Bulldogs Return to Magic City for NCAA Indoor Championships

The Mississippi State track and field program arrives to Birmingham with eight Bulldogs qualified for the NCAA Indoor Championships. This weekend marks the third time this indoor season that MSU will compete at the Birmingham Crossplex, after opening its 2022 campaign in January with back-to-back meets in the Magic City.

Every MSU student-athlete competing in their respective event enters the meet with a top-15 national mark. The eight Bulldogs also sit in the top-two of MSU's all-time indoor performances for their respective events:

- Shayla Broughton | Pentathlon | 4th (4,260 pts)
- Rosealee Cooper | Women's 60m Hurdles | 15th (8.07)
- Cameron Crump | Men's Long Jump | 11th (7.86m)
- Jesse Henderson | Men's 60m Hurdles | 7th (7.66)
- Safir Scott, Gabriel Moronta, Leon Clarke, Lee Eppie | 11th (3:05.65)

Every member of the Southeastern Conference will also be present this weekend.

Hear From Head Coach Chris Woods:

"[I'm expecting them] to take all the lessons and challenges they've had to learn and face this season and apply, this weekend, what we've been doing at training. I'm really excited to see what the response is going to be from our student-athletes when they get in that championship environment. I think the location will be phenomenal within the proximity of where Birmingham [Alabama] is compared to Starkville [Mississippi]. A lot of family members, members of our team who didn't make it, and friends of theirs are all going to be coming to support them. If they can take advantage of that energy and the familiarity of the venue, I know they have the ability to perform at an extremely high level this weekend."

BIRMINGHAM BULLDOG BITES

- Eight Bulldogs qualified for the 2022 NCAA Indoor Championships

- Every MSU student-athlete competing in their respective event enters the meet with a top-15 mark.

- Shayla Broughton is only 327 points away from breaking the school's pentathlon record. Broughton's ranked 4th nationally in the event and will compete on Friday.

- Cameron Crump enters the weekend looking to break the men's program's long jump record. His 7.86-meter-jump at the Razorback Invite (Jan. 28) tied the school record. Crump will compete on Friday and is ranked tied for 11th place.

- Ranked 7th nationally in the men's 60 meter hurdles, Jesse Henderson holds the men's program's record for the event (7.74). Prelims for the 60m Hurdles will be on Friday, with the Finals being held on Saturday.

- Rosealee Cooper is only five seconds away from breaking the school's women's 60 meter hurdle record. Similar to Henderson, Cooper will compete in the event prelims on Friday, with the Finals being held on Saturday. Cooper's 8.07 time is the 15th best time in the nation.

- Safir Sott, Gabriel Moronta, Leon Clarke and Lee Eppie will represent MSU on Saturday in the men's 4x400 meter relay. The squad is only 0.59 seconds from breaking the school record set back in 2012. Their 3:05.65 run at the SEC Indoor Championship has them entering the weekend tied for 11th in the country.

BULLDOG COACHING STAFF

CHRIS WOODS - HEAD COACH

Chris Woods was named head coach of the track and field program on June 14, 2019.

Woods had served as the interim head coach since Sept. 20, 2018, after five seasons as a sprinters and relays coach for both the MSU men and women. With its 11th-place and 24-point showing at the 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships, State secured its third-highest point total in program history and second-best mark since 1982. Woods helped guide MSU to a combined seven All-America honors in the 2019 outdoor season. Woods' 2021 season saw many spots in the record book updated, producing two All-Americans from the NCAA Indoor Championships, and developing nine All-Americans for the Outdoor Championships.

Before coming to MSU, Woods served as head coach for the men's and women's cross country and track and field teams at Claflin University in Orangeburg, South Carolina. Prior to his time with Claflin, Woods was instrumental in the success of Abilene Christian University's track and field program as the men's and women's long sprints, middle and long distance coach. Under his direction at Abilene Christian, Woods aided his team to back-to-back NCAA Division II National Championships in men's track and field.

APRIL THOMAS - ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH (THROWS)

Thomas spent 12 seasons as an assistant coach overseeing MSU's throwers. She has received national recognition for her expertise in guiding athletes in the javelin after leading the Bulldogs to become the only program in NCAA history to have three men throw the javelin over 80m, earning the title "Jav U".

After a successful season in 2019, April Thomas was promoted to associate head coach in June 2019. The leader of "JavU," Thomas' squad swept the men's javelin podium at the 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships, marking the first time since 1964 that a school had achieved the feat. Thomas was tabbed USTFCCA South Region Men's Assistant Coach of the Year in recognition of her squad's success.

Thomas' athletes have earned eight top-three finishes in the NCAA javelin championships over the last five seasons. No other school has combined for more than four in that span. Bulldogs have also won the national championship in three of the last four years. Her throwers hold 20 marks in State's outdoor record book and six on the indoor leaderboards.

MARK'QUIS FRAZIER - ASSISTANT COACH (SPRINTS)

Frazier enters his first season with the Bulldogs, and will be working with the sprinters.

He spent one year with Alabama's sprint group for the 2020 season, which was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to being in Tuscaloosa, he spent two seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Barton Community College. There, he helped lead the Cougars to two NJCAA team titles and four runner-up finishes. During his time coaching at Barton, the Cougars had 19 national champions.

Frazier's collegiate career began at Barton as a part of the program's 50th National Championship during his freshman campaign. He went on to win the 2011 NJCAA Outdoor 200m title with a time of 20.38, the third-fastest collegiate time in the nation at any level that season.

He finished his collegiate career at Baylor, earning All-America honors as a member of the Bears 4x100m relay team. He graduated from Baylor in 2014 with his bachelor's in education.

CARJAY LYLES - ASSISTANT COACH (HURDLES)

Lyles was hired as an assistant coach in 2019, to work with State's horizontal jumps along with the short sprints and short hurdles. His first full season as a Bulldog came in 2021, where he finished the indoor season with three student-athletes scoring at the SEC Championships.

Lyles came to Starkville after spending the previous season as an assistant at Southern Cal. The Stone Mountain, Georgia, native arrives with a track record of national and international success across the sprints, hurdles and jumps.

The 2019 season saw USC's women finish as national runners-up at the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships while winning both conference championships. He coached indoor and outdoor conference champion Earnest Sears in the men's high jump along with the women's indoor long jump champion Lanae-Tava Thomas. Indoors, he also picked up silver medals in the women's long and triple jumps, and his athlete was the outdoor runner-up in the women's triple jump.

STEVE THOMAS - ASSISTANT COACH (JUMPS)

Since returning to MSU in 2011, Steve Thomas has seen success as he has coached 24 athletes to All-American honors and one to a national championship title. In the 2013 indoor season, Thomas coached Erica Bougard to the NCAA championships where she earned the crown in the pentathlon after earning 4,399 points. Thomas coached senior Erica Bougard during the 2014 indoor season in the long jump and pentathlon, both of which she earned All-American accolades in. Bougard won the pentathlon title in the SEC Indoor Championships after setting a new school record of 4,458 points.

Also during the 2014 indoor season, Thomas coached All-Americans Rochelle Farquharson and Jason Harper in the triple jump. Farquharson set a new school record in the women's triple jump with a leap of 42-04 at the 2014 SEC Indoor Championships. Most recently, Logan Boss broke the school record in the high jump with a mark of 1.90m under Thomas' guidance.

Thomas' first tenure at MSU was from 1988 to 1992 when he served as the head field events coach. During his time, he trained two All-Americans and six All-SEC athletes. Under his direction a group of athletes earned a combined 11 conference titles.

MISSISSIPPI STATE TRACK & FIELD

2022 INDOOR MEET RECAPS

BLAZER INVITE - JAN. 14

The Bulldog track and field program broke 10 personal bests on its opening day of action in its 2022 indoor campaign. Jabari Bennett kicked things off in the shot put, throwing the third best mark in MSU indoor history. Bennett threw a 17.65m mark in one of the opening events of the day. It's the first time since Ed Wesela in 2012 that a Bulldog cracked the top-5 all-time men's Shot Put performances. In the women's shot put, Jhordyn Stallworth improved her indoor personal best with a throw of 13.68m. Emma Hunt and Maddy Kish finished tied for eighth in the women's pole vault, both improving their personal best marks in opening action.

In the women's 60m hurdles, a trio of Bulldogs finished in the top five, Shayla Broughton taking the top collegiate finish of the event, with Asia Poe and Cathrina Morris finishing second and fourth, respectively, for collegiate only participants. Poe's time of 8.50 shaved 12 seconds off her personal best. In the distance events, Sydney Steely finished first in the women's 1000m. State's three runners each finished in the top 10 of that event. In the men's weight throw, redshirt sophomore Daniel Pepper threw an indoor personal best mark of 17.55m to highlight the event.

VULCAN INVITE - JAN. 15

Five personal bests and 24 top-5 collegiate finishes highlighted the Bulldog track and field program's showing at the Vulcan Invite. Mississippi State athletes finished in the top five in all but one event they participated in.

The first event for the Maroon and White was the Women's 60m, that featured Rosealee Cooper and Jada McDougale who finished fourth and fifth, respectively. The duo also improved their own indoor personal best times, while Nykah Smith finished sixth in the event. On the men's side, Cameron Crump and Shamar Rose finished second and third, respectively.

In her first ever 60m hurdles event for MSU, Kennedy Jackson finished third, with Cathrina Morris crossing the line right behind her for fourth. It was the second straight women's event of the day with top-6 collegiate finishes for Mississippi State, when Aley Woodberry finished in sixth.

Safir Scott highlighted the jump events, winning both the high jump (2.06m | 6-9.25) and triple jump (14.68m | 48-2), followed by a second-place finish in the long jump (7.06m | 23-2).

SAMFORD UNIVERSITY OPEN - JAN. 22

In the third meet in two weekends for Mississippi State, the Bulldogs collected multiple top-10 finishes in its final regular season meet held at the Birmingham Crossplex.

In total, the Maroon and White set 20 personal bests and collected 76 top-10 collegiate finishes, spanning across the three Birmingham events.

The next time the Maroon and White would compete at the Birmingham venue would be for the NCAA Indoor Championships (March 11-12). Until then, State faces four different regular season meets ranging from Fayetteville, Arkansas to South Bend, Indiana.

RAZORBACK INVITE - JAN. 28-29

Day 1 - five personal-best and three season-best performances carry the Bulldogs to secure two top-3 finishes in the Pentathlon. Shayla Broughton finished first with 4,122 points, a new personal best for the Bulldog, and effectively secured the second best all-time performance in Mississippi State women's indoor history. The personal mark she broke now sits at third best in school history. Asia Poe's 4,039 points gave her a third-place finish in the event. The redshirt junior now holds the fifth best all time performance.

The fun didn't stop there, as redshirt junior Cameron Crump tied a 31-year-old school record in the men's long jump. His 7.86m mark secured a second-place finish for MSU.

Day 2 - Peyton Mickelson and Jabari Bennett each broke school records to put a stamp on the most competitive weekend of Mississippi State's 2022 season.

MUSIC CITY CHALLENGE - FEB. 11-12

Day 1 - In South Carolina, Cooper started the day for the Bulldogs with a semifinal-qualifying run (7.48, q) in the women's 60-meter dash. The run became a new personal best, as well as the fourth best time in women's indoor history.

In Nashville, Broughton won the women's long jump by a mark of 6.35m. The mark not only became her new personal best but also became the fourth best mark for the event in women's indoor history. Teammates Asia Poe, Kennedy Jackson and Aley Woodberry each placed top ten finishes in the event as well.

Day 2 - Action at both the Music City Challenge and Tiger Paw Invite concluded on Saturday as Sydney Steely finished 0.32 seconds short of breaking a school record in the women's 800 meters in Nashville. Her 2:05.77 run is now the second fastest time in Mississippi State track and field women's indoor history.

Over in Clemson, Rosealee Cooper continued where she left off, securing MSU's second fastest indoor time in the women's 200 meters on Saturday.

TIGER PAW INVITE - FEB. 11-12

Day 1 - In South Carolina, Cooper started the day for the Bulldogs with a semifinal-qualifying run (7.48, q) in the women's 60-meter dash. The run became a new personal best, as well as the fourth best time in women's indoor history.

In Nashville, Broughton won the women's long jump by a mark of 6.35m. The mark not only became her new personal best but also became the fourth best mark for the event in women's indoor history. Teammates Asia Poe, Kennedy Jackson and Aley Woodberry each placed top ten finishes in the event as well.

Day 2 - Action at both the Music City Challenge and Tiger Paw Invite concluded on Saturday as Sydney Steely finished 0.32 seconds short of breaking a school record in the women's 800 meters in Nashville. Her 2:05.77 run is now the second fastest time in Mississippi State track and field women's indoor history.

Over in Clemson, Rosealee Cooper continued where she left off, securing MSU's second fastest indoor time in the women's 200 meters on Saturday.

MISSISSIPPI STATE TRACK & FIELD

ALEX WILSON INVITATIONAL - FEB. 19

The Mississippi State track and field program wrapped up its indoor regular season on Saturday at Notre Dame. The day was highlighted by a first-place finish in the men's 4x400 meter relay. The Bulldogs placed in the top-six in each of the four events competed in. Safir Scott extended his personal best in the men's 400 meters.

SEC INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS - FEB. 25-26

Day 1 - MSU's day began in the pentathlon, featuring Shayla Broughton, Kennedy Jackson, Asia Poe and Aley Woodberry. The Bulldogs racked up six different personal bests across the five events, eventually ending with two top-five finishes for the conference championship's opening event. Broughton (second) and Poe (fifth) gave the MSU women's program its first 12 points of the weekend. On the men's side, Cameron Crump brought home five points for the Bulldogs in the long jump. The distance medley relay crew (Daniel Joyce, Tyrese Reid, Gabriel Moronta, Navasky Anderson) hauled in an additional point in the final event of the day.

Day 2 - Sydney Steely broke MSU's women's record in the women's 800 meters. Six different Bulldogs scored points for the MSU men's and women's programs, in addition the men's 4x400-meter-relay group.

The MSU women's program finished 11th overall with 18 points, while the men's team ended with 21 points for a 13th-place finish.
