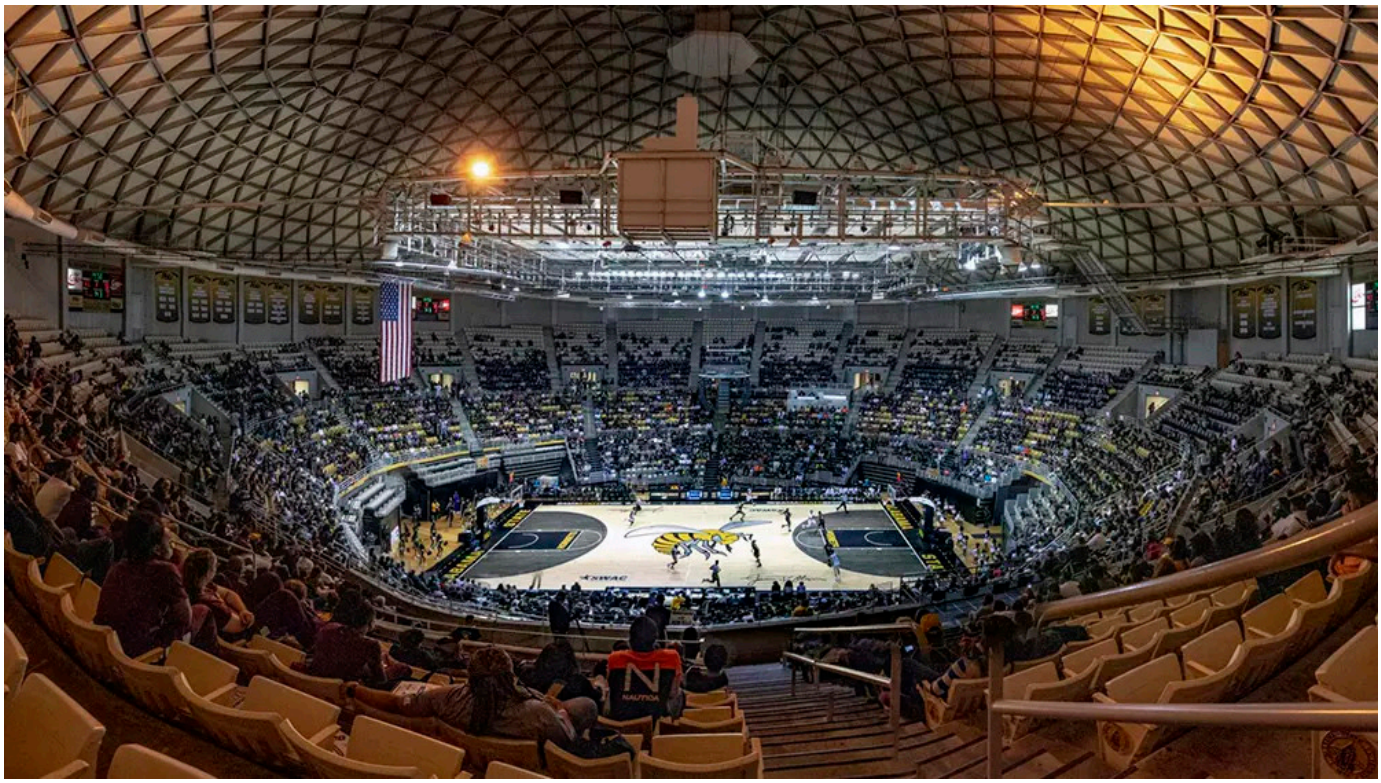

Alabama State's arena is named the Joe L. Reed Dunn-Oliver Acadome after two legendary Hornet basketball coaches, Charles Johnson "C.J." Dunn and James V. Oliver, as well as Joe L. Reed '62, the former university board of trustees chairman (1990-2008) and student body president.

Coach Dunn served as head basketball coach between 1934 and 1963, winning 298 games, the most wins of any Hornet coach. Dunn spent 46 years as ASU, serving in a number of capacities as ASU, including baseball coach, instructor, dean of students and athletic director. Dunn also served as Commissioner of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference from 1970-72.

Coach Oliver also contributed greatly to ASU's athletic program, ushering in a new era of Hornet basketball from 1978. The 1966 ASU graduate led the Hornets for 16 years, compiling a record of 291-192 record, winning back-to-back Southwestern Athletic Conference championships.

Both Alabama State women's and men's basketball locker rooms were renovated prior to the 2012-13 seasons, and a legacy mural added in 2013, honoring past legends who have competed in the Black and Gold.

The Joe L. Reed Dunn-Oliver Acadome took over hosting Hornet and Lady Hornet indoor athletic events from the C.J. Dunn Sports Arena, which was built in 1956, while lightening the load of the Lockhart Gymnasium, which was built in 1939 and serves as the home base and court for the ASU women's volleyball team.
