TEAM NOTES

- Mississippi State enters the NCAA Championship for the fourth consecutive season, the longest streak in program history.
- The Bulldogs have made the tournament every season under HC Charlie Ewing, who is in his fifth year. The Bulldogs have advanced past the regional round in all but his first season, where the regional round was canceled due to inclement weather, and only the top six seeds advanced.
- Ewing has led the Bulldogs to six tournament titles, making him the winningest coach in program history.
- Kendall Griffin is in her first season as assistant coach for the Bulldogs. Griffin joins Mississippi State after spending the past two seasons at Indiana, where she helped lead the program to it's first Big 10 Championship in 30 years.
- Griffin spent four seasons at LSU and her graduate season at Louisville during her college career.

- Experience Matters: The Bulldogs have five golfers who have carded action in the NCAA Championship.
- Ewing has led the team to six tournament titles during his time at Mississippi State, making him the most winningest coach in program history.
- The Bulldogs enter the Championship round after finishing fourth in the Gold Canyon Regional. Avery Weed, Izzy Pellot, Ana Pina Ortega and Chiara Horder all finished in the top 20 individually. This was only the third time all season State had four golfers finish in the top 20 of a tournament.
- State shot the second-lowest tournament score in program history at the PDI Intercollegiate (-23) and the sixth-lowest at the Chevron Collegiate (-19) to kick off the spring semester.
- In last years NCAA Championship, the Bulldogs finished 15th after advancing to the final round of stroke play.
