QUOTES FROM LSU COACH SKIP BERTMAN

"I think that game showed the reason we wanted to play this tournament. Paul Byrd had the best command he's had all year. Our freshman got tournament competition. I was glad to see that.

(ON THE CONDITIONS)-- The commissioner didn't feel that it was unplayable. The integrity of the tournament is obviously important. We don't want to send everyone home without finishing the tournament.

The boys played hard. I want to see us play every game we can in this thing. I want to see some of our young pitchers in tournament competition before big crowds to see how they react.

Final Score:	Mississippi State	$\frac{R}{1}$	$\frac{H}{3}$	$\frac{E}{0}$

AUBURN COACH HAL BAIRD

"I think by far that was the best played game of the tournament. It certainly was the best pitched game of the tournament. It was an outstanding effort on both team's part. Both pitchers did a tremendous job. Both teams played exceptionally well.

Jeff Leatherman --

I told John that was the best pitched game I've seen in college. We hit the ball hard at times, but it was right at someone.

John Powell (On the home run pitch) --

I kind of knew it right when it left the bat. He hit it well.

--30--

MISS. STATE COACH RON POLK

"I thought (AU's) Powell and B.J. (Wallace) both pitched real well. In a 1-0 ballgame, it could have gone the other way.

"In t-he first game (vs. LSU), we didn't do a good job of fielding the bunt, and everything else they hit after that found a piece of real estate.-

"They key tonight was B.J. Pitching real well and Charlie Anderson hitting that home run.
