TO PROVE A BOX SCORE: For either side, total at bats plus sacrifices, bases on balls and hit by pitcher should equal runs scored, left on bases and opponents' putouts. . . . NOTES: Semi-colons used only between double plays. . . . Separate paragraphs should be made starting with errors and two base hits; also footnotes for pinch-hitters and pinch-runners which will be carried horizontally. . . . The decision pitcher's records should be listed on the same line as his game performance, i.e. (W,14-11). . . . In the event a game is won in the last of the 9th or an extra inning a notation should be made in the first paragraph of the summary following the "LOB" figures; i.e. "Lost out when winning run scored in 12th." . . . NOTES ON GAME (Write Notes on Back Side): Give features such as hit batsman, error, fielding play, etc. that prove the game. Also list error by pitcher which appears in the summary above. Take care of sensitive players, therefore, do not show the one who is listed here. . . . Pitchers: Use first names. Mention injuries, players put out of game, and why; games officially protested and conservative estimate of crowd.
