BULLDOGS READY TO KICK OFF 2012 CAMPAIGN

Mississippi State begins the 2012 season in search of a third-consecutive winning campaign as it kicks off the season against in-state foe Jackson State.

Kick off is scheduled for 6:08 p.m., and the game will be broadcast live on Fox Sports Net affiliates FS South, FS Southwest and SUN Sports. The game will also be available nationwide on ESPN3 and as part of ESPN's Gameplan package.

MULLEN COULD CLIMB VICTORY CHARTS THIS SEASON

Head coach Dan Mullen has led his Mississippi State teams to 21 victories in his first three seasons, second most among all head coaches in school history (Allyn McKeen's teams won 26 from 1939-41). Only two other coaches in Bulldog history have eclipsed the 20-win mark over their first four seasons, Jackie Sherrill compiled 26 from 1991-94 and Emory Bellard won 25 from 1979-82.

DOGS LOOK TO CONTINUE NON-CONFERENCE STREAK

Mississippi State has won its last 11 non-conference games, including 5-0 marks in both 2010 and 2011. Head Coach Dan Mullen's squads are 12-2 in out-of-conference action, with each of the losses coming in his first season.

UNDER MULLEN, STATE QUICK OUT OF GATES

The Bulldogs have won each of their three season-openers under head coach Dan Mullen by a combined score of 153-31.

Last season at Memphis, State racked up a school record 645 yards of total offense in route to a 59-14 victory. In the three wins, the Bulldogs have totaled 1,624 yards of offense an average of 541.3 per game.

BULLDOGS, TIGERS FACE OFF FOR ONLY SECOND TIME

Mississippi State and Jackson State played for the first time in 2009, with the Bulldogs claiming a 45-7 victory in the rain-soaked lidlifter. Despite the weather, an announced crowd of 54,232 watched the action marking the school's third largest crowd at the time. That mark now ranks 17th in stadium history.

STATE HAS BEEN SOLID IN SEASON OPENERS

Historically, Mississippi State has won 79 of its 112 season opening contests (with a pair of ties, a .714 winning percentage).

Dating back to 1991, the Bulldogs have posted a 14-4 mark in season-openers against non-conference competition, including three-straight victories.

DOGS AGAIN FACE ONE OF NATION'S TOP SCHEDULES

Last season Mississippi State played five teams ranked at the time of the game and four teams that finished among the nation's top 8 in the USA Today Coaches' Poll.

This year, State faces four teams ranked in the preseason polls, all from the Southeastern Conference's Western Division.

PASSING OFFENSE LOOKS TO CONTINUE BUILDING

Each of the last two seasons, Mississippi State set school records for touchdown passes, 18 in 2010 and 19 in 2011. The Bulldogs also have posted three of the five highest completion percentages in school history since Mullen and Koenning took over the MSU offense in 2009.

COACHING STAFF MOSTLY SAME IN 2012

Mississippi State returns nine of 10 on-field coaches this season, including both coordinators. With Les Koenning entering his fourth season and defensive coordinator Chris Wilson entering his second year in his current role, it marks the first time since the 2007 season Mississippi State has the same coordinators two consecutive years. That was also the last time Mississippi State had the same defensive coordinator two straight years.

The Bulldog staff had only one change from last season's team, with wide receivers coach Tim Brewster joining the squad in late August. Brewster is a veteran of both the college and NFL game, and comes to Mississippi State after a year as an analyst on Fox Sports' college football coverage. He was the head coach at the University of Minnesota from 2007-2010.

RECENT LOSSES CAME AGAINST QUALITY OPPONENTS

Mississippi State had four losses during the 2010 season, with each coming against a team ranked in the top 12 of all major polls. Last season, the Bulldogs lost six games, with five of the six coming against teams ranked at the time of the game and the other ranked in the top 20 at the end of the season. In fact, Mississippi State has not lost to a team not ranked or receiving votes the week of the contest since prior to the 2009 season.

BANKS LOOKS TO SOLIDIFY LEGACY IN SENIOR SEASON

Johnthan Banks enters his final season at Mississippi State ranked tied for second on the school's all-time career interceptions list with 12. He needs four interceptions to tie Walt Harris for the school mark, and eight to tie the Southeastern Conference career record of 20 (set twice).

Banks is a consensus pre-season All-American and first-team All-SEC selection. A semifinalist for the 2011 Jim Thorpe Award, Banks was listed on the Thorpe, Bednarik and Lott IMPACT Trophy watch lists prior to the 2012 campaign.

DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD LOADED FOR 2012 CAMPAIGN

Banks is far from the lone star in the Mississippi State defensive backfield entering this season. Seniors Corey Broomfield and Darius Slay along with junior Nickoe Whitley have played substantial amounts of football for the Bulldogs. Broomfield has played in 38 games with 28 starts, Whitley in 22 with 18 starts and Slay in 13 games. Combined, the projected starting four have played in 111 games and earned 60 starts. They've also intercepted 29 career passes.

@HailState*@CoachDanMullen*@MStateFB*WALT HARRIS TO BE MSU'S SEC LEGEND

A former member of the Mississippi State secondary will be honored this season as the school's SEC Legend. Walt Harris, who lettered in 1992-95, will represent the Bulldogs during the annual championship weekend festivities in Atlanta the first weekend in December.

Harris was an All-American in 1995, a three-time All-SEC selection and the 13th overall selection in the 1995 NFL Draft. Harris played in 193 games over 13 seasons in the NFL, intercepting 35 career passes. He earned a Pro-Bowl selection in 2006, his 11th in the league.

LAWRENCE BECAME TACKLING MACHINE IN 2011

Senior linebacker Cameron Lawrence finished the 2011 campaign with 123 total tackles, good for third in the SEC and the most by a Bulldog since Mario Haggan tallied 132 in 2000.

Lawrence can become the first Mississippi State player to record 100 or more tackles in consecutive seasons since Dwayne Curry in 1994 and 1995.

RUSSELL EFFICIENT AND ACCURATE IN LIMITED ROLE

Tyler Russell takes over the reins as the Bulldogs' starting quarterback entering the 2012 season. Russell has played in 17 games, earning four starts during his first two seasons. In 2010, Russell posted the school's top passing efficiency season at 144.54 and last year put up the fourth-highest mark at 135.08. His career completion percentage mark of 55.7 stands tied for fourth on the school charts, and his yards-per-attempt and passing efficiency are tops in school history.

BUMPHIS CAN LEAVE IMPACT ON BULLDOG RECORD BOOK

Senior wideout Chad Bumphis has his eyes set on several school records. With 101 career receptions, Bumphis ranks eighth on the Mississippi State chart, and with his next reception will tie Bill Buckley for seventh all-time. Bumphis' 12 touchdown receptions rank tied for sixth, and he's only five shy of tying the school mark of 17 set by Eric Moulds and Justin Jenkins. The Tupelo native's 1,348 yards is only 43 away from entering the top 10. Finally, his 11.4 yard per punt return average ranks fourth in school history.

GABE JACKSON NEXT IN LONG LINE OF OUTSTANDING LINEMEN

Mississippi State has produced a long line of exceptional offensive linemen, and Gabe Jackson may be the next to follow in their footsteps. The junior guard has started all 25 games of his career at left guard, and helped pave the way for two of the most explosive offenses in school history. Jackson was a freshman all-SEC performer in 2010, and was named preseason all-SEC by several publications this year.

KENT HULL TO BE HONORED

Of all the decorated offensive linemen to play at Mississippi State, the most outstanding might be the late Kent Hull. Hull, who passed away in 2011, will be the next addition to the Davis Wade Stadium Ring of Honor, as he is recognized during the Sept. 8 game against Auburn.

He was a consensus first-team Freshman All-SEC selection in 1979 and a pre-season all-America selection in 1982. He helped pave the way for a Mississippi State option attack which set school records for rushing yards and total offense that still stand today. After his decorated career at Mississippi State, Hull played in 189 games for the Buffalo Bills from 1986 until 1996 and started in four straight Super Bowls as he helped the Bills to four consecutive AFC Championships from 1990-93. He was named to the Pro Bowl three times and his name went up on the Bills Wall of Fame at Ralph Wilson Stadium in 2002.

BULLDOG NAMES ALL OVER PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Eight different Mississippi State players were named to preseason award watch lists during the offseason. Johnthan Banks was named to the Bronk Nagurski, Bednark, Thorpe, Lott Impact, Hornung and Senior Bowl Watch Lists. He was also named first team All-American by Sports Illustrated, Yahoo! Sports, and Athlon.

Josh Boyd was named to the Outland Trophy and Senior Bowl Watch Lists, while Chad Bumphis, Corey Broomfield and Cameron Lawrence were also named to the Mobile-based all-star game's list. Lawrence was also listed by the Butkus Award.

Gabe Jackson was named to the Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award watch lists.

SERIES HISTORY

Mississippi State vs. Jackson State

2009: MSU, 45-7 at Starkville

at Starkville: MSU, 1-0

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Mississippi State ushered in the Dan Mullen era with great success and in commanding fashion Saturday afternoon, as the Bulldogs ran past Jackson State at Scott Field, 45-7.

This historical outing, delayed at the start by 30 minutes due to lightning in the area, marked the first meeting on the gridiron between teams from the SEC and SWAC and was viewed by a nationally televised ESPN audience and sell-out crowd of 54,232, the third-largest in school history.

The Bulldogs (1-0), who travel to Auburn next week looking for their second-straight win at Jordan-Hare Stadium, now stand at 75-33-2 in lidlifters in their 110th season of action.

But few have been as dominating as this showdown turned out to be.

Mississippi State wasted little time in flexing its muscles. On their second possession of the game, the Bulldogs parlayed a bobbled punt snap by the Tigers into a touchdown four plays later when backup quarterback Chris Relf connected with true freshman Chad Bumphis for a 15-yard scoring strike with 9 minutes, 12 seconds left in the first quarter.

After State's offensive production was momentarily hampered by fumbles, penalties and two missed field goals, it found its rhythm again right before the half when Relf took a keeper around the right end from the 5 for a 14-0 advantage with just 48 seconds left on the clock.

Coming out of the locker room to start the second half, State quickly jumped on the Tigers (0-1) and swelled its lead to 21-0 when sophomore running back Robert Elliott, back from a knee injury he suffered last year at LSU, scored from the 7.

State, which outgained JSU in total yards 359-194, struck two more times in the third when Relf hit Marcus Green and Bumphis from 19 and 7 yards out, respectively.

Then in the fourth, MState made it a 38-0 affair when Sean Brauchle nailed a 25-yard field goal with 13:47 remaining.

Jackson State finally found the end zone midway through the fourth when Terrence Davis broke free for a 16-yard scamper.

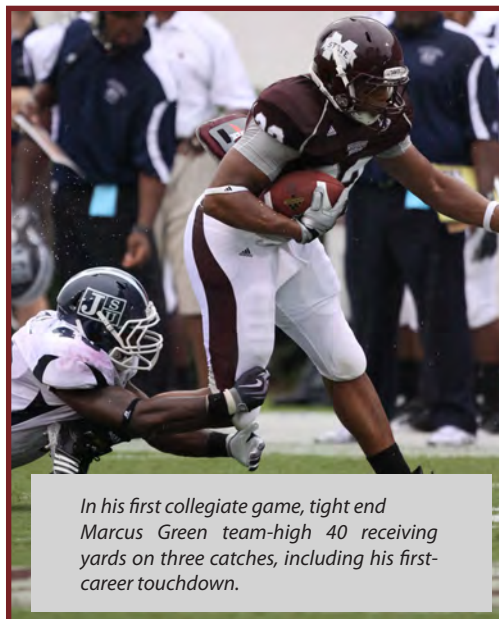

However, the final points of the day belonged to Mississippi State. With 3:34 left, defensive back Corey Broomfield returned a Trae Rutland interception 43 yards for the score. It was the first INT returned for a touchdown since the 2007 season against Alabama, when Anthony Johnson took a John Parker Wilson pass 100 yards for the score in State's 17-12 stunner.

Broomfield's play capped a stellar performance by the defense. The Tigers managed just seven first downs and 62 yards rushing, while Rutland was 8 of 19 for 132 yards, with 52 coming on one completion in the first half.

The Bulldogs, however, manufactured 20 first downs and 202 yards on the ground, paced by Relf's 82. He also completed 7 of his 10 passes for 75 yards, while starter Tyson Lee was 8-of-13 passing for 82 yards.

Making his debut for the Maroon and White, Tupelo native Chad Bumphis hauled in a game-high two touchdowns in the 45-7 season-opening victory against Jackson State.

In his first collegiate game, tight end Marcus Green team-high 40 receiving yards on three catches, including his first-career touchdown.

As a freshman, DB Corey Broomfield returned an interception 43 yards for a touchdown. Now a senior, Broomfield is tied for the national lead among active players with three career pick sixes.

DAN MULLEN

HEAD COACH • THIRD SEASON

In just three full seasons, Dan Mullen has revitalized and re-energized the Mississippi State fan base. From the moment of his introduction on Dec. 10, 2008 as the 32nd head coach in school history, supporters have turned out in record numbers and capacity crowds to support the Bulldogs.

Mississippi State fans have sold out a school-record 16 consecutive home games at Davis Wade Stadium. Each of the last two years have seen the school's attendance record broken. In fact, 13 of the school's top 15 crowds have occurred in the last three years, with all six crowds last season ranking in the top 15 all-time. The Bulldog faithful have gone on to watch the head coach lead the Maroon and White's football program to back-to-back postseason bowl wins for the first time in over a decade.

Just three years into his tenure, Mullen (.553) is already the winningest coach at State since Darrell Royal in 1954-55 (.600), and is already tied for sixth in school history for wins by a MSU head coach (21). On top of that, Mullen has dominated the Egg Bowl rivalry, becoming just the second MSU coach and the first since Sid Robinson from 1917-19 to start off 3-0 against Ole Miss in the Battle for the Golden Egg.

Mullen was widely regarded as one of the top young minds in college football when he arrived at Mississippi State, and he brought not only an impressive offensive resume and a list of NFL-developed quarterbacks, but also an energy and passion for the college game.

Improvement wasn't limited to fan enthusiasm, as Mullen ignited the Bulldogs to a nine-win season in just his second year, and then another successful season in 2011. With Mullen's masterful offensive mind this past year, the Maroon and White broke the school record for passing touchdowns in a season (19) and finished second all-time in school history in total offense and first downs. Additionally, the offense finished in the top 10 in passing yards, completions and completion percentage.

In 2010, State won six games in a row in the middle of the season and finished among the top 10 in school history in the following categories - passing yardage, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rushing attempts, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total plays, total offensive yards, per-game offense and first downs. The defense also amassed the 10th-highest sack total in school annals.

The 2010 Bulldogs closed out the season with nine victories including posting the largest margin of victory in a bowl game in school history. The resounding 52-14 Gator Bowl win against Michigan capped a truly remarkable year.

With the nation's toughest schedule in 2009, State's rushing attack, led by first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection and current NFL running back Anthony Dixon, finished ninth nationally with a 227.6 rushing yard average per game. State averaged 371.9 yards of total offense per game, the ninth-highest total in school history and the most since 2000 at the time.

Mullen's first season concluded with a rousing 41-27 victory over MSU's in-state rival, which brought the Golden Egg back to Starkville. He became the only third Mississippi State coach to win his Egg Bowl debut since 1939, joining Allyn McKeen and Jackie Sherrill. The Bulldogs posted a 5-7 overall record in 2009, including three road victories.

During the previous four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida, Mullen molded a Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award-winning quarterback, along with a Rimington Trophy finalist and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

In 2008 alone, Mullen's offensive attack ranked third nationally in scoring - averaging better than 45 points per game as the Gators scored at least 30 points in 12-of-13 games. The 587 points scored eclipsed the previous University of Florida mark, set in 1996.

Florida rushed for a school-record 41 touchdowns that season and UF's 80 rushing touchdowns over the two seasons ranked second nationally. Overall, Florida's rushing yardage of 2,987 ranked ninth nationally in 2008 and was the third-highest total in school history.

Seven offensive players were recognized as All-Southeastern Conference selections following the season in which Mullen helped UF claim its second SEC Championship and a chance to play for its second national championship in three seasons.

The Gator offense ranked first in the SEC in scoring offense and total offense for a second-straight season in 2008, averaging 45.2 points and 442.4 yards per game. Under Mullen's tutelage in 2007, UF averaged 42.5 points and 457.2 yards.

In 2007, Mullen directed the Gator offense to the third-highest point total ever by a UF unit and the top single-season marks for rushing touchdowns and third-down conversion percentage. Florida's offense scored 75 touchdowns, second most in the SEC.

Mullen orchestrated a UF attack that was the only one in the nation to have rushed for a touchdown and passed for a touchdown in every game during the season. He also helped UF score on 83-of-152 drives in 2007 for a league-best 54.6 percent, marking the best number since the stat was tracked by the SEC in 2000. Florida additionally averaged 7.0 yards per play that year, the fourth-best total in the nation. Lastly, the Gators averaged 5.3 yards per rush, the second-best number in school history.

In 2007, Mullen helped coach sophomore quarterback and current NFL star Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, 78th Sullivan Award winner and AP first-team All-American among other honors.

He also tutored six offensive players to the All-SEC team: Tebow, NFL Pro Bowler Percy Harvin, Cornelius Ingram, Brandon James, Jim Tarrt and Drew Miller.

Mullen played an integral role in Florida's 2006 national championship, overseeing an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. In the BCS National Championship Game, he engineered an attack that produced 41 points against a top-ranked Ohio State squad that was limiting opponents to less than 11 points per game on the year. Under Mullen's tutelage, quarterback Chris Leak opened the contest by going 9-for-9 for 99 yards and a touchdown en route to earning Offensive MVP honors.

The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns. Florida passed for 29 touchdowns in 2006, while Leak ranked among the national leaders with 23 scoring tosses. Tebow matched UF's then single-season record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with eight scores, and his 5.3 yards per carry average placed second nationally among signal callers. Six different players averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry.

In 2005, Chad Jackson played his way to Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after matching the UF single-season record with 88 receptions, a figure that led the SEC and finished sixth nationally. Center Mike Degory was also named a finalist for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's top center, during that campaign. Both earned first-team All-SEC honors under Mullen's tutelage.

Mullen went to Florida from Utah with Head Coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, Mullen developed current NFL star Alex Smith - the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft - from a pocket passer into an efficient executor of the spread, making him one of the most versatile threats in college football. Smith took over the starting job three games into Mullen's tenure, passing for 2,247 yards and running for 452 to finish second in the Mountain West in total offense in 2003.

The 2004 campaign saw Smith earn National Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, while also becoming Utah's first-ever Heisman Trophy finalist. Smith also garnered final consideration for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp National Player of the Year Awards. Smith passed for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 scores on the year, ranking second in the nation with a 176.5 efficiency rating and leading the Utes to a perfect 12-0 season and a Fiesta Bowl championship. As a team, Utah finished the 2004 season third in the nation in scoring offense (45.3) and total offense (499.8).

Prior to his stint at Utah, Mullen served as quarterbacks' coach at Bowling Green for two seasons, putting up 6,627 yards of total offense and scoring 81 touchdowns during that span. In 2002, quarterback Josh Harris threw for 2,425 yards, ran for 737 yards and completed the campaign as the nation's third-leading scorer.

Mullen spent the two years before his Bowling Green stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and before that assisted with Syracuse's 1998 BIG EAST championship and Orange Bowl run.

A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pa., Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior. He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has two children, one son and one daughter.

#13 Johnthan Banks

Defensive Back

Senior • 6-2 • 185

Maben, Miss.

Take it to the Bank...

"Johnthan Banks is an All-American talent. His mere presence on the field can change offensive plans. He seems to stick to receivers with his coverage skills, and if he can get his paws around the ball, look out!" - Edward Aschoff, ESPN.com

"Johnthan Banks is the best defender in pass coverage in the SEC. He's just so long. He's taller than I am, and he's just a fast, tall corner. That's not what you want to go up against."

- Emory Blake, Auburn Wide Receiver

"I think he has come back with the sense that he wants to be the team leader. He's not worried about how maybe coming back one year can up his draft status. He's come back with the desire that he wants to leave an impact on our team as he walks out the door."

- Dan Mullen, MSU Head Coach
